Ronaleyn George Gordon Cumming,1856 Fountain of the Elephants Desmond Young,1959 Rocky Mountain Druggist ,1903 The Caesar of Paris Susan Jaques,2018-12-04 Napoleon is one of history s most fascinating figures But his complex relationship with Rome both with antiquity and his contemporary conflicts with the Pope and Holy See have undergone little examination In The Caesar of Paris Susan Jaques reveals how Napoleon s dueling fascination and rivalry informed his effort to turn Paris into the new Rome Europe s cultural capital through architectural and artistic commissions around the city His initiatives and his aggressive pursuit of antiquities and classical treasures from Italy gave Paris much of the classical beauty we know and adore today Napoleon had a tradition of appropriating from past military greats to legitimize his regime Alexander the Great during his invasion of Egypt Charlemagne during his coronation as emperor even Frederick the Great when he occupied Berlin But it was ancient Rome and the Caesars that held the most artistic and political influence and would remain his lodestars Whether it was the Arc de Triomphe the Venus de Medici in the Louvre or the gorgeous works of Antonio Canova Susan Jaques brings Napoleon to life as never before The National Druggist ,1903 Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach,2010-01-15 This is the second volume in a series that traces century by century the role of Asia in the making of Europe The rise to world dominance of the Western nations in modern times and the rapid industrial growth of the West which outpaced the East in technical and military achievements have led to a historical eclipse of the ancient and brilliant cultures of Asia Historican Donald F Lach in his influential scholarly work Asia in the Making of Europe points out that an eclipse is never permanent that this one was never total and that there was a period in early modern times when Asia and Europe were close rivals in brilliance and mutual influence Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach,1965 First systematic inclusive study of the impact of the high civilizations of Asia on the development of modern Western civilization destruction by hunters by disease and most importantly destruction of its vast herds notably of wildebeest due to the developing beef export economy and the erection of veterinary cordon fences depriving the large game of migration routes in times of drought Once possessing one of the greatest animal displacements in Africa with huge migrations of antelope this book underlines the reality that the fauna of Botswana today is but a tiny remnant of what was perhaps once one of the the greatest spectacles of big game on earth It shows how the decline came about and the controls exercised by tribal chiefs illustrating the indigenous peoples attitudes and eventual protective measures both tribal and statutory Whereas the pessimistic predictions of extinction at the end of the nineteenth century have happily not come true nonetheless the continued existence of this once great fauna is increasingly threatened by climate change threatening an already fragile balance and human population increase with its increasing economic demands and changes in land use The study fills a gap in the literature of African wildlife conservation and is distinctive by drawing upon a rich historical background The city trip guide for Chambéry (France) YouGuide Ltd, Five Years of a Hunter's Life in the Far Interior of South Africa Cumming,1850 Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society of London Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1861 Frank Leslie's New York Journal ,1856 Two Colored Women with the American Expeditionary Forces Addie W. Hunton,Kathryn Magnolia Johnson,1920 The story of Y M C A work among African American troops in France during World War I The Literary Heritage of the Arabs Suheil Bushrui,James Malarkey,2014-06-05 The Literary Heritage of the Arabs samples some of the finest literature produced by Arab writers in the last 1 500 years The selection of poetry and prose spans many genres and styles conveying the full range of Arab experiences and perspectives from the tragic to the comic the wistful to the mystical the courtly to the lowly and the Arab East to Andalusia The reader of this anthology will become aware of the extent to which this vibrant and distinctive literary heritage has always been both receptive to the currents from neighbouring cultures and influential in the evolution of other literary traditions in South Asia Western Europe and beyond Thus the reader will discover behind local colours and different literary conventions our common humanity
