Four Painters John Yau,1989      Asian American Writers Deborah L. Madsen,2005 Presents career biographies and criticism of Asian American writers from the late 19th century up to the current time Many works focus on the experience of Asians living in the United States      American Jewish History ,1990      Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang,2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography      American Short-story Writers Since World War II. Patrick Meanor,Richard Edward Lee,2001 Focuses on how the declining market for short story writers after World War II saw the migration of these writers to universities where they not only continued to write but established creative writing classes that would in turn inspire and develop new generations of writers of various genres      Talisman ,1990      Judaica Americana Nathan M. Kaganoff,1995 7 427 items A cumulative edition of the 58 bibliographical lists published in the periodical of the American Jewish Historical Society Contains books and articles most of them in English dealing with the history of Jews in North America and in Latin America See the subject index for items on antisemitism      Artbibliographies Modern ,1990 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971      Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art ,1991      American Book Publishing Record ,1990      Paperbound Books in Print ,1992      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991      Michael Kessler Michael
