which women were positioned as historical subjects in the process of constructing political social and cultural history in Yugoslavia while simultaneously facing the politics of institutional exclusion and academic ignorance of progressive ideas and emancipatory struggles To this effect the book interprets a series of works written in interwar Yugoslavia by women or about women s position in public space The research corpus is varied including LGBT literature autobiographies travelogues literary correspondence political writings parody bibliographies and dictionaries etc The book argues that women have been programmatically made absent from the so called universal canon of post Yugoslav literature or else negatively valorised or labeled while at the same time women s writing in interwar Yugoslavia reflected articulated and mapped significant social political and cultural issues The book proposes a re reading of the once censored and forgotten texts to counter the politics of exclusion that operates even today in the post Yugoslav space This re reading is carried out in the light of contemporary feminist theories and aims to reveal and emphasise the emancipatory importance of women s authorship In this way Jelena Petrovi provides a fresh perspective on the topical issue of the still contested post Yugoslav space From Post-Yugoslavia to the Female Continent Tijana Matijevic,2020-10-27 This study of contemporary literature from the former Yugoslavia Post Yugoslavia follows the ways in which the feminist writing of gender body sexuality and social and cultural hierarchies brings to light the past of socialist Yugoslavia its cultural and literary itineraries and its dissolution in the Yugoslav wars The analysis also focuses on the particularities of different feminist writings together with their picturing of possible futures The title of the book suggests an attempt to interpret post Yugoslav literature as feminist writing but also a process of conceptualizing a post Yugoslav literary field in this study represented by contemporary fiction from Bosnia and Herzegovina Croatia and Serbia Who's Who in Twentieth Century World Poetry Alan Parker,Mark Willhardt,2005-12-05 Publicity Title Foreword by Andrew Motion Poet Laureate 900 entries by 75 international contributors all experts in their field Covers both canonical and lesser known contemporary poets Very broad range of coverage taking in poets from all over the world The only book of its kind to look at non English language poets in such detail Who's who in Twentieth-century World Poetry Mark Willhardt,Alan Michael Parker,2002 Global in perspective this comprehensive volume provides biographical information on the greatest poets of the 20th century and critical accounts of their work It features 900 entries by 75 international contributors
