Four Zoas Of Australia:

Four Zoas of Australia Norman Talbot, 1992-01-01 Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 The Fin de Siècle Imagination in Australia, 1890-1914 Mark Hearn, 2022-07-14 This book explores the fin de siècle an era of powerful global movements and turbulent transition in Australia and beyond through a series of biographical microhistories From the first wave feminist Rose Summerfield and the working class radical John Dwyer to the indigenous rights advocate David Unaipon and the poet Christopher Brennan Hearn traces the transnational identities philosophies ideas and cultures that characterised this era Examining the struggles and aspirations of fin de siècle lives respect for the rights of women and indigenous peoples the injustices and hardship inflicted on working men and women and the ways in which they imagined a better world this book examines the transformation and renewal brought about by fin de siècle ideas It examines the distinctive characteristics of this great acceleration of economic technological and cultural forces that swept the globe at the turn of the 19th century both within an Australian context and on the world stage Asserting that the fin de siècle was significant for the making of modern Australia and demonstrating the impact Australian fin de siècle lives had on the transnational and global movements of the era Mark Hearn traces the turbulent nature of the fin de siècle imagination in Australia and its response to these dynamic forces Arcady in Australia Coral Lansbury, 1971-01-01 This provocative book examines the vision of Australia in nineteenth century English literature The industrial revolution destroyed the myth of an idyllic rural way of life in England and writers like Charles Dickens Bulwer Lytton and Charles Reade created it anew in the improbable environment of Australia The popular image of Australia in English literature was Arcadian in turn it dominated the thought and traditions of writing in Australia The man who supplied the material for English writers was Samuel Sidney he was for a time regarded as an expert on Australia although he had never set foot in the antipodes and all his material was second hand His influence on the literature of the period and consequently on Australia has received scant attention Sidney s influence is fully examined the book also offers entirely new material on Wakefield Dickens Lytton and Reade It provides a new and challenging interpretation of literature and social history in both England and Australia The Best Australian Poetry 2004 Anthony Lawrence, 2004 A selection of the best poems from Australia s literary journalst containing poems that are dramatic and flamboyant revealing an unquenchable passion for life immersed in the marvellous matter of lived reality Australian Book Review , 1993 Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books, 1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe The Language of Oysters Robert Adamson, 1997 Everyday Ethics Simon Longstaff, 2017-07-01 Do I buy eggs laid by free range chooks or the cheaper ones from caged birds Do I tell my best friend I saw her boyfriend kissing another girl Do I lie to my mum by telling her I will wear the jumper she bought me even though it s the ugliest jumper in the world Every day our lives are punctuated by points of decision Some of these decisions will be momentous remembered for decades most will go unnoticed by us and by others Yet all our choices matter taken as a whole they shape our lives and contribute to the rhythms of the world In Everyday Ethics Australia s leading authority on ethics Simon Longstaff provides a map to help you better navigate the landscape of daily decisions more ethically Using a broad range of topics and examples to provoke eye opening reflection and discussion Everyday Ethics is a lesson in how even our smallest choices can matter and an empowering guide that will help us discover what is good and what is right Antipodes ,1995 Southerly ,1993 Vols for 1939 1944 include the Annual report of the Australian English Association v for 1945 1946 include the Annual report of the Sydney Branch of the English Association

Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society,1986 Includes the Society s Annual report and statement of accounts Tourism Art and Souvenirs David Hume,2013-10-01 This book examines the relationship between art and tourism through the study of the material culture of tourism tourist art and souvenirs It thoroughly examines how to categorise the material culture of tourism within the discourses of contemporary art and cultural anthropology and demonstrates that tourist art is a unique expression of place and genuine artistic style The first investigation to consider the activity of souvenirs from both indigenous and settler tourist sites it brings a unique addition to the existing dated research in the area Working initially from Graburn s definition of tourist art as the art of one culture made specifically for the consumption of another Tourism Art and Souvenirs sheds light on important aspects of the souvenir that have not been widely discussed The most recent research is used to consider how the souvenir is designed and consumed consumer expectations and influence on the character of the souvenir how the souvenir maker is consumed by the tradition of heritage and how products become successful as souvenirs The title also investigates the language involved in the representation of place and the recording of experience through the souvenir developing a method that expresses the descriptive data of individual souvenir artefacts graphically so the patterns of language may be analysed Enhancing the understanding of material culture in tourism and therefore adding to future tourism development this volume will be of interest to upper level students researchers and academics in tourism culture heritage and sustainability APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service , Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss,1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White s fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979 Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White s poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White s world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm
