Different Worlds of Discourse Nanxiu Qian,Grace S. Fong,Richard Joseph Smith,2008 During the late Qing reform era 1895 1912 women for the first time in Chinese history emerged in public space in collective groups They assumed new social and educational roles and engaged in intense debates about the place of women in China s present and future These debates found expression in new media including periodicals and pictorials which not only harnessed the power of existing cultural forms but also encouraged experimentation with a variety of new literary genres and styles works increasingly produced by and for Chinese women Different Worlds of Discourse explores the reform period from three interrelated and comparatively neglected perspectives the construction of gender roles the development of literary genres and the emergence of new forms of print media For Love of a Dangerous Girl Hank H. Cox,2015-04-15 This is a true story of timeless love The innocent young aspiring nun Charlotte Corday assassinated the radical leader Jean Paul Marat hoping to save her beloved country from the violent turn the revolution had taken Adam Lux an idealistic young member of the Revolutionary Convention was so awed by her courage and beauty that he demanded to join her in death a demand that was granted Love bloomed amid the bloody chaos in those turbulent days Politics, Poetics, and Gender in Late Qing China Nanxiu Qian,2015-05-06 In 1898 Qing dynasty emperor Guangxu ordered a series of reforms to correct the political economic cultural and educational weaknesses exposed by China's defeat by Japan in the First Sino Japanese War The Hundred Day's Reform has received a great deal of attention from historians who have focused on the well known male historical actors but until now the Qing women reformers have received almost no consideration In this book historian Nanxiu Qian reveals the contributions of the active optimistic and self sufficient women reformers of the late Qing Dynasty Qian examines the late Qing reforms from the perspective of Xue Shaohui a leading woman writer who openly argued against male reformers approach that subordinated women's issues to larger national concerns instead prioritizing women's self improvement over national empowerment Drawing upon intellectual and spiritual resources from the freewheeling xianyuan worthy ladies model of the Wei Jin period of Chinese history 220-420 and the culture of women writers of late imperial China and open to Western ideas and knowledge Xue and the reform minded members of her social and intellectual networks went beyond the inherited Confucian pattern in their quest for an ideal womanhood and an ideal social order Demanding equal political and educational rights with men women reformers challenged leading male reformers purpose of achieving national wealth and power intending instead to unite women of all nations in an effort to create a just and harmonious new world Catalog of A.L.A. library
