Other Dreams of Freedom Yvonne C. Zimmerman, 2013 Yvonne C Zimmerman offers a groundbreaking exploration of the relationship between freedom and sexual regulation in American approaches to human trafficking Women's Agency in Early Modern Britain and the American Colonies Rosemary O'Day, 2014-06-11 Women in early modern Britain and colonial America were not the weak husband and father dominated characters of popular myth Quite the reverse strong women were the norm They exercised considerable influence as important agents in the social economic religious and cultural life of their societies This book shows how women on both sides of the Atlantic while accepting a patriarchal system with all its advantages and disadvantages contrived to carve out for themselves meaningful lives Unusually it concentrates not only on the making and meaning of marriage but also upon the partnership between men and women It also looks at the varied roles cultural religious and educational that women played both inside and outside marriage during the key period 1500 1760 Women emerge as partners patrons matchmakers investors and network builders Trials of the Century Scott P. Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies. Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice, 1981 Special Needs Offenders in Correctional Institutions Lior Gideon, 2012-09-14 Effective treatment and preparation for successful reintegration can be better achieved if the needs and risks of incarcerated offenders are taken into consideration by correctional practitioners and scholars. Special Needs Offenders in Correctional Institutions offers a unique opportunity to examine the different populations behind bars e.g. chronically and mentally ill, homosexual, illegal immigrants, veterans, radicalized inmates etc. as well as their needs and the corresponding impediments for rehabilitation and reintegration. Author Lior Gideon takes a rehabilitative and reiterative approach to discuss and differentiate between the needs of these various categories of inmates and provides in-depth discussions not available in other correctional texts about the specific needs, risks, and policy recommendations when working with present-day special needs offenders. Each chapter is followed by suggested readings and relevant websites that will enable readers to further enhance understanding of the issues and potential solutions discussed in the chapter. Further, each chapter has discussion questions specifically designed to promote class discussions. The text concludes with a theoretical framework for future policy implications and practices. Prosecuting Domestic Abuse in Neoliberal Times Antonia Porter, 2020-11-12 This book argues that past inattentive treatment by state criminal justice agencies in relation to domestic abuse is now being self-consciously reversed by neoliberal governing agendas intent on denouncing crime and holding offenders to account. Criminal prosecutions are key to the UK government's strategy to end Violence Against Women and Girls. Crown Prosecution Service policy affirms that domestic abuse offences are particularly serious and prosecutors are reminded that it will be rare that the public interest will not require of such offences through the criminal courts. Seeking to unpick some of the discourses and perspectives that may have contributed to the current prosecutorial commitment, the book considers its emergence within the context of the women's movement, feminist scholarship, and an era of neoliberalism. Three empirical chapters explore the prosecution commitment on the one hand and the impact on women's lives on the other. The book's final substantive chapter offers a distinctive normative conceptual framework through which practitioners may think about women who have experienced domestic abuse that will have both intellectual appeal and practical application. Lend a Hand Edward Everett Hale, 1888 Encyclopedia of Violence Margaret DiCanio Ph.D., New York Journal of Homœopathy, 1890 Public Choice Economics and the Salem
