The Mother and Narrative Politics in Modern China Sally Taylor Lieberman,1998 A modernist icon an object of forbidden desire a symbol of loss and suffering and an incorrigible survivor the mother takes all of these forms in Chinese literature from the 1920s and 1930s In an innovative analysis Sally Taylor Lieberman explores the meanings the maternal figure acquired at a particular place and time and then engages those meanings in a feminist rereading of the master narratives of modern Chinese intellectual and literary history Drawing on feminist literary criticism and the theories of Julia Kristeva Melanie Klein and Sigmund Freud Lieberman breaks traditional analytical boundaries as she explores the place of the mother in the ideological struggles through which the modern Chinese canon attained its present shape Fragment from a Lost Diary and Other Stories Naomi Katz,1975 In Search of Our Past ,1980 Letters to a Young Feminist Phyllis Chesler,2018-09-04 LETTERS TO A YOUNG FEMINIST is a visionary message from a leading feminist to the next generation of feminists Phyllis Chesler discusses basic aspects of feminism explains feminism s relevance in a world that has taken it for granted and derided it and helps the next generation reclaim feminism for itself Chesler examines sisterhood sex families motherhood work feminist heroism and the economics of power providing guidance to the generation to come

The Broadview Introduction to Literature: Short Fiction Lisa Chalykoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2013-08-09 Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts In each genre the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes and each genre is prefaced by a substantial introduction Pedagogically current and uncommon in its breadth of representation The Broadview Introduction to Literature invites students into the world of literary study in a truly distinctive way The short fiction volume of The Broadview Introduction to Literature gathers 39 important short stories from Edgar Allan Poe to Sherman Alexie Examples of microfiction illustrated fiction and formally innovative stories are included along with classics of the genre Multicultural Women's Sourcebook Martha Cotera,1982 Woman's Inhumanity to Woman Phyllis Chesler, 2009-05-01 Man s inhumanity to man the phrase is all too familiar But until Phyllis Chesler's now classic book a profound silence prevailed about woman's inhumanity to woman Women s aggression may not take the same form as men s but girls and women are indeed aggressive often indirectly and mainly toward one another They judge harshly hold grudges gossip exclude and disconnect from other women Like men women are exposed to the messages of misogyny and sexism that permeate cultures worldwide Like men women unconsciously buy into negative images that can trigger abuse and mistreatment of other women But like other social victims many do not realize stereotyping affects members within the victimized group as well as those outside the group They do not realize their behavior reflects society s biases How women view and treat other women matters Are women oppressed Yes Do oppressed people internalize their oppressors attitudes Without a doubt Prejudice must first be acknowledged before it can be resisted or overcome More than men women depend upon one another for emotional intimacy and bonding and exclusionary and sexist behavior enforces female conformity and discourages independence and psychological growth Continuing the pioneering work begun in Women and Madness Chesler's bestselling book that broke the story on double standards in psychology Woman's Inhumanity to Woman draws on important studies revolutionary theories literature and hundreds of original interviews Chesler urges us to look within to treat other women realistically ethically and kindly and to forge bold and compassionate alliances This is a necessary next step for women without which they will never be liberated

Women and Madness Phyllis Chesler, 2018-09-04 Feminist icon Phyllis Chesler's pioneering work Women and Madness remains startlingly relevant today nearly fifty years since its first publication in 1972 With over 2 5 million copies sold this landmark book is unanimously regarded as the definitive work on the subject of women s psychology Now back in print this completely revised and updated edition adds perspectives on eating disorders postpartum depression biological psychology important feminist political findings female genital mutilation and more Cumulative Book Index ,1925 A world list of Women's Studies Newsletter ,1979 The Broadview Introduction to Literature books in the English language Lisa Chalykoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2013-08-08 Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts In each genre the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes and each genre is prefaced by a substantial introduction Pedagogically current and uncommon in its breadth of representation The Broadview Introduction to Literature invites students into the world of literary study in a truly distinctive Stewart's Quotable Africa Julia Stewart, 2012-10-02 The African continent is home to spectacularly expressive way human beings rebellious anti colonial and opposition leaders eloquent novelists political and social activists comical geniuses pensive and philosophical poets and intellectuals as well as a few raving dictators And the body of proverbial wisdom from Africa alone could fill many volumes Despite being eminently quotable Africa is not so readily quoted Stewart s Ouotable Africa covers the whole of Africa north to south and east to west and includes memorable statements from hundreds of speakers including Nelson Mandela Doris Lessing Chinua Achebe Julius Nyerere Kofi Annan among others as well as biblical passages and proverbs Julia Stewart has spent over a decade collecting the 5000 plus quotes found in this book all of them either by Africans or about African subjects Library Journal, 1975 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Green Cane and Juicy Flotsam Carmen C. Esteves, 1991 Perhaps the most salient feature of the stories collected here is their presentation of the multiplicity of voices of Caribbean women Parable II No Dust is Allowed in This House of Nuns and Punishment Reminds us of the accomplishments of Caribbean women and promise of their writing Latin American Women Writers Kathy S. Leonard, 2007-09-19 There is a wealth of published literature in English by Latin American women writers but such material can be difficult to locate due to the lack of available bibliographic resources In addition the various types of published narrative short stories novels novellas autobiographies and biographies by Latin American women writers has increased significantly in the last ten to fifteen years To address the lack of bibliographic resources Kathy Leonard has compiled Latin American Women Writers A Resource Guide to Titles in English This reference includes all forms of narrative short story autobiography novel novel excerpt and others by Latin American women dating from 1898 to 2007 More than 3 000 individual titles are included by more than 500 authors This includes nearly 200 anthologies more than 100 autobiographies biographies or other narrative and almost 250 novels written by more than 100 authors from 16 different countries For the purposes of this bibliography authors who were born in Latin America and either continue to live there or have immigrated to the United States are included Also titles of pieces are listed as originally written in either Spanish or Portuguese If the book was originally written in English a phrase to that effect is included to better reflect the linguistic diversity of narrative currently being published This volume contains seven indexes Authors by Country of Origin Authors Titles of Work Titles of Work Authors Autobiographies Biographies and Other Narrative Anthologies Novels and Novellas in Alphabetical Order by Author and Novels and Novellas by Authors Country of Origin Reflecting the increase in literary production and the facilitation of materials this volume contains a comprehensive listing of narrative pieces in English by Latin American women writers not found in any other single volume currently on the market This work of reference will be of special interest to scholars students and instructors interested in narrativ The Anatomy of Freedom Robin Morgan, 2014-11-11 The classic of feminist vision by one of Literature Iris Biblowitz, 1976 its greatest writers with a new preface by the author With the advent of Einstein's Theory of Relativity physics and our world changed forever In The Anatomy of Freedom Robin Morgan shows us how the empowerment of women half of humanity will have the same transformative power for society that e mc2 had for the physical world This is not simply another feminist treatise Morgan looks beyond the women s movement as a crucial struggle for equal rights she sees this process as the fundamental motor for freeing both women and men and as a necessity for the survival of sentient life and of the planet itself She explains and demystifies theoretical physics in accessible terms and astonishingly uses it as a prism through which to view the equation of relationships and gender while going deep into the subconscious and plumbing the roots of passion At the same time she makes vital connections between these internal realities and global issues of the environment economics and family There has perhaps never been a book more daring The Anatomy of Freedom shows a master at her peak The Nation ,1885 Afrikaans Literature: Recollection, Redefinition, Restitution, 2023-12-14 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clich s of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print Womanhood Media Helen Rippier Wheeler,1975
