Fragmentary Demand An Introduction To The Philosophy Of Jean Luc:

The Fragmentary Demand Ian James, 2006 This introduction to the philosophy of Jean Luc Nancy gives an overview of his philosophical thought to date and situates it within the broader context of contemporary French and European thinking The book examines Nancy's philosophy in relation to five specific areas his account of subjectivity his understanding of space and spatiality his thinking about the body and embodiment his political thought and his contribution to contemporary aesthetics In each case it shows the way in which Nancy develops or moves beyond some of the key concerns associated with phenomenology post structuralism and what could broadly be termed the post modern

The Fragmentary Demand Ian James, 2006 This introduction to the philosophy of Jean Luc Nancy gives an overview of his philosophical thought to date and situates it within the broader context of contemporary French and European thinking The book examines Nancy's philosophy in relation to five specific areas his account of subjectivity his understanding of space and spatiality his thinking about the body and embodiment his political thought and his contribution to contemporary aesthetics In each case it shows the way in which Nancy develops or moves beyond some of the key concerns associated with phenomenology post structuralism and what could broadly be termed the post modern

The Autobiography Effect Dennis Schep, 2019-07-24 Since the advent of post structuralism various authors have problematized the modern conception of autobiography by questioning the status of authorship and interrogating the relation between language and reality Yet even after making autobiography into a theoretical problem many of these authors ended up writing about themselves This paradox stands at the center of this wide ranging study of the form and function of autobiography in the work of authors who have distanced themselves from its modern instantiation Discussing Roland Barthes Jacques Derrida Hélène Cixous and others this book grapples with the question of what it means to write the self when the self is understood as an effect of writing Combining close reading intellectual history and literary theory The Autobiography Effect traces how precisely its theoretically problematic nature made autobiography into a central scene for the negotiation of philosophical positions and anxieties after structuralism

Ultimate Fighting and Embodiment Dale C. Spencer, 2013-06-19 Mixed martial arts MMA is an emergent sport where competitors in a ring or cage utilize strikes punches kicks elbows and knees as well as submission techniques to defeat opponents This book explores the carnal experience of fighting through a sensory ethnography of MMA and how it transgresses the cultural scripts of masculinity in popular culture Based on four years of participant observation in a local MMA club and in depth interviews with amateur and professional MMA fighters Spencer documents fighters training regimes and the meanings they attach to participation in the sport Drawing from the philosophical phenomenology of Martin Heidegger Maurice Merleau-Ponty and Jean Luc Nancy this book develops bodies centered ontological and epistemological grounding for this study Guided by such a position it places bodies at the center of analysis of MMA and elucidates the embodied experience of pain and injury and the sense and rhythms of fighting

Authority, Experience and the Life of Power Claire Blencowe, Julian Brigstocke, Leila Dawney, 2016-04-14 Taking up the challenge of understanding power in its complexity this volume returns to and revitalises the concept of authority It provides a powerful analysis of the ways that relationships of trust attachment governance and inequality become possible when subjectivities and bodies are invested in the life of power The collection offers a vibrant new analysis of the biopolitical arguing that experience of life has become equated with objectivity in contemporary culture and has thus become a primary basis of authority Biopolitical or experiential authority can be generated through reference to a variety of experiences performances or intensities of life including creativity radicalism risk taking experimentation inter relation suffering and proximity to death The authority producing capacities of community and aesthetics are key issues pointing to vexed relationships between politics and policing inventiveness and violence The contributors develop their theoretical analyses through discussion of a range of specific sites including mental health service user and survivor politics biological knowledge refugee activism stories of suffering urban art anarchism neo liberal community politics and marketization Authority Experience the Life of Power challenges thinking on what the political is and isn't pushing against the all too easy equivocation of revolutionary break and empowerment This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Political Power

Continental Perspectives on Community Chantal Bax, Gert-Jan van der Heiden, 2019-10-02 This volume explores the issues at the center of many historical and contemporary reflections on community and sociality in Continental philosophy The essays reflect on the thought of Nietzsche Heidegger Levinas Arendt Derrida Badiou Fanon Baldwin Nancy Agamben and Laruelle Continental Perspectives on Community brings the different approaches of these thinkers into conversation with each other It discusses the possibility of how the concept of community can extend beyond the one and beyond any sense of unity and totality Additionally the book shows how notion of community in plurality is at the heart of ethical and political reflections on alterity and race of political philosophical reflections on the exception and of ontological reflections on what it means for humans to be social In this way it offers an important contribution to the examination of how a community can be thought today This book will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working on social political and cultural issues in Continental philosophy

The Concept of World from Kant to Derrida Sean Gaston, 2013-09-20 In the mid eighteenth century metaphysics was broadly understood as the study of three areas of philosophical thought theology psychology and cosmology This book examines the fortunes of the third of these formidable metaphysical concepts the world Sean Gaston provides a clear and concise account of the concept of world from the mid eighteenth century to the end of the twentieth century exploring its possibilities and limitations and engaging with current issues in politics and ecology He focuses on the work of five principal thinkers Kant Hegel Husserl Heidegger and Derrida all of whom attempt to establish new grounds for seeing the world as a whole Gaston presents a critique of the self evident use of the concept of world in philosophy and asks whether one can move beyond the need for a world like vantage point to maintain a concept of world From Kant to the present day this concept has been a problem for philosophy and it remains to be seen if we need a new Copernican revolution when it comes to the concept of world

Food: Expressions and Impressions Don Sanderson, Mira Crouch, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 Food is a multidimensional construct which is largely taken for granted in lands of plenty but where for a large proportion of the world's inhabitants is part of a daily struggle for survival The global food economy is larger than the arms and fuel economies combined and larger than many national economies Multidisciplinary explorations of the dimensions of food shed light on the complexity enormity and dialectic dynamism that shape economies cultures and societies at the macro level and individual needs rituals beliefs and practices at the micro level Exploring literary economic cultural political historical dimensions of food along with notions of food's place in creating identity and change this volume represents a small incursion into the much larger landscape that is food

The Emergence of Literature Jacob Bittner, 2020-01-23 The Emergence of Literature is an extension and reworking of a series of significant propositions in philosophy and literary theory Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe's examination of the concept of the literary absolute Martin Heidegger's destruction and Giorgio Agamben's archaeology of the metaphysics of will Maurice Blanchot's delimitation of the space of literature and Michel Foucault's archaeology of literature Its core contribution to the history of theory is to understand the literary absolute not simply as philosophical concept but as a paradigm that delimits the horizon for currents of literary theory through the course of the 20th century where the literary criteria change from the theme of sincerity to the theme of the death of the author Stretching from Kant to Hegel from Holderlin to the Early German Romantics from John Stuart Mill to New Criticism from Benjamin to Barthes The Emergence of Literature examines the relation between continental philosophy and literature in the post Kantian era

The Pentecostal Principle Nimi Wariboko, 2012 This volume brings Pentecostal intuitions to bear on the task of reconceptualizing the process of ethical methodology in a pluralistic world applying a Pentecostal sensibility to the study of social ethics

I Am a Monument Aron Vinegar, 2008 Learning from Las Vegas originally published by the MIT Press in 1972 was one of the most influential and controversial architectural books of its era Thirty five years later it remains a perennial bestseller and a definitive theoretical text Its authors architects Robert Venturi Denise Scott Brown and Steven Izenour famously used the Las Vegas Strip to argue the virtues of the ordinary and ugly above the heroic and original qualities of architectural modernism Learning from Las Vegas not only moved architecture to the center of cultural debates it changed our ideas about what architecture was and could be In this provocative rereading of an iconic text Aron Vinegar argues that Learning from Las Vegas is not only of historical interest but of absolute relevance to current critical debates in architectural and visual culture Vinegar argues that to read Learning from Las Vegas only as an exemplary postmodernist text to understand it for example as a call for pastiche or as ironic provocation is to underestimate its deeper critical and ethical meaning and to miss the underlying dialectic between skepticism and the ordinary expression and the deadpan that runs through the text Vinegar

s close attention to the graphic design of Learning from Las Vegas and his fresh interpretations of now canonical images from the book such as the Duck the Decorated Shed and the recommendation for a monument make his book unique Perhaps most revealing is his close analysis of the differences between the first 1972 edition designed for the MIT Press by Muriel Cooper and the revised edition of 1977 which was radically stripped down and largely redesigned by Denise Scott Brown The dialogue between the two editions continues with this book where for the first time the two versions of Learning from Las Vegas are read comparatively Publisher s website

Understanding Nancy, Understanding Modernism Cosmin Toma,2023-01-12 Over the past three decades Jean Luc Nancy has become one of the most celebrated contemporary philosophers His remarkably diverse body of work which deals with such topics as post Heideggerian ontology Christian painting the experience of drunkenness heart transplants contemporary cinema and the problem of freedom is entirely immersed in modernity as he puts it Within this plural framework art which he explicitly defines as a modern construct plays a singular role in that it is the very prism through which he explores the problems of sense and feeling in general particularly as they relate to our experience of modernity The contributors to Understanding Nancy Understanding Modernism fully delve into the heretofore under acknowledged and under explored modernism of Nancy s writings on philosophy and the arts through close readings of his key works as well as broader essays on the relationship between his thought and aesthetic modernity In addition to an interview with Nancy himself a final section consists of an extended glossary of Nancy s signature terms which will be a valuable resource for students and experts alike

Blanchot Romantique Hannes Opelz,2011 The work of French writer and essayist Maurice Blanchot 1907 2003 is without doubt among the most challenging the twentieth century has to offer Contemporary debate in literature philosophy and politics has yet to fully acknowledge its discreet but enduring impact Arising from a conference that took place in Oxford in 2009 this book sets itself a simple if daunting task that of measuring the impact and responding to the challenge of Blanchot s work by addressing its engagement with the Romantic legacy in particular but not only that of the Jena Romantics Drawing upon a wide range of philosophers and poets associated directly or indirectly with German Romanticism Kant Fichte Goethe Jean Paul Novalis the Schlegels Hlderlin the authors of this volume explore how Blanchot s fictional critical and fragmentary texts rewrite and rethink the Romantic demand in relation to questions of criticism and reflexivity irony and subjectivity narrative and genre the sublime and the neutre the Work and the fragment quotation and translation Reading Blanchot with or against key twentieth century thinkers Benjamin Foucault de Man they also examine Romantic and post Romantic notions of history imagination literary theory melancholy affect love revolution community and other central themes that Blanchot s writings deploy across the century from Jean Paul Sartre to Jean Luc Nancy This book contains contributions in both English and French

Derrida and the Legacy of Psychoanalysis Paul Earlie,2021-02-04 In Derrida and the Legacy of Psychoanalysis Paul Earlie offers a detailed account of the importance of psychoanalysis in Derrida s thought Based on close readings of texts from the whole of his career including less well known and previously unpublished material the title sheds new light on the crucial role of psychoanalysis in shaping Derrida's response to a number of key questions These questions range from the psyche's relationship to technology to the role of fiction and metaphor in scientific discourse and from the relationship between memory and the archive to the status of the political in deconstruction Focusing on Freud but proposing new readings of texts by Lacan Torok and Abraham Laplanche and Pontalis amongst other seminal figures in contemporary French thought Earlie argues that Derrida's writings on psychoanalysis can also provide an important bridge between deconstruction and the recent materialist turn in the humanities Challenging a still prevalent textualist reading of Derrida's work he explores the ongoing contribution of deconstruction and psychoanalysis to pressing issues in critical thought today from the localizing models of the neurosciences and the omnipresence of digital technology to the politics of affect in an age of terror

The World after the End of the World Kas Saghafi, 2020-04-01 Examines themes of loss and mourning in the late work of Derrida In this book Kas Saghafi argues that the notion of the end the world in Derrida's late work is not a theological or cosmological matter but a meditation on mourning and the death of the other He examines this and several other tightly knit motifs in Derrida's work mourning survival the phantasm the event and most significantly the term salut which in French means at once greeting and salvation An underlying concern of The World after the End of the World is whether a discourse on salut saving being saved and salvation can be dissociated from discourse on religion Saghafi compares Derrida's thought along these lines with similar concerns of Jean-Luc Nancy's Combining analysis of these themes with reflections on personal loss this book maintains that for Derrida salutation greeting and welcoming is resistant to the economy of salvation This resistance calls for what Derrida refers to as a spectro-poetics devoted to and assigned to the other's singularity Saghafi's book makes a remarkable contribution as a coming to terms with interminable mourning Peggy Kamuf author of To Follow The Wake of Jacques Derrida

Watsuji Tetsurô's Global Ethics of Emptiness Anton Luis Sevilla, 2017-08-31 This book is a rethinking of ethics and socio-political life through the ideas of Watsuji Tetsur Can we build a systematic philosophy of morality society and politics not on the basis of identity and ego but rather on the basis of selflessness This book explores such an attempt by the leading ethicist of modern Japan Using concrete examples and contemporary comparisons and with careful reference to both English and Japanese sources it guides the reader through Watsuji's ideas It engages three contemporary issues in depth First how do we approach the moral agent as an autonomous being or as a fundamentally relational being Second is it the individual or the community that is the starting point for politics And finally is ethics something that is globally shared or something fundamentally local This book aims to be an informative and inspiring resource for researchers students and laypersons interested in Buddhist thought

Cosmopolitan Novel Berthold Schoene, 2009-06-23 While traditionally the novel has been seen as tracking the development of the nation-state Schoene queries if globalisation might currently be prompting the emergence of a new sub-genre of the novel that is adept at imagining global community The book introduces a new generation of contemporary British writers Rachel Cusk Kiran Desai Hari Kunzru Jon McGregor and David Mitchell whose work is read against that of established novelists Arundhati Roy James Kelman and Ian McEwan Each chapter explores a different theoretical key concept including glocality glomicity tour du monde connectivity and compearance Key Features Defines the new genre of the cosmopolitan novel by reading contemporary British fiction as responsive to new global socio economic formations Expands knowledge of world culture national identity literary creativity and political agency by introducing concepts from globalisation and cosmopolitan theory into literary studies Explores debates on Britishness and the contemporary with close reference to the fall of the Berlin Wall on 9 11 1989 and the World Trade Centre attacks on 11 9 2001 Introduces a new generation of British writers within a complex global context by drawing on Jean Luc Nancy s work on community and creative world formation Towards a Feminist Cinematic Ethics Kristin Lene Hole,2015-12-31 Develops an account of non normative feminist cinematic ethics and a fresh methodological approach to film philosophy Exploring Animal Encounters Dominik Ohrem,Matthew Calarco,2018-07-28 This collection of essays offers multifaceted explorations of animal encounters in a range of philosophical cultural literary and historical contexts Exploring Animal Encounters encourages us to think about the richness and complexity of animal lives and human animal relations foregrounding the intricate roles nonhuman creatures play in the always already more than human sphere of ethics and politics In this way the essays in this volume can be understood as a contribution to alternative imaginings of interspecies coexistence in a time in which the issue of human relations with earth and earth others has come to the fore with unprecedented force and severity Mystical Islam and Cosmopolitanism in Contemporary German Literature Joseph Twist,2018 Highlights the spirituality and cosmopolitanism of four contemporary German Muslim writers showing that they undermine the clash of civilizations narrative and open up space for new ways of coexisting

These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
