Fragmentation Of The Middle East The Last Thirty Years:

Fragmentation of the Middle East Georges Corm,1988-01-01 Fragmentation of the Middle East Corm G Staff,Georges G. Corm,1989-02-01 Identity and Foreign Policy in the Middle East Shibley Telhami,Michael N. Barnett,2002 Shibley Telhami and Michael Barnett together with experts on Egypt Iran Iraq Israel Jordan and Syria explore how the formation and transformation of national and state identities affect the foreign policy behavior of Middle Eastern states Survey of Arab-Israeli Relations 1947-2001 David Lea,2003-09-02 A definitive survey of one of the highest profile and longest running contemporary international disputes The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred,2014 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia State, Power and Politics in the Making of the Modern Middle East Roger Owen,2013-01-11 Roger Owen has fully revised and updated his authoritative text to take into account the latest developments in the Middle East This book continues to serve as an excellent introduction for newcomers to the modern history and politics of this fascinating region This third edition continues to explore the emergence of individual Middle Eastern states since the fall of the Ottoman Empire at the end of the First World War and the key themes that have characterized the region since then The A to Z of the Arab-Israeli Conflict P R Kumaraswamy,2009-07-24 For over a century the conflict between the Arabs and Jews has remained the most intractable problem confronting the world Hardly a day passes that the Arab Israeli Conflict is not headlined in the media It has turned the Arabs and Israelis against one another and embittered relations within the two communities while drawing the rest of the world into the circle of disruption The A to Z of the Arab Israeli Conflict provides factual background through an introductory essay a chronology a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the more significant persons places and events including the various wars and negotiations The history religion culture and archeology that this rivalry has sparked between the Arabs and Israelis over the same piece of territory is traced in this book which offers the essential details using neutral terms and thereby allowing readers to draw conclusions for themselves The Culture of National Security Peter J. Katzenstein,1996 The political transformations of the 1980s and 1990s have dramatically affected models of national and international security. Particularly since the end of the Cold War, scholars have been uncertain about how to interpret the effects of major shifts in the balance of power. Are we living today in a unipolar, bipolar, or multipolar world? Are we moving toward an international order that makes the recurrence of major war in Europe or Asia highly unlikely or virtually inevitable? Is ideological conflict between states diminishing or increasing?

State Power and Politics in the Making of the Modern Middle East Lecturer in the Recent Economic History of the Middle East and Fellow Roger Owen, Roger Owen, 2002-04-12 Roger Owen has fully revised and updated his authoritative text to take into account the considerable developments in the Middle East in the 1990s Survey of Arab-Israeli Relations

Cathy Hartley, Paul Cossali, 2004-06-17 Impartial documentation and background information fundamental to the understanding of Arab-Israeli relations. Key Features covers in detail the years since the first Arab-Israeli war and the statehood of Israel in 1947-48 to the most recent developments in relations between Israel, the emerging Palestinian political entities, and the Arab States; a chronology provides an at-a-glance record of events from 1947 until the present day; a Documents on Palestine section gives essential background to the various ongoing areas of dispute; profiles of prominent political figures; a bibliography section; a series of maps illustrating the history of Arab-Israeli conflict and recent peace initiatives and settlement issues.

Historical Dictionary of the Arab-Israeli Conflict P. R. Kumaraswamy, 2015-10-08 Competing Jewish and Arab national claims over the Holy Land form the core of the Arab-Israeli conflict, thereby transforming it into the most intensely fought struggles in the history of humanity. The conflict evokes unparalleled passion and hostility not only among its immediate participants and neighbors but also in the wider international community. The involvement of three principal monotheistic religions makes the conflict a truly universal contestation. As a result, it often contributes to bouts of violence, turmoil, and terrorism in the Middle East and beyond. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Arab-Israeli Conflict covers the history through a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 600 cross-referenced entries, important events, key personalities, official positions of principal states, and the UN and other efforts to find a peaceful settlement. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about this conflict. Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5,000 books in English, most published since 1945 and many quite recently, but also some earlier works of enduring importance. A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole, then each country, usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics, politics, and society. Indexed only by author and editor, but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access. Distributed in the US by St. Martin's Press. East from before Islam In order to paint a true picture of this complex part of the world situated at the crossroads of three continents this work examines the geographical foundations on which the Anatolian Iranian Mesopotamian and Egyptian empires were built A History of Stability and Change in Lebanon Joseph Bayeh, 2017-06-30 Lebanon is a country whose domestic politics have even more than others in the region been at the mercy of changes on the international stage Having been under Ottoman and French rule in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the post World War II era has seen Lebanon subjected to Israeli Syrian and American interventions which have all threatened the country's stability as a state Joseph Bayeh argues that it is this international dimension which holds the key to an in depth understanding of the country In support of this argument Bayeh examines Lebanese history from its early days under the Ottomans to the present day in order to show how international shifts and conflicts have had their impact on Lebanon With changes such as the fall of the Ottoman empire the rise of US power after World War II the end of the Cold War and the new focus on the region in the aftermath of 9 11 Lebanon has at various junctures been bolstered or undermined Bayeh tracks all of this offering insights into the workings of Lebanon's domestic politics which will appeal to researchers of the international relations of the Middle East and Lebanon's political history

Islam, Orientalism and Intellectual History Mohammad R. Salama, 2011-03-30 Debates on the relationship between Islam and the West rage on from talk of clashing civilizations to political pacification from ethical and historical perspectives to distrust xenophobia and fear Here Mohammad Salama argues that the events of 9 11 force us to engage ourselves fully without preconditions in understanding not just the history of Islam as a religion but of Islam as a historical condition that has existed in relationship to the West since the seventh century Salama compares the Arab Islamic and European traditions of historical thought since the early modern period focusing on the watershed moments that informed the two traditions ideas of intellectual history and perceptions of one another He draws attention to European intellectual history's entangled links with the Islamic philosophy of history especially the complexities of orientalism and modernity Recent critical reflections on the work of Ibn Khald n confirm this intertwined and troubled relationship reflecting major disparities and contradictions At the same time recent Arab writings on Europe's intellectual history reveal a struggle against erasure and intellectual superiority Calling for a new understanding of the relationship between Islam and the West Salama argues that Islam has played a major role in enabling and positioning various paths of Western historiography at crucial moments of its development leaving palpable imprints on Islamic historiography in the process He proposes an answer to a fundamental question how to make sense of the mechanics of production in Arab Islamic and Western historiographies or how to identify the ways in which they have both failed to make sense of themselves and of each other in an increasingly disenchanted postnationalist world Spanning an impressive array of recent writings on these themes as well as older foundational texts in both traditions including al Tabar Ibn Khald n Hegel al Jabart Toynbee Foucault Edward Said and Hourani this book is both timely and crucial for all those interested in Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Western and

Michael N. Barnett, 1998 Barnett explores the relationships among Arab identity the meaning of Arabism and desired regional order in the Middle East from 1920 to the present focusing on Egypt Lebanon Syria Jordan Iraq Yemen and Saudi Arabia The Bruce B. Lawrence Reader Bruce B. Lawrence, 2020-12-18 Over the course of his career Bruce B. Lawrence has explored the central elements of Islamic civilization and Muslim networks This reader assembles more than two dozen of Lawrence's key writings among them analyses of premodern and modern Islamic discourses practices and institutions and methodological reflections on the contextual study of religion Six methodologies serve as the organizing rubric theorizing Islam revaluing Muslim comparativists translating Sufism deconstructing religious modernity networking Muslims and reflecting on the Divine Throughout Lawrence attributes the resilience of Islam to its cosmopolitan character and Muslims engagement in cross cultural dialogue Several essays also address the central role of institutional Sufism in various phases and domains of Islamic history The volume concludes with Lawrence's reflections on Islam's spiritual and aesthetic resources in the context of global community Modeling what it means to study Islam beyond political and disciplinary borders as well as a commitment to linking empathetic imagination with critical reflection this reader presents the broad arc of Lawrence's prescient contributions to the study of Islam After Empires Giuliano Garavini, 2012-10-25 A unique account of how decolonization affected European integration covering more than 20 years of the life of the European Community Explains the impact of Thirdworldism in western Europe Describes the significance of the 1973 oil shock beyond the Arab Israeli conflict Traces the tensions in the Atlantic arena in the 1970s and the quest for a European identity Uses a wide range of transnational archives governments international organizations political and economic actors After Empires describes how the end of colonial empires and the changes in international politics and economies after decolonization affected the European integration process Until now studies on European integration have often focussed on the search for peaceful relations among the European nations particularly between Germany and France or examined it as an offspring of the Cold War moving together with the ups and downs of transatlantic relations But these two factors alone are not enough to explain the rise of the European Community and its more recent transformation into the European Union Historical Dictionary of Arab and Islamic Organizations Frank Clements, 2001 Unity is an often heard word in Arab and Islamic circles This historical dictionary seeks to show that along with the underlying sources of unity there are also sources of division in these groups Unlike other volumes in this series this volume focuses not only on the organizations but also on the key countries and figures of the region Includes o An explanatory introduction o List of Acronyms o Chronology o Bibliography Shattering the Myth Bruce B. Lawrence, 2018-06-05 Islam is often portrayed especially in Western media as an alien violent hostile and monolithic religion whose adherents are intent upon battling nonbelievers throughout the world Shattering the Myth demonstrates that these conceptions more accurately reflect the bias of Western reporters than they do the realities of contemporary Islam Westerners are barraged by images of violence that usually originate from armed confrontations in one small corner of the world Islam Bruce Lawrence argues is a complex international religious system that cannot be reduced to stereotypes As Lawrence demonstrates Islam is a religion shaped as much by its own postulates and ethical demands as by the specific circumstances of Muslim people in the modern world The last two hundred years have brought many challenges for Muslims from colonial subjugation through sporadic revivalism to elitist reform movements and most recently pervasive struggles with fundamentalism During each period Muslims have had to address internal tensions as well as external threats Today Muslims in the post colonial era only some of whom are Arab and living in the Middle East are playing ever greater roles in economic changes both regional and international As the impact of these changes has become evident in societies around the globe new leaders have come into public view The most remarkable emerging presence is that of Muslim women Lawrence argues that it is the experience of Muslim women in particular that calls for a more nuanced understanding of Islam today It is time Lawrence believes to replace inaccurate images of Islam with a recognition of the multifaceted character of this global religion and of its widely diverse adherents Here he describes changes that are taking place throughout the world particularly in Southeast Asia enacted by governments and nongovernmental organizations alike In a time of rapid international change Lawrence suggests that it is time for our images of Islam to reflect more clearly the realities of Islam as it is lived Shattering the Myth provides significant insights into the history of Islam and a greater understanding of the varied experiences of Muslims today An informed interpretation of the contemporary Muslim experience Lawrence s explanations for the particular states of affairs in Egypt Iran Pakistan and Malaysia among other cases are compelling A distinguished contribution From the foreword by James Piscatori and Dale F Eickelman
