Hanegraaff, 2022-06-30 In Egypt during the first centuries CE men and women would meet discreetly in their homes in temple sanctuaries or insolitary places to learn a powerful practice of spiritual liberation They thought of themselves as followers of Hermes Trismegistus the legendary master of ancient wisdom While many of their writings are lost those that survived have been interpreted primarily as philosophical treatises about theological topics Wouter J Hanegraaff challenges this dominant narrative by demonstrating that Hermetic literature was concerned with experiential practices intended for healing the soul from mental delusion The Way of Hermes involved radical alterations of consciousness in which practitioners claimed to perceive the true nature of reality behind the hallucinatory veil of appearances Hanegraaff explores how practitioners went through a training regime that involved luminous visions exorcism spiritual rebirth cosmic consciousness and union with the divine beauty of universal goodness and truth to attain the salvational knowledge known as gnosis
