

Sentence Fragment in English

Examples of sentence fragments

- Walking to the store.
- After the party was over.
- Without a doubt.
- In the middle of the night.

Sentence fragment & a run-on sentence

A run-on sentence is too long and contains two or more clauses that are not properly connected. A sentence fragment, on the other hand, doesn't convey a complete thought at all.

For example, in "I went to the store I bought some milk," there are two independent clauses that are not properly connected. This is a run-on sentence.

In "Running to the market," there is no complete sentence. This is a sentence fragment.

Common mistakes that lead to sentence fragments

- Using a dependent clause as a complete sentence.
For example, in the sentence "Because I was tired," there is a dependent clause but no independent clause.
- Using a conjunction to connect two independent clauses without using proper punctuation.
For example, in the sentence "I went to the store and bought some milk," there are two independent clauses that need to be properly connected with a comma before the conjunction.
