Fragments Of Life Metaphysics And Art:

Fragments of Life, Metaphysics, and Art Léo Bronstein, 1995-01-01 A series of imaginary letters from various individuals prisoner soldier philosopher mathematician and teacher the book challenges the man made distinction between spirit and matter yet embraces the two fold pattern of history and consciousness Through a fissure or tear in the accustomed as one letter puts it one sees the relationship of the fragment to the whole Each of the writers yearns for the whole and seeks to find it in the fragment that has meaning for him And it is chiefly in art that Leo Bronstein finds both the fragment and the whole of life material and moral to be seized and probed and prized Indeed in the dialogue between two of the characters which follows upon the letters synthesizing the ideas expressed therein he presents a brief but brilliantly illustrated history of the worlds of Western art Fragments of Life Metaphysics and Art a book of peace conceived amid the horrors of the Second World War remains remarkably unexpectedly illuminatively contemporary For prior to the contentious debates on multi disciplinary multi cultural studies Leo Bronstein s approach to life metaphysics and art was absolutely interdisciplinary pluralistic in its themes and insights A scholar who foresaw the globalization of our concerns he provides the tools for an empathic understanding of the contributions of a myriad of cultures to the constellation of what has become a global consciousness

, 2016-08-01 What is the relationship between texts and ethics Who decides the ethics of a text the writer or the reader What happens to ethics in texts that portray dreams or psychoses Is violence always inherently unethical In dealing with others is violence to both them and oneself ever completely avoidable Textual Ethos Studies does not attempt to provide definitive answers to these questions so much as to be a springboard to the further discussion of ethics in relation to specific texts The essays illustrate varying perspectives ranging from the philosophical to the psychoanalytical to the linguistic that can be used to localize how texts engage or invite an engagement with ethics Twenty scholars representing Asia Europe Israel North America and South Africa highlight the complex relationship between cultural context and ethics and between the ethical and the unethical Several essays deal with the study of atypical texts that represent different attitudes toward the violent the disordered the traumatized the psychotic and the sentimental in order to encourage or provoke further discussion of the relevance of these types of texts to ethics Felt Chris Thompson, 2011 What happens when nothing happens

Surrender and Catch K.H. Wolff, 2012-12-06 Suender and catch give so you can receive where the giving is your whole self in a total experience This is scarcely new on the American scene and it is ancient knowledge East and West The fears of total surrender the fears of self revelation and of total abandon although genuine are likewise not new Yet Kurt H Wolff does attempt something new here an epistemological essay with the help of this old idea his subtitle is experience and inquiry today He tries to formulate an integrated view which incorporates in the theory of total experience not only the accepted component esthetics religion the recent American experience but also a metaphysics a phenomenology a theory of perception a social philosophy and a methodology of the social sciences even a philosophy of history and psychopathology Phenomenology especially Alfred Schutz the critical Frankfurt school especially Adorno and Marcuse sociology especially Georg Simmel and existentialism especially Camus are tied in together It all looks topsy turvy at first We have here scraps of tutorial seminars plus long excerpts from students essays a stray paper in a learned journal summarizing the core of the book sided aesthetical interpretation of the origin of the work of art and to indicate its place in the cosmos of uncreated i e not
