Poems of N.M. Rashed N. M. Rāshid, 1995 A Glimpse of a section of the wide spectrum of thought and feeling in the Third World Rashed s poetry with a remarkable intellectual aura about it presents the predicament of modern man who is inclined to stick to reason without any faith in the divine Rashed portrays the disillusioned modern man who finds himself clogged and hanging like a pendulum oscillating between receding hope and looming despair and in doing so along with his technical excellence he gives a new extension to Urdu language Pieces of Heaven for Fragments on Earth Denecia Branson Headley, 2023-08-15 This book is a testimony of one woman s personal encounters with God the great I Am You will be in awe as you journey with her through the years and read of the many miracles she encountered as she walked with God

Denecia's own life had been fragmented and broken. You will read life-changing songs God gave her in the night that reveal God's character of love, forgiveness, and mercy. Through her personal relationship, God began to speak to her to give insight, instruction, warning of danger, deliverance from evil, and comfort. Denecia's life gives insight to the power of words, the power of choice, the power of obedience, and the power to believe. There is a path that leads to life and a path that leads to death. But with God, all things are possible. Denecia's greatest hope is that her testimony will help you on your journey to entrust your spirit to God and experience His love and guidance to give you hope in your future.

The Bedford Boys Alex Kershaw, 2024-09-24

A gripping account of one Virginia small town's sacrifice on D Day during World War II. A powerful reminder of the human cost of war. Washington Post. Kershaw's book is more than just another war story; here is an in-depth account of this blue-collar town and its three zero people. Drawing on interviews with survivors and relatives, newspaper clippings, letters, and diaries, Kershaw has chronicled one community's great sacrifice. Booklist, June six 1944. Nineteen boys from Bedford, Virginia, population just three zero in 1944, died in the first bloody minutes of D Day. They were part of Company A of the 116th Regiment of the 29th Division and the first wave of American soldiers to hit the beaches in Normandy. Later in the campaign, three more boys from this small Virginia town died of gunshot wounds. Twenty-two sons of Bedford lost it is a story one cannot easily forget and one that the families of Bedford will never forget. The Bedford Boys is the true and intimate story of these men and the friends and families they left behind. Based on extensive interviews with survivors and relatives, as well as diaries and letters, Kershaw's book focuses on several remarkable individuals and families to tell one of the most poignant stories of World War II: the story of one small American town that went to war and died on Omaha Beach. Accessible and moving, Kershaw includes combat sequences that give a vivid, private's-eye view of the particular hell that was Omaha Beach, while one of the most moving portions of the book is the simultaneous arrival in Bedford of nine. Fragments of My Life Rita Braun, 2013

Growing up in Poland in the 1930s, Rita Braun had many hopes and dreams for the future. When she was nine years old, however, World War II touched her once idyllic life, transforming paradise on earth into an indescribable hell. In Fragments of my Life, Braun tells her story from her birth in 1930 to living in Brazil today, where she works to ensure no one forgets the more than six million Jewish people who lost their lives during the Holocaust. Including many photos, Fragments of my Life provides firsthand insight into the horrors of the war. As a nine-year-old on her school vacation, Braun watched as military aircraft streaked across the skies above her parents' farm. She never imagined they would leave behind much more than a trail of smoke. This memoir details what she experienced as a Jewish girl trying to stay alive during World War II. Braun describes watching the selection process and deportation of friends and family living under both Russian and German rule, using a fake identity, surviving in a gated and guarded ghetto, escaping
