Frames And Framings:

Framing Borders in Literature and Other Media Werner Wolf, Walter Bernhart, 2006 This book is both a contribution to an interdisciplinary study of literature and other media and a pioneering application of cognitive and frame theoretical approaches to these fields In the temporal media a privileged place for the coding of cognitive frames are the beginnings while in spatial media physical borders take over many framing functions This volume investigates forms and functions of such framing spaces from a transmedial perspective by juxtaposing and comparing the framing potential of individual media and works After an introductory theoretical essay which aims to clarify basic concepts the volume presents eighteen contributions by scholars from various disciplines who deal with individual media

Looking at European Frames D. Gene Karraker, 2009 Works of art in their own right frames play an essential and often overlooked role in complementing the artworks they support The craft and history of European frames is a fascinating subject and this volume provides a guide to the frame maker s art from the thirteenth to the nineteenth century This handbook features more than two hundred entries arranged alphabetically from abacus to whiting that concisely explain the materials and methods involved in the creation of frames Illustrated with examples from the collection of the J Paul Getty Museum this reference tool is invaluable not only to professionals and collectors but also to anyone wishing to increase his or her understanding and enjoyment of frames Book Jacket

Frames and Framing in Documentary Comics Johannes C.P. Schmid, 2021-02-24 Frames and Framing in Documentary Comics explores how graphic narratives reframe global crises while also interrogating practices of fact finding An analog print phenomenon in an era shaped by digitalization documentary comics formulates a distinct counterapproach to conventional journalism In what ways are facts being presented and framed What is documentary honesty in a world of fake news and post truth politics How can the stories of marginalized peoples and neglected crises be told The author investigates documentary comics in its unique relationship to framing graphic narratives are essentially shaped by a reciprocal relationship between the manifest frames on the page and the attention to the cognitive frames that they generate To account for both the textuality of comics and its strategic use as rhetoric the author combines theories of framing analysis and cognitive narratology with comics studies and its attention toward the medium s visual frames

The Friction of the Frame Simone Heller-Andrist, 2012-03-07 In her study Simone Heller Andrist applies the Kantian and Derridean parergon to English literature The parergon is a specific type of frame that interacts with the work it surrounds in a fashion likely to influence or even manipulate our reading of the work On the basis of this interaction Derrida s parergon becomes a valid methodological tool that allows a close analysis of the mechanisms involved in the reading process The manipulative force of a textual construct is apparent through the occurrence of friction namely incongruities or gaps we notice during the reading process Friction is thus on the one hand the main indicator of parergonality and on the other the prime signal for a potential conditioning of the reader As readers we not only have to analyze the interaction between work and parergon but must also constantly reflect upon our own position with regard to the text that we read By means of the concept of the parergon we can approach not only paratextual narrative or discursive frames but also intertextual relationships Since the application of the concept is based on a basic textual constellation and an internal mechanism its range is wide and transcends or complements previously established textual categories How to Make Picture Frames (Best of AW) Editors of American Woodworker, 2010-10-01 A collection of some of the best framing projects published by American Woodworker magazine with expert step by step instructions workshop tips and matting and mounting instructions Add a special touch to cherished photos or artwork with hand made picture frames The experts at American Woodworker give step by step instructions using a variety of woods and styles Operator Methods in Wavelets, Tilings, and Frames Keri A. Kornelson, Eric S. Weber, 2014-10-20 This volume contains the proceedings of the AMS Special Session on Harmonic Analysis of Frames Wavelets and Tilings held April 13 14 2013 in Boulder Colorado Frames were first introduced by Duffin and Schaeffer in 1952 in the context of nonharmonic Fourier series but have enjoyed widespread interest in recent years particularly as a unifying concept Indeed mathematicians with backgrounds as diverse as classical and modern harmonic analysis Banach space theory operator algebras and complex analysis have recently worked in frame theory Frame theory appears in the context of wavelets spectra and tilings sampling theory and more The papers in this volume touch on a wide variety of topics including convex geometry direct integral decompositions Beurling density operator valued measures and splines These varied topics arise naturally in the study of frames in finite and infinite dimensions In nearly all of the papers techniques from operator theory serve as crucial tools to solving problems in frame theory This volume will be of interest not only to researchers in frame theory but also to those in approximation theory representation theory functional analysis and harmonic analysis On Learning, Volume 3 David Scott , 2025-02-04 This book as you can see from its title is about learning or at least about the concept and practice of learning It investigates two meta concepts knowledge and learning the relationship between the two and the way these can be framed in epistemic social political and economic terms Knowledge and learning as meta concepts are positioned in various networks of meaning principally the antecedents of the concepts their relations to other relevant concepts and the way the concepts are used in the lifeworld This book explores a number of important concepts that are relevant to the idea of learning These are meta concepts such as epistemology semantics phenomenology rationality thinking hermeneutics critical realism and pragmatism and meso concepts such as a Bildung justification mathematical concepts such as averaging probability comparison prediction and correlation a bureaucratic theory of learning social categories of learning and knowledge and the relationship between ethics and learning On Learning Volume 3 Knowledge curriculum and ethics like the first two volumes is a response to empiricist and positivist conceptions of knowledge The author challenges detheorised and reductionist ideas of learning that have filtered through to the management of our schools colleges and universities over simplified messages about learning knowledge curriculum and assessment and the denial that values are central to understanding how we live and how we should live Praise for On Learning Volume 3 With this third volume of his trilogy on learning and written with the exemplary rigour clarity and incisiveness that are now trademarks of his David Scott cements his reputation as one of the world's leading philosophers of education Those who wish to learn about learning are much in David's debt Ronald Barnett UCL This third book in Scott's series on theorising and discussing the lived experience as learning offers a comprehensive capstone to his work. The book shares with the others his perceptive, imaginative and informed scholarship in a well argued and original text. Its contribution to the literature ought to be assured. Paul Gibbs, Middlesex University. Like the two previous volumes in this series, this book is a radical inquiry in the sense that it probes the rich depths of the innumerable ways human beings relate to a complex world. This book challenges a view of learning that is cloaked in the language of behaviour and outcomes as being best reserved for animal training. Tone Saevi, VID Specialized University, Norway. Experiencing Fictional Worlds Benedict Neurohr, Lizzie Stewart-Shaw, 2019-02-15. Experiencing Fictional Worlds is not only the title of this book but a challenge to reveal exactly what makes the experience of literature. This volume presents contributions drawing upon a range of theories and frameworks based on the text as world metaphor. This text-world approach is fruitfully applied to a wide variety of text types from poetry to genre-specific prose to children's story books. This book investigates how fictional worlds are built and updated, how context affects the conceptualisation of text worlds and how emotions are elicited in these processes. The diverse analyses of this volume apply and develop approaches such as Text World Theory, reader response studies and pedagogical stylistics among other broader cognitive and linguistic frameworks. Experiencing Fictional Worlds aligns with other cutting edge research on language conceptualisation in fields including cognitive linguistics, stylistics, narratology and literary criticism. This volume will be relevant to anyone with interests in language and literature. Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress.
