France In Indochina Colonial Encounters:

France in Indochina Nicola Cooper, 2001 Framed by political ideological and historical developments and debates each chapter of this volume develops a socio cultural account of France s own understanding of its role in Indochina and its France and Indochina Kathryn Robson, Jennifer Yee, 2005-04-28 At the intersection of relationship with the colony literary cultural and postcolonial studies this volume looks at French perceptions of Indochina as they are conveyed through a variety of media including cinema literature art and historical or anthropological writings. The volume is long awaited as France's memory of Indochina is understudied compared to its relationship with its former colonies in West and North Africa The book has contemporary urgency as the makeup of France's immigrant population changes and grows to include Vietnamese Cambodian and Laotioan populations Postcolonial Urbanism Ryan Bishop, John Phillips, Wei Wei Yeo, 2013-01-11 A common assumption about cities throughout the world is the they are essentially an elaboration of the Euro American model Postcolonial Urbanism demonstrates the narrowness of this vision Cities in the postcolonial world the book shows are producing novel forms of urbanism not reducible to Western urbanism Despite being heavily colonized in the past Southeast Asia has been largely ignored in discussions about postcolonial theory and in general considerations of global urbanism An international cast of contributors focuses on the heavily urbanized world region of Southeast Asia to investigate the novel forms of urbanism germinating in postcolonial settings such as Indonesia Thailand Singapore Hanoi and the Philippines Offering a mix of theoretical perspectives and empirical accounts Postcolonial Urbanism presents a panoramic view of the cultures societies and politics of the postcolonial city Colonial Documentary Film in South and South-East Asia Ian Aitken, 2016-12-05 Based on rare archival documents and films this anthology is the first to focus primarily on the use of official and colonial documentary films in the South and South East Asian regions Drawing together a range of international scholars the book sheds new light on historical theoretical and empirical issues pertaining to the documentary film in order to better comprehend the significant transformations of the form in the colonial late colonial and immediate post colonial period Covering diverse geographical and colonial contexts in countries like Singapore Malaysia the Philippines and Hong Kong and focusing on under researched or little known films it demonstrate the complex set of relations between the colonisers and the colonised throughout the region Narratives of the French Empire Kate Marsh, 2013-08-28 This study interrogates how the French empire was imagined in three literary representations of French colonialism the conquest of Tahiti and the established colonial systems in Martinique and in India The study is the first in either English or French to demonstrate that representations of power relations as well as the broader discourses with which they were linked were as closely concerned with probing the similarities and differences of rival European colonial systems as they were with reinforcing their imagined superiority over the colonized and that such power relations should not be conceptualized as a dualistic categorization of colonizer versus colonized In doing so it aims to go beyond examining the interaction between colonized and colonizer or between colonial centre and periphery and to interrogate instead the circulation of ideas and practices across different sites of European colonialism drawing attention to a historical complexity which has been neglected in the necessary race to recover voices previously occluded from academic analysis In exploring how the notion of the French empire overseas was construed and how it was infused with meaning at three different historical moments 1784 1835 and 1938 it demonstrates how precarious the French empire was perceived to be in terms of both European rivalry and resistance from the colonized and how the rhetoric of a French colonisation douce was pitted against the inscribed excesses of the more powerful British empire Rather than employing the sorts of recuperative agenda which focus on how the colonized were elided viz Subaltern Studies or on the writings of the formerly colonized viz Francophone Studies the study concerns itself specifically with how French colonialism and imperialism were perceived and thus offers a further corrective to any generalizations about European colonialism and imperialism More particularly by examining how the representational strategy of nostalgia is used in these texts the study demonstrates how perceived loss and nostalgia for an imperial past played a role in dynamically shaping the French colonial enterprise across its various Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature Leslie Barnes, 2014-12-01 Vietnam and the manifestations Colonial Condition of French Literature explores an aspect of modern French literature that has been consistently overlooked in literary histories the relationship between the colonies their cultures languages and people and formal shifts in French literary production Starting from the premise that neither cultural identity nor cultural production can be pure or homogenous Leslie Barnes initiates a new discourse on the French literary canon by examining the work of three iconic French writers with personal connections to Vietnam Andr Malraux Marguerite Duras and Linda L In a thorough investigation of the authors linguistic metaphysical and textual experiences of colonialism Barnes articulates a new way of reading French literature not as an inward looking homogenous monolingual tradition but rather as a tradition of intersecting and interdependent peoples cultures and experiences One of the few books to focus on Vietnam's position within francophone literary scholarship Barnes challenges traditional concepts of French cultural identity and offers a new perspective on canonicity and the division between French and francophone literature Garrison Tales from Tonquin James O'Neill, 2006-10-01 The thought of enlisting in the French Foreign Legion held a tantalizing allure for young nineteenth century American boys in search of adventure Apart from youthful fantasies few Americans seriously pursued joining the legion These surprising and extraordinary short stories written by one young man who did take us to that time and place Born in Bridgeport Connecticut James O Neill enlisted in the legion in 1887 at the age of twenty seven In 1890 deployed to Tonquin in French Indochina more familiar today as Tonkin Vietnam O Neill faced tropical heat infectious disease and sudden death Like his contemporary Stephen Crane O Neill's ability to tell an engaging story and his keen sense for telling details provide a unique record of his time in this exotic world In these thirteen tales O Neill shows with surprising subtlety that France's efforts to conquer and govern Indochina were foolhardy Although the only American in his stories is the narrator it is clear that the tales are aimed at readers in the United States and are intended to caution against the construction of empires abroad Far from polemical tirades these are absorbing unadorned stories remarkably contemporary in both style and substance Charles Royster provides a short biography of O Neill who seems to have vanished into obscurity a few years after these stories were first published in 1895 Royster has also unearthed and included two essays O Neill published in magazines of the time one a description of a Buddhist temple in Hanoi and the other an appreciation of the Hungarian novelist Maurus I kai Whether read for historical value literary merit or political insights Garrison Tales from Tonguin is a true discovery Empire of Love Matt K. Matsuda, 2005-01-20 In this broad ranging survey of Paris Tahiti Indochina Japan New Caledonia and the South Pacific generally Matt Matsuda illustrates the fascinating interplay that shaped the imaginations of both colonizer and colonized Drawing on a wealth of primary sources Matsuda describes the constitution of a French Pacific through the eyes of Tahitian monarchs Kanak warriors French politicos and prisoners Asian revolutionaries and Central American laborers among others He argues that French imperialism in the Pacific both real and imagined was registered most forcefully in languages of desire and love for lost islands promised wealth and riches carnal and spiritual pleasures and political affinities Exploring the conflicting engagements with love for and against the empire in the Pacific this book is an imaginative and ground breaking work in global imperial and colonial histories as well as Pacific Militarizing Marriage Sarah J. Zimmerman, 2020-07-24 Following tirailleurs s n galais deployments in West histories Africa Congo Madagascar North Africa Syria Lebanon Vietnam and Algeria from the 1880s to 1962 Militarizing Marriage historicizes how African servicemen advanced conjugal strategies with women at home and abroad Sarah I Zimmerman examines the evolution of women s conjugal relationships with West African colonial soldiers to show how the sexuality gender and exploitation of women were fundamental to the violent colonial expansion and the everyday operation of colonial rule in modern French Empire These conjugal behaviors became military marital traditions that normalized the intimate manifestation of colonial power in social reproduction across the empire Soldiers cross colonial and interracial households formed at the intersection of race and sexuality outside the colonizer colonized binary Militarizing Marriage uses contemporary feminist scholarship on militarism and violence to portray how the subjugation of women was indispensable to The Politics of Trafficking Stephanie A. Limoncelli, 2010-02-23 Provides a historical military conquest and colonial rule ethnographic account of the first movement to combat trafficking in women and girls for prostitution initiated at an international congress in 1899 offering insights into gender and sexuality in global politics Histories of Anthropology Gabriella D'Agostino, Vincenzo Matera, 2025-04-09 This edited volume presents for the first time a history of anthropology regarding not only the well known European and American traditions but also lesser known traditions extending its scope beyond the Western world It focuses on the results of these traditions in the present Taking into account the distinction between empire building and nation building anthropology introduced by G Stocking and taken up by U Hannerz the book investigates different histories of anthropology especially in ex colonial and marginal contexts It highlights how the hegemonic anthropologies have been accepted and assimilated in local contexts which approaches have been privileged by institutions and academies in different locations how the anthropological approach has been modelled and adapted according to specific knowledge requirements related to the cultural features of different areas and which schools emerge as the most consolidated today Each chapter presents a cultural history of one of the historical cultural and geo political contexts that influenced and produced the specific disciplinary traditions. The chapters highlight the local contributions to the discipline the influences that the world centres have on the peripheries but also the ways in which the peripheries have learned from the centres in order to re elaborate meaningful or otherwise recognisable disciplinary lines Simone Weil on Colonialism Simone Weil, 2003 Twentieth century French philosopher Simone Weil's complete writings on colonialism are collected and translated into English in this volume Visit our website for sample chapters The French empire between the wars Martin Thomas, 2017-03-01 By considering the distinctiveness of the inter war years as a discrete period of colonial change this book addresses several larger issues such as tracing the origins of decolonization in the rise of colonial nationalism and a re assessment of the impact of inter war colonial rebellions in Africa Syria and Indochina The book also connects French theories of colonial governance to the lived experience of colonial rule in a period scarred by war and economic dislocation

Impure and Worldly Geography Gavin Bowd, Daniel Clayton, 2019-02-13 Tropicality is a centuries old Western discourse that treats otherness and the exotic in binary us and them terms It has long been implicated in empire and its anxieties over difference However little attention has been paid to its twentieth century genealogy This book explores this neglected history through the work of Pierre Gourou one of the century's foremost purveyors of what anti-colonial writer Aim C saire dubbed tropicalit It explores how Gourou s interpretations of the nature of the tropical world and its innate difference from the temperate world were built on the shifting sands of twentieth century history empire and freedom modernity and disenchantment war and revolution culture and civilisation and race and development The book addresses key questions about the location and power of knowledge by focusing on Gourou's cultivation of the tropics as a romanticised networked and affective domain The book probes what C saire described as Gourou's impure and worldly geography as a way of opening up interdisciplinary questions of geography ontology epistemology experience and materiality This book will be of great interest to scholars and students within historical geography history postcolonial studies cultural studies and international relations The Human Tradition in Modern Europe, 1750 to the Present Cora Ann Granata, Cheryl A. Koos, 2008 This engaging and humanizing text traces the development of Europe since the mid eighteenth century through the lives of people of the time Capturing key moments themes and events in the continent's turbulent modern past the book explores how ordinary Europeans both shaped their societies and were affected by larger historical processes By focusing on the lives of individual actors both famous and obscure students can gain a sense for how the well known revolutions wars and social transformations of the modern era were experienced in private homes work places political forums and on battlefields throughout the region Fittingly the book opens with the French Revolution and concludes with the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of Eastern European communism Throughout the contributors use compelling biographies to examine many of the major events and developments in European history including the age of reaction and revolutions in the early nineteenth century industrialization Victorianism new imperialism fin de si cle culture the first and second World Wars the Russian Revolution Italian fascism Nazism the Holocaust and decolonization Americanization and the 1968 youth revolts Contributions by Karin Breuer Helen Harden Chenut John Cox Stephen P Frank Cora Granata Maura E Hametz Michael Kilburn Cheryl A Koos Robert A McLain Karen Petrone Paolo Scrivano Alyssa Goldstein Sepinwall Matthew G Stanard Michele M Strong and Patricia Tilburg Framing the Nation Alison J. Murray Levine, 2011-11-03 Framing the Nation Documentary Film in Interwar France argues that between World Wars I and II documentary film made a substantial contribution to the rewriting of the French national narrative to include rural France and the colonies The book mines a significant body of virtually unknown films and manuscripts for their insight into revisions of French national identity in the aftermath of the Great War From 1918 onwards government institutions sought to advance social programs they believed were crucial to national regeneration They turned to documentary film a new form of mass communication to do so Many scholars of French film state that the French made no significant contribution to documentary film prior to the Vichy period Using until now overlooked films Framing the Nation refutes this misconception and shows that the French were early and active believers in the uses of documentary film for social change and these films reached audiences far beyond the confines of commercial cinema circuits in urban areas Thami al-Glaoui Orit Ouaknine-Yekutieli,2024-04-30 Orit Ouaknine Yekutieli examines the life and deeds of Thami al Glaoui 1879 1956 and the multiple ways in which his story has been told She investigates his biography as a creation continuing beyond the demise of its protagonist asserting a conflation of history story and storytelling The book also reconfigures the story of major events and processes in modern Moroccan history and historiography Thami al Glaoui leader of the Amazigh Glaoua tribe and Pasha of Marrakesh throughout Morocco s colonial era 1912 56 was the third most powerful person in Morocco after the Sultan and the French Resident General by the 1930s In 1953 he was a key supporter of the deportation of Sultan Mohamed V by the French After recanting three years later he was pardoned by the returning Sultan but died shortly afterwards In the four decades that followed al Glaoui became a synonym in Morocco for betrayal and corruption In the 21st century however the ways in which he is told became more complex and his reputation has been somewhat revised Fight or Flight Martin Thomas, 2014-03-13 Although shattered by war in 1945 Britain and France still controlled the world's two largest colonial empires with imperial territories stretched over four continents And they appeared determined to keep them the roll call of British and French politicians soldiers settlers and writers who promised in word and print at this time to defend their colonial possessions at all costs is a long one Yet within twenty years both empires had almost completely disappeared The collapse was cataclysmic Peaceable transfers of power were eclipsed by episodes of territorial partition and mass violence whose bitter aftermath still lingers Hundreds of millions across four continents were caught up in the biggest reconfiguration of the international system ever seen In the meantime even the most dogged imperialists who had once stiffly defended imperial rule ultimately bent to the wind of change By the early 1950s Winston Churchill had retreated from his wartime pledge to keep Britain's Empire intact And General de Gaulle who guit the French presidency in 1946 complaining that France's new post war democracy would never hang on to the country's imperial prizes narrowly escaped assassination a generation later after negotiating the humiliating French withdrawal from Algeria Fight or Flight is the first ever comparative account of this dramatic collapse explaining the end of the British and French colonial empires as an intertwined even co dependent process Decolonization gathered momentum not as an empire specific affair but as a global one in which the wider march of twentieth century history played a vital part industrial concentration and global depression World War and Cold War Communism and other anti colonial ideologies mass consumerism and the allure of American popular culture Above all as Martin Thomas shows the internationalization of colonial affairs made it impossible to contain colonial problems locally spelling the end for Europe s two largest colonial empires in less than two decades from the end of the Second World War An American Brothel Amanda Boczar, 2022-02-15 In An American Brothel Amanda Boczar considers sexual encounters between American servicemen and civilians throughout the Vietnam War and she places those fraught and sometimes violent meetings in the context of the US military and diplomatic campaigns In 1966 US Senator J William Fulbright declared that Saigon has become an American brothel Concerned that as US military involvement in Vietnam increased so too had prostitution black market economies and a drug trade fueled by American dollars Fulbright decried an arrogance of power on the part of Americans and the corrosive effects unchecked immorality could have on Vietnam as well as on the war effort The symbol at home and abroad of the sweeping social and cultural changes was often the so called South Vietnamese bar girl As the war progressed peaking in 1968 with more than half a million troops engaged the behavior of soldiers off the battlefield started to impact affect the conflict more broadly Beyond the brothel shocking revelations of rapes and the increase in marriage applications complicated how the South Vietnamese and American allies cooperated and managed social behavior Strictures on how soldiers conducted themselves during rest and relaxation time away from battle further eroded morale of disaffected servicemen The South Vietnamese were loath to loosen moral restrictions and feared deleterious influence of a permissive wWestern culture on their society From the consensual to the coerced sexual encounters shaped the Vietnam War Boczar shows that these encounters sometimes facilitated and sometimes banned by the US military command restructured the South Vietnamese economy captivated international attention dictated military policies and hung over diplomatic relations during and after the war Imperial Rule and the Politics of Nationalism Adria Lawrence, 2013-09-16 During the first half of the twentieth century movements seeking political equality emerged in France's overseas territories Within twenty years they were replaced by movements for national independence in the majority of French colonies protectorates and mandates. In this pathbreaking study of the decolonization era Adria Lawrence asks why elites in French colonies shifted from demands for egalitarian and democratic reforms to calls for independent statehood and why mass mobilization for independence emerged where and when it did Lawrence shows that nationalist discourses became dominant as a consequence of the failure of the reform agenda Where political rights were granted colonial subjects opted for further integration and reform Contrary to conventional accounts nationalism was not the only or even the primary form of anti-colonialism Lawrence shows further that mass nationalist protest occurred only when and where French authority was disrupted Imperial crises were the cause not the result of mass protest
