France And West Africa An Anthology Of Historical Documents:

France and West Africa John Desmond Hargreaves, 1969 Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann, Peter Duignan, 1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism The Church in Africa, 1450-1950 Adrian Hastings, 1996 Professor Hastings also compares the relation of Christian history to the comparable development of Islam in Africa Children of the French Empire Owen White, 1999-11-25 This book vividly recreates the lives of the children born of relationships between French men and African women from the time France colonized much of West Africa towards the end of the nineteenth century until independence in 1960 Set within the context of the history of miscegenation in colonial French West Africa the study focuses upon the lives and identities of the resulting mixed race or m tis population and their struggle to overcome the handicaps they faced in a racially divided society Owen White has drawn a valuable evaluation of the impact and importance of French racial theories and offers a critical discussion of colonial policies in such areas as citizenship and education providing original insights into problems of identity in colonial society Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or

Dahomey's Royal Architecture Lynne Ellsworth Larsen, 2023-06-23 Dahomey s Royal Architecture examines the West African kingdom of Dahomey located in present day Republic of Benin The book explores the Royal Palace of Dahomey s relationship to the religious cultural and national identity of the pre colonial Kingdom of Dahomey c 1625 1892 colonial Dahomey 1892 1960 and post colonial Benin 1960 present The Royal Palace of Dahomey covers more than 108 acres and was surrounded by a wall over two miles long When the French colonial army arrived in Abomey in 1892 the ruling king set fire to the palace to keep it from falling into enemy hands Though much of the palace structure was subsequently left to ruin a portion of it was restored from which the French ruled for a short period In 1945 the colonial administration transformed part of the palace into a museum and in 1985 the entire palace was added to UNESCO s World Heritage list This book documents the palace s physical transformations in relation to its changing purposes and explores how the space maintained religious significance despite change The palace s construction destruction and restorations demonstrate how architecture can be manipulated and transformed according to the agendas of governments or according to the religious and cultural needs of a populace The palace functions as a historic record by discussing aspects of documentation revision language and interpretation Covering almost four centuries of Dahomey's history this book will be of interest to researchers and students of African art and architecture religious studies west African history and post colonial studies Muslim Interpreters in Colonial Senegal, 1850-1920 Tamba M'bayo, 2016-07-01 This book investigates the lives and careers of Muslim African interpreters employed by the French colonial administration in Saint Louis Senegal from the 1850s to the early 1920s It focuses on the lower and middle Senegal River valley in northern Senegal where the French concentrated most of their activities in West Africa during the nineteenth century The Muslim interpreters performed multiple roles as mediators military and expeditionary guides emissaries diplomatic hosts and treaty negotiators As cultural and political powerbrokers that straddled the colonial divide they were indispensable for French officials in their relations with African rulers and the local population As such a central concern of this book is the paradoxical and often contradictory roles the interpreters played in mediating between the French and Africans This book argues that the Muslim interpreters exemplified a paradox while serving the French administration they pursued their own interests and defended those of their local communities In doing so the interpreters strove to maintain some degree of autonomy Moreover this book contends that the interpreters occupied a vantage position as mediators to influence the construction of colonial discourse and knowledge because they channeled the flow of information between the French and the African population Thus Muslim interpreters had the capacity to shape power relations between the colonizers and the colonized in Senegal Bradt Travel Guides - Burkina Faso Katrina Manson, James Knight, 2011 From balafon players in the laidback town of Bobo Dioulasso to masters of horsemanship further north plus internationally recognised film jazz hip hop and craft festivals landlocked Burkina Faso in the heart of west Africa has something to offer everyone This new edition of the only English language guidebook to Burkina Faso leads visitors on camel safaris from desert markets to dramatic waterfalls and spectacular sandstone rock formations past the extraordinary architecture of 16th century Mossi Lobi stone ruins and Koro's hillside caves Sports fans can even witness the cycling race Tour du Faso in this magical country one of Africa's best kept secrets The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, 1975 The period covered in this volume begins with the emergence of anti slave trade attitudes in Europe and ends on the eve of European colonial conquest Africa in the 21st Century Ama Mazama, 2007-11-21 Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future brings together some of the finest Pan African and Afrocentric intellectuals to discuss the possibilities of a new future where the continent claims its own agency in response to the economic social political and cultural problems which are found in every nation The volume is structured around four sections I African Unity and Consciousness Assets and Challenges II Language Information and Education III African Women Children and Families and IV Political and Economic Future of the African World In original essays the authors raise the level of discourse around the questions of integration pluralism families a federative state and good governance Each writer sees in the continent the potential for greatness and therefore articulates a theoretical and philosophical approach to Africa that constructs a victorious consciousness from hard concrete facts This book will interest students and scholars of the history and politics of Africa as well as professional Africanists Africologists and international studies scholars who are inclined toward Africa

Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism, 1946-1959 Jon Cowans, 2015-05-15 The first transnational history of cinema's role in decolonization Using popular cinema from the United States Britain and France Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism 1946-1959 examines postwar Western attitudes toward colonialism and race relations Historians have written much about the high politics of decolonization but little about what ordinary citizens thought about losing their empires Popular cinema provided the main source of images of the colonies and according to Jon Cowans in this far reaching book films depicting the excesses of empire helped Westerners come to terms with decolonization and even promoted the dismantling of colonialism around the globe Examining more than one hundred British French and American films from the post World War II era Cowans concentrates on movies that depict interactions between white colonizers and nonwhite colonial subjects including sexual and romantic relations Although certain conservative films eagerly supported colonialism Cowans argues that the more numerous liberal colonialist productions undermined support for key aspects of colonial rule while a few more provocative films openly favored anticolonial movements and urged internal decolonization for people of color in Britain France and the United States Combining new archival research on the films production with sharp analysis of their imagery and political messages the book also assesses their reception through box office figures and newspaper reviews It examines both high profile and lesser known films on overseas colonialism including The King and I Bhowani Junction and Island in the Sun and tackles treatments of miscegenation and internal colonialism that appeared in Westerns and American films like Pinky and Giant The first truly transnational history of cinema's role in decolonization this powerful book weaves a unified historical narrative out of the experiences of three colonial powers in diverse geographic settings Africa and the

West: A Documentary History William H. Worger, Nancy L. Clark, Edward A. Alpers, 2010-02-02 Africa and the West presents a fascinating array of primary sources to engage readers in the history of Africa's long and troubled relationship with the West Many of the sources have not previously appeared in print or in books readily available to students Volume 1 covers two major topics the Atlantic slave trade and the European conquest It details the beginnings of the slave trade slavery as a business the experiences of slaves and the effect of abolitionism on the trade using such documents as a letter from a sixteenth century African king to the king of Portugal calling for a more regulated slave trade and the nineteenth century testimony of a South African slave accused of treason The volume also covers the early nineteenth century considerations of the costs and benefits of colonization the development of conquest as the century progressed with special attention to technology legislation empire religion racism and violence through such unusual documents as Cecil Rhodes's will and a chart of the costs of African animals exported to Western zoos The English Jeremy Paxman, 2001-10-02 The acclaimed author of On Royalty explores the mysteries of English identity in this witty argumentative book bursting with good things The Daily Telegraph A Sunday Times Top Ten Bestseller Being English used to be easy As the dominant culture in a country that dominated an empire that dominated the world they had little need to examine themselves and ask who they were But something has happened over the past century A new self confidence seems to have taken hold in Wales and Scotland while others try to forge a new relationship with Europe What exactly sets the English apart from their British compatriots Is there such a thing as an English race Renowned journalist and bestselling author Jeremy Paxman traces the invention of Englishness to its current crisis and concludes that for all their characteristic gloom about themselves the English may have developed a form of nationalism for the twenty first century Paxman s irrepressibly witty bit of Anglo scholarship offers stirring insights Vanity Fair Miscegenation, Identity and Status in Colonial Africa Lawrence Mbogoni, 2018-12-07 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the colonial administrations in British East Central African colonies considered inter racial sexual liaisons to be a serious and recurrent problem Consequently inter racial sexual liaisons concubinage and marriage and the mixed race progeny that resulted from these liaisons led to protracted discussions and enactment of policies which addressed questions about concubinage marriage racial identity sexual morality and the status of persons of mixed race in British East Central Africa Using archival sources and secondary literature the author highlights how colonial inter racial intimate encounters became intertwined with conceptions of race and what it meant to be European African native and racially mixed Intended for students and scholars interested in the study of race and sexuality in colonial Africa the book will provide an understanding of why inter racial liaisons despite of rigid racial barriers were not easy to legislate against Disciples of All Nations Lamin O. Sanneh, 2008 Tracing the rise of Christianity to its key role in Europe s maritime and colonial expansion this text sheds light on the ways in which societies in Africa Asia and Latin America have been drawn into the Christian orbit Envisioning Empire James M. Vaughn, Robert A. Olwell, 2019-11-28 Examining the pivotal period between the end of the Seven Years War and the dawn of the American Revolution Envisioning Empire reinterprets the development of the British Empire in the 18th century With exceptional geographical scope this book provides new ways of understanding the actors and events in many imperial arenas including West Africa North America the Caribbean and South Asia While 1763 has long been seen as marking a turning point in British and British colonial history Envisioning Empire treats this epochal year and the decade that followed as constituting a discrete moment in Imperial history that is significant in its own right Exploring the programs and plans that sought to incorporate the vast new territories and millions of new subjects into the British state and imperial system it demonstrates how the period between the end of the Seven Years War and the beginning of the American Revolution was one of contested ideas about the future of British overseas expansion By examining these competing imperial visions and designs from the perspective of Britain s new subjects as well as from that of British ministers Envisioning Empire both illuminates and complicates the boundaries that have been drawn between the first and second British empires and reveals how the Empire was being conceived discussed and debated during an era of rapid transformation African Historical Studies ,1971

The Métis of Senegal Hilary Jones,2013 Examines the politics and society of an influential group of mixed race people who settled in coastal Africa under French colonialism becoming middleman traders for European merchants and ultimately power brokers against French rule Unveiling Modernity in Twentieth-Century West African Islamic Reforms Ousman Murzik Kobo,2012-08-27 In this book Ousman Kobo provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Islamic reforms sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas in two West African countries Burkina Faso and Ghana and connects these movements to Muslim s search for religious purity in modern contexts Ambiguous Ethnicity Susan Benson,1982-01-14 In a society where race is a significant component of social identity and exerts an important influence on social relationships the problems faced by couples who enter into mixed marriages are especially difficult The book is a study of the personal histories and everyday lives of a small number of interracial families living in and around Brixton south London in the early 1970s Dr Benson sets the circumstances that confront these families within the context of wider British attitudes about race colour and miscegenation as they developed over time She argues that couples are obliged to make a continual series of choices between black and white in the course of their everyday lives Through a discussion of these choices and of the factors which lead individuals to enter into a marriage which could be regarded with some disapproval the book explores how people in London thought and felt about race colour and social identity It will be of interest to all teachers and students studying race relations as well as to social and community workers school teachers and administrators concerned with race relations and the inner city
