William Perkins. The First Volume: Newly Corrected According to His Owne Copies, Etc William PERKINS (Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge.), 1635 Testing the Gospel in the Book of Romans Charles Tarrell, 2011-08-22

Supersessionism is deeply rooted in both Roman Catholic and Protestant theology and is as old as the church It is the belief that the church is the new Israel the true Israel and as such has displaced or superseded ethnic Israel Throughout the history of the church it has been commonly held that the covenants God made with Israel and the promises God gave to that nation now belong to the Christian church The supersession controversy is not an obscure theological debate of interest only to a few Biblical scholars It involves questions of fundamental importance Does the God of the Christian Scriptures keep His promises What are the rules that guide our interpretation of Scripture Is Christian theology responsible for the horrors of anti-Semitism in Christian lands The Biblical focus of this controversy is the 11th chapter of the book of Romans There the Apostle Paul courageously addresses the supersession issue Tarrell invites the reader to feast on the riches of Paul's teaching on the atonement Romans 1:8 and to celebrate so great a salvation But he also invites the reader to embrace Paul's teaching about Israel Romans 9:11 God's gift of salvation is precious and is thoroughly explained in the first 8 chapters of Romans But to prove the thesis of the book of Romans Paul tackles the most daunting problem of all the apparent inability of God to fulfill the promises He made to the nation of Israel Bringing up the problem of Israel is a gutsy move But it is the problem that must be addressed Foundations of the World Christian Movement: A Larger Perspective, Reader , An
