interreligious dynamics in caring relationships Cooper White examines how the relational paradigm for pastoral assessment and theological reflection that she pioneered now has important implications for evolving types of care relationships As she does so she addresses emerging topics such as postcolonial theory spiritual and religious fluidity and gender diversity CPE supervisors pastoral care and counseling educators and practitioners pastoral theology scholars and psychotherapists looking for an in depth understanding of relationality and intersubjectivity will find the 20th anniversary edition of Shared Wisdom must have resource to build and expand upon a core competency Pastoral Counseling for Orphans and Vulnerable Children Tuntufye Anangisye Mwenisongole, Elia Shabani Mligo, 2018-04-27 The existence of orphans is as inevitable to most African cities and the world as it is death These orphans are caused by the death of one or both parents due to various reasons including the scourge of HIV and AIDS Being orphans most of them are vulnerable to difficult lives because they have nobody to fend for them and take care of their lives They lack adequate food living expenses school fees and care since their current guardians are also in adverse economic situations In such situations orphans end up living a life of hopelessness and trauma which makes them deeply remember their dead parents and the care they received from them before death Following the vulnerable situation of most orphans this book through a study done in the Tanzanian context challenges churches to extend their counseling and caring ministries to Orphans and Vulnerable Children OVC It purports that the use of narrative approach is the most effective way to enter into the world of vulnerable children in order to provide pastoral counseling to them This approach helps pastoral counselors to use life stories proverbs biblical narratives plays arts songs riddles poems symbols and images as healing and coping mechanisms for OVC Therefore this book is helpful not only to churches and their ministry to orphans and vulnerable children but also to those who care for orphans in their homes Moreover it will be helpful to children who live in adverse conditions worldwide to find ways to cope with their situations through the stories of children used inside this book I Have a Plan Charles L. Rassieur, 2005 The Care of Men Christie Cozad Neuger, James Newton Poling, 1997 Authors Neuger and Newton Poling explore the various crises afflicting men today Changing role expectations gender expectations and diminishing economic opportunities force men to find new foundations for self esteem and identity The Formation of Pastoral Counselors Duane R. Bidwell, Joretta L. Marshall, 2012-11-12 Explore the concept of formation in pastoral counseling from a variety of perspectives Two dozen of the most prominent clinicians and scholars in the field reflect on The Formation of Pastoral Counselors from clinical theological and theoretical perspectives This unique book explores the challenges to the personal and professional formation of pastoral counselors in a cultural and historic context that is radically different from the era when the profession first emerged as a specialized ministry Contributors examine formation from a variety of contexts and perspectives including spirituality and gender address theological education and intercultural issues and present emerging models for pastoral counselors The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is a practical guide for educators working to shape curricula and training programs to the shifting context in which pastoral counselors are formed for ministry service and lifelong learning This unique book examines ideas about appropriate content and processes for the formation of pastoral care professionals and looks at specialized contextual training models that form their emerging identities The book s contributors call on extensive experience in pastoral theology care and counseling to explore the essential components of formation across different contexts how those contextual realities change the delivery systems the epistemological nature of formation reasons for the limited roles that formal theological education and spiritual experience seem to play at the moment and why formation is rarely formally addressed in pastoral counseling training Topics discussed in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include the turn to formation the goals of theological education core elements of pastoral theology developing spiritual practices diversity pastoral counseling training programs race and ethnicity in the formation of pastoral counselors cultural identity intercultural contexts practical relevancy in training gender identity and sexual orientation economic disparity Models and practices examined in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include parallel charting clinician narratives group supervision Benedictine spirituality academic and clinical training at the Claremont School of Theology the model of formation at the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care VIPCare and much more The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is an essential guide for pastoral counselors faculty in pastoral theological care and counseling and training directors in pastoral counseling centers Handbook of Research on Present and Future Paradigms in Human Trafficking Essien, Essien D.,2022-05-20 Human trafficking is currently regarded as a contemporary form of slavery However despite many initiatives undertaken over the last two decades to tackle the problem there seems to be a disproportionate emphasis on the social phenomenon Trafficking in persons remains a little explored area in scholarship with many inconsistencies and ambiguities yet to be attended to Human trafficking is a multifaceted issue that requires a multidisciplinary approach that must be studied and considered thoroughly and with heavy regard to the many layers of the issue The Handbook of Research on Present and Future Paradigms in Human Trafficking presents a comprehensible view of what constitutes the underpinning of human trafficking the means of combating it its moral implications and offers possible solutions toward curbing its excesses inconsistencies and ambiguities Covering a range of topics such as social change human rights and ethics this major reference work is ideal for researchers scholars practitioners government officials policymakers instructors academicians and students Understanding Grief as a Process Peter R. Mwiti,1999 Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park,2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God s mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God s grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals The Layman's Guide to Systematic Theology Billy R.
