Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-First Century Reiland Rabaka,2008-04-29 W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century utilizes Du Bois s thought and texts to develop an informed critical theory of contemporary society This book broadens the base of critical theory making it more multicultural transethnic transgender and non Western European philosophy focused by placing it in dialogue with theory and phenomena that had been heretofore woefully neglected Taking the preeminent black intellectual of the twentieth century as his primary point of departure Reiland Rabaka identifies and analyzes several key contributions that Du Bois and the black racial tradition offer to those interested in redeveloping and racially revising contemporary critical social theory With chapters on critical race theory postcolonial theory feminism and Marxism this volume builds bridges from Africana Studies to disparate discursive communities accessibly demonstrating Du Bois s and the black radical tradition s contributions to and the potential impact on a wide range of new social scientific research and radical political struggles

Handbook of Urban Educational Leadership Muhammad Khalifa,Noelle Witherspoon Arnold,Azadeh F. Osanloo,Cosette M. Grant,2015-06-01 This authoritative handbook examines the community district and teacher leadership roles that affect urban schools It will serve as a foundation for pedagogical and educational leadership practices that foster social justice equity and advocacy for those who have been traditionally and historically underserved in education The handbook s ten sections cover topics as diverse as curriculum instruction and educational outcomes gender race and class higher education and leadership preparation and support Its twenty nine chapters offer both American and international perspectives

Transformations in Africana Studies Adebayo Oyebade,2023-02-07 This book introduces readers to the rich discipline of Africana Studies reflecting on how it has developed over the last fifty years as an intellectual enterprise for knowledge production about Africa and the African diaspora The African world has always had a wealth of indigenous knowledge systems but for the greater part of the scholarly history hegemonic Western epistemologies have denied the authenticity of African indigenous ways of knowing The post colonial era has seen steady and deliberate efforts to expand the frontiers of knowledge about black people and their societies and to Africanize such bodies of knowledge in all fields of human endeavor This book reflects on how the multidisciplinary discipline of Africana Studies has transformed and reinvented itself as it has sought to advance knowledge about the African world The contributors consider the foundations of the discipline its key theories and methods of knowledge production and how it interacts with popular culture Women s Studies and other area studies such as Ethnic and Afro Latinx Studies Bringing together rich insights from across history religion literature art sociology and philosophy this book will be an important read for students and researchers of Africa and Africana Studies      Enduring Legacies Arturo J. Aldama, Elisa Facio, Daryl Maeda, Reiland Rabaka, 2011-05-18 Traditional accounts of Colorado's history often reflect an Anglocentric perspective that begins with the 1859 Pikes Peak Gold Rush and Colorado's establishment as a state in 1876 Enduring Legacies expands the study of Colorado's past and present by adopting a borderlands perspective that emphasizes the multiplicity of peoples who have inhabited this region Addressing the dearth of scholarship on the varied communities within Colorado a zone in which collisions structured by forces of race nation class gender and sexuality inevitably lead to the transformation of cultures and the emergence of new identities this volume is the first to bring together comparative scholarship on historical and contemporary issues that span groups from Chicanas and Chicanos to African Americans to Asian Americans This book will be relevant to students academics and general readers interested in Colorado history and ethnic studies      Ama Mazama Molefi Kete Asante, 2020-08-20 Ama Mazama The Ogunic

Presence in Africology is a critical analysis of the ideas of Ama Mazama a prominent and leading female theorist in Africology and African American Studies Molefe Asante studies the creative and productive power of Mazama's intellectual work as it emerges from the personal wrestling with spiritual elements of consciousness as well as Mazama's attention to ancestral and perhaps epigenetic relationships to African spirituality in the making of theory and practice Painting a picture of an activist intellectual concerned as much with mental as well as spiritual liberation Asante demonstrates how and why Ama Mazama has evolved into one of the most popular Africologists in the field      Handbook of Research on Teacher Education

Marilyn Cochran-Smith, Sharon Feiman-Nemser, John McIntyre, Kelly E. Demers, 2008-02-19 Co Published by Routledge Taylor Francis Group and the Association of Teacher Educators The Handbook of Research on Teacher Education was initiated to ferment change in education based on solid evidence The publication of the First Edition was a signal event in 1990 While the preparation of educators was then and continues to be the topic of substantial discussion there did not exist a codification of the best that was known at the time about teacher education Reflecting the needs of educators today the Third Edition takes a new approach to achieving the same purpose Beyond simply conceptualizing the broad landscape of teacher education and providing comprehensive reviews of the latest research for major domains of practice this edition stimulates a broad conversation about foundational issues brings multiple perspectives to bear provides new specificity to topics that have been undifferentiated in the past includes diverse voices in the conversation The Editors with an Advisory Board identified nine foundational issues and translated them into a set of focal questions What's the Point The Purposes of Teacher Education What Should Teachers Know Teacher Capacities Knowledge Beliefs Skills and Commitments Where Should Teachers Be Taught Settings and Roles in Teacher Education Who Teaches Who Should Teach Teacher Recruitment Selection and Retention Does Difference Make a Difference Diversity and Teacher Education How Do People Learn to Teach Who's in Charge Authority in Teacher Education How Do We Know What We Know Research and Teacher Education What
