Handbook of Discourse Analysis: Discourse analysis in society Teun A. van Dijk, 1985      Linguistics: The Cambridge Survey: Volume 4, Language: The Socio-Cultural Context Frederick J. Newmeyer, 1988 This survey aims to provide a comprehensive introduction to current research in all branches of the field of linguistics from syntactic theory to ethnography of speaking from signed language to the mental lexicon This volume concentrates on sociolinguistics and allied fields      Critical Discourse Analysis, Critical Discourse Studies and Beyond Theresa Catalano, Linda R. Waugh, 2020-09-28 This book explores the problem oriented interdisciplinary research movement comprised of Critical Discourse Analysis CDA and Critical Discourse Studies CDS for scholars teachers and students from many backgrounds Beginning with a Preface by renowned CDA CDS scholar Ruth Wodak it introduces CDA CDS through examples of what its research looks like delineates various precursors to CDA CDS and important foundational concepts and theories and traces its development from its early years until it became established After the relationship between CDA and CDS is discussed seven commonly cited approaches to CDA CDS are outlined including their connections and differences their origins and development major and associated scholars research focus es and central concepts and distinguishing features After a summary of critiques of CDA CDS and responses by CDA CDS scholars the book provides an overview of its salient connections to other interdisciplinary areas of scholarship such as critical applied linguistics education anthropology ethnography sociolinguistics gender studies queer linguistics pragmatics and ecolinguistics The final chapter describes how scholars use their knowledge of CDA CDS to make a difference in the world      Handbook of Discourse Analysis: Discourse and dialogue Teun A. van Dijk, 1985      Read the Cultural Other Shi-xu, Manfred Kienpointner, Jan Servaes, 2008-08-22 Read the Cultural Other contains studies on non Western discourse It has two principal aims Firstly it argues that the study of non Western non White and Third World discourses should become a legitimate necessary and routine part of international discourse scholarship Hitherto non Western non White and Third World discourses have been relegated and marginalized to a local particular or other place in or one might argue outside the mainstream To reclaim their place the book deconstructs the rhetoric of universalism and the continued preoccupation with Western discourse in the profession and stresses the cultural nature of discourse both ordinary and disciplinary as it outlines a culturally pluralist vision Secondly in order to take the multicultural view seriously it explores the complexity diversity and forms of otherness of non Western discourse by examining the case of China and Hong Kong s discourses of the decolonization of the latter Far too often non Western discourse has been stereotyped as externally discrete internally homogeneous and formally containable within a universal general or integrated model The present work focuses on China and Hong Kong s discourses which have been marginalized by their Western counterparts Through culturally eclectic linguistic analysis and local cultural analysis it identifies and highlights the specific ways of speaking of China and Hong Kong their concepts concerns aspirations resistance verbal strategies etc with respect to similar or different issues The culturally pluralist view and analytical practice proffered here call for a radical cultural change in international scholarship on language communication and discourse

Singing, Speaking and Writing Politics Mirjana N. Dedaić, 2015-10-15 The discourses of the post apartheid South Africa embody symbols of change and promises of new lessons in history This is the first volume that brings together analyses of a variety of discourses produced in South Africa through which we follow the evolution of transitional processes in the country s political institutions and in the opinions of its populace The book offers to the reader a visit to the Parliament a peek into the internet forums analyses of the country s official papers and speeches and the media accounts Through all these discourses we see the burning questions Who Are We Now and Who Do We Want To Be being repetitively examined and identities cross formed

while the country deals with new post apartheid challenges as well as successes

Formal Aspects of Context Pierre Bonzon, Marcos Cavalcanti, Rolf Noss, 2013-04-17 We welcome Volume 20 Formal Aspects of Context Context has always been recognised as strongly relevant to models in language philosophy logic and artificial intelligence In recent years theoretical advances in these areas and especially in logic have accelerated the study of context in the international community An annual conference is held and many researchers have come to realise that many of the old puzzles should be reconsidered with proper attention to context The volume editors and contributors are from among the most active front line researchers in the area and the contents shows how wide and vigorous this area is There are strong scientific connections with earlier volumes in the series I am confident that the appearance of this book in our series will help secure the study of context as an important area of applied logic D M Gabbay INTRODUCTION This book is a result of the First International and Interdisciplinary Conference on Modelling and Using Context which was organised in Rio de Janeiro in January 1997 and contains a selection of the papers presented there refereed and revised through a process of anonymous peer review The treatment of contexts as bona fide objects of logical formalisation has gained wide acceptance in recent years following the seminal impetus by McCarthy in his Turing award address

Framing the Threat Imke Köhler, 2019-03-04 There is great power in the use of words words create most of what we consider to be real and true Framing our words and narratives is thus a tool of power but a power that also comes with limitations This intriguing issue is the topic of Framing the Threat an investigation of the relationship between language and security and of how discourse creates the scope of possibility for political action In particular the book scrutinizes and compares the security narratives of the former US presidents George W Bush and Barack Obama It shows how their framings of identity i e of the American self and the enemy other facilitated a certain construction of threat that shaped the presidents detention and interrogation policies By defining what was necessary in the name of national security Bush's narrative justified the operation of the detention center at Guantanamo Bay and rendered the mistreatment of detainees possible a situation that would have otherwise been illegal Bush's framings therefore enabled legal limits to be pushed and made the violation of rules appear legitimate Obama in contrast constructed a threat scenario that required an end to rule violations and the closure of Guantanamo for security reasons According to this narrative a return to the rule of law was imperative if the American people were to be kept safe However Obama's framing was continually challenged and it was never able to dominate public discourse Consequently Framing the Threat argues Obama was unable to implement the policy changes he had announced

Language Planning in Primary Schools in Asia Richard Baldauf, Robert Kaplan, Kwonko Kamwangamalu, Pauline Bryant, 2013-09-13 In foreign language education decisions must be taken on what languages to teach who will teach them in which schools i e all only urban only rural in which grades the number of hours a week and the cost involved This book explores the answers to these questions across a number of Asian polities It illustrates why some of the efforts undertaken are successful and why some are not why despite significant investments of time and resources some students do not seem to acquire the languages being taught and why some teachers responsible for instruction in the designated foreign languages have problems achieving fluency in the designated language or have other language teaching difficulties It suggests some strategies various polities might attempt to achieve their stated language learning objectives This book was originally published as a special issue of Current Issues in Language Planning

Manzo, 2016-12-05 Ethnomethodologists and Conversation Analysts have always been interested in the study of law and legal institutions and there is now a large body of empirical studies representing a range of analytic traditions in each field This collection introduces this literature and the research questions pursued by ethnomethodologists and conversation analysts in an accessible form to a general audience in the interdisciplinary field of law and society studies

Handbook of Social Psychology John DeLamater, Amanda Ward, 2013-08-13 This handbook provides a broad overview of the field of social psychology and up to date coverage of current social psychological topics It reflects the recent and substantial development of the field both with regard to theory and empirical research It starts out by covering major theoretical perspectives including the interactionist identity social exchange social structure and the person perspectives Next it discusses development and socialization in childhood adolescence and adulthood In addition to updated discussions of topics that were included in the first edition the part examining personal processes includes entirely new topics such as social psychology and the body and individual agency and social motivation Interpersonal processes are discussed from a contemporary perspective with a focus on stress and health The final section examines the person in sociocultural context and includes another topic new to the second edition the social psychology of race and gender and intersectionality

Media Politics and Democracy in Palestine Amal Jamal, 2017-09-02 In opposition to the PA liberal as well as Islamic social forces promote policies of protest and resistance through media tools against the authoritarian policies of the PA The media is viewed as a public sphere in which these forces compete Media institutions play an important role in setting the parameters of communication in processes of state building promoting public debate and forming public spheres influence the modes of state-civil society relations Combining concepts of political communication with social movement theory the author examines the extent to which public opinion plays a role in determining the character of the political regime The rising tension between the Palestinian Authority's attempts to deepen its control over society and the reaction to this development by opposition groups informs the analysis of each civil institution the role of NGOs the Islamic movement the women's movement and Palestinian feminism and the liberal democratic intellectual elite are all assessed through their media institutions and communication policies to reveal the character of the emerging Palestinian public sphere

The Representation of Ruling and Opposition Parties in State-owned Newspapers in Contemporary Ghana Eric Kwadwo Amissah, 2017-05 This book has been written basically to analyse a typical phenomenon concerning the media politics nexus in contemporary Ghana by exploring how the processes of Othering are linguistically embedded in the political discourses of the state owned Ghanaian newspaper the Daily Graphic when representing the relation between the ruling and opposition parties in Ghana since 1992 Secondly the aim of this book is to demonstrate how Critical Discourse Analysis CDA can be applied or broadened to alternative settings here alternative settings refer to contexts in which a conflict is not the topic of the discourse and finally to demonstrate that the scope of CDA can be broadened to include alternative settings      Palestinian Identity in Jordan and Israel Riad M. Nasser, 2013-04-15 This study examines the process of national identity formation It argues that national discourse are systems of meanings in which identities develop via difference
