Edward Gein Americas Most Bizarre Murderer:

Edward Gein, America's Most Bizarre Murderer Robert H. Gollmar, 1984 Murder in America Ronald M. Holmes, Stephen T. Holmes, 2001 This second edition of the best selling Murder in America examines both the common and unusual acts of homicide in light of society's changing norms, values, attitudes, and customs. The authors, Ronald and Stephen Holmes, have worked with numerous police departments on more than 300 murder and rape cases. The types of murders discussed in this text are ones not usually discussed in great lengths in other textbooks. Chapters deal with atypical and relatively bizarre homicide such as serial murder, mass murder, terrorism, and assassination. Also discussed are more common types of murder such as murder committed by children, murder of children, partner homicide, and workplace homicide. Each chapter explores a specific type of homicide by examining trends, methods, motives, statistics, and other descriptive information. New to this edition: Student Assignments at the end of each chapter; Discussion Questions at the end of each chapter; New chapters in this edition: Female Serial Killers, Intimates Who Kill, Parents Who Kill, Murder in the Workplace.

Murder Cases of the Twentieth Century David K. Frasier, 2024-10-14 From Jack Henry Abbott who stabbed a waiter through the heart for not allowing him to use the toilet to the Zodiac, an unknown California serial killer who may have murdered as many as 37 people, this reference work details 280 of the most famous murder cases of the twentieth century. Each entry contains, when applicable, birth and death dates, aliases, occupation, location of the murders, weapons used, number of victims, and the time period when the killings occurred. Films, plays, television shows, videos, and audio programs based on or inspired by the case are then cited, followed by a brief overview of the murder case and a bibliography of English language works related to it. Extreme Killing James Alan Fox, Jack Levin, 2014-04-15 Filled with contemporary and classic case studies, this fascinating overview of both serial and mass murder illustrates the many violent expressions of power, revenge, terror, greed, and loyalty. Throughout the book, renowned experts James Alan Fox and Jack Levin examine the theories of criminal behavior and apply them to a multitude of mass and serial murderers from around the world, such as Adam Lanza, Newtown, CT; James Holmes, Aurora, CO; Anders Breivik, Oslo, Norway; Charles Manson; Helter Skelter; and Dennis Rader, BTK. This fully updated Third Edition of Extreme Killing helps readers understand the commonalities and variations among multiple murders, addresses the characteristics of both killers and their victims, and in the concluding chapter, discusses the special concerns of multiple murder victims and their survivors. The Corpse Christine Quigley, 2015-09-17 Throughout the centuries, different cultures have established a variety of procedures for handling and disposing of corpses. Often, the methods are directly associated with the deceased's position in life, such as a pharaoh's mummification in Egypt or the cremation of a Buddhist. Treatment by the living of the dead over time and across cultures is the focus of this study. Burial arrangements and preparations are detailed, including embalming, the funeral service, storage, and transport of the body, and forms of burial. Autopsies and the investigative process of causes of deliberate death are fully covered. Preservation techniques such as cryonic suspension and mummification are discussed as well as a look at the recycling of the corpse through organ donation donation to medicine animal scavengers cannibalism and of course natural decay and decomposition Mistreatments of a corpse are also covered
