Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 1991. Cotswold Arts and Crafts Architecture Catherine Gordon, 2020-01-24. Between 1890 and 1930 Arts and Crafts architecture proliferated within the Cotswolds. The range and quality of the buildings was exceptional as the region provided the perfect environment for the Movement's ideals and principles to flourish. Arts and Crafts architects relished the robust vernacular precedent that served to focus their ideas and stimulate their creativity. Its rational basis and dependence on craft skills had lasting relevance, and it was no coincidence that the most influential aspect of their work was its emphasis on conservation. This new and updated paperback edition provides a guide to the general characteristics of Cotswold Arts and Crafts structures with chapters on the various types of new commissions to be found as well as repair and remodeling projects. The final chapter discusses the late flowering of Arts and Crafts work that occurred during the interwar period and beyond, and the legacy of this important body of work at a local and national level. A

Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 1990. Edwin Rickards Timothy Brittain-Catlin, 2023-11-01. Edwin Rickards was the most flamboyant of Edwardian architects; his buildings were said by John Summerson to 'fizz like champagne'. During a short working life launched at the age of 25 by winning the competition to design Cardiff City Hall with his partners H V Lanchester and James Stewart, he completed four spectacular baroque buildings. Rickards' work was unique in Edwardian architecture for his personal combination of French and especially Austrian sources. Working closely with H C Fehr and Henry Poole, leading practitioners of the New Sculpture, he designed two of the major monuments of the period. As well as being one of the best freehand draughtsmen in London, he was also a prodigious caricaturist. With a foot in the demi monde and an endless appetite for architectural and personal adventure, Rickards was an unforgettable figure to everyone who met him. Illustrated throughout with stunning new photography by Robin Forster and by Rickards' own sketches and drawings, this book portrays his close friendship with the novelist Arnold Bennett who described him along with H G Wells as one of the two most interesting provocative and stimulating men I have yet encountered and his meteoric career that ended with his early death
