Efforts At Truth:

Efforts at Truth Nicholas Mosley, 1995 Nicholas Mosley brings the unblinking probing of a scientist to bear on the workings of the writer's imagination. The result is a constantly stimulating frequently startling and always cheerfully unorthodox autobiography. As a novelist, biographer, editor, and screenwriter, Nicholas Mosley has always been concerned with the central paradox of writing: if by definition fiction is untrue and biography never complete, is there a form that will enable a writer to get at the truth of a life? In Efforts at Truth, Mosley scrutinizes his own life and work but examines them as a curious observer fascinated by the constant interaction of reality and the written word. As a life, it has been colorful in settings ranging from the West Indies to a remote Welsh hill farm, from war action in Italy to battles with Hollywood moguls, from the Colony Room to the House of Lords. In print, the range has been as wide: editor of a controversial religious magazine, author of the acclaimed novel series Catastrophe, screenwriter of his own work with Joe Losey and John Frankenheimer, biographer of his notorious father Oswald Mosley, and in 1990 winner of the Whitbread Award for his novel Hopeful Monsters. Efforts at Truth, Mosley's distinctive autobiography, brings together the singular life and intricate mind of an important multifaceted writer. An effort of truth &c. [an account by A. Collins of his quarrel with T. Bullock. Wanting the title-leaf].

Ambrose Collins, 1772 Truth, Denial and Transition Cheryl Lawther, 2018-10-08 Truth, Denial and Transition Northern Ireland and the Contested Past makes a unique and timely contribution to the transitional justice field. In contrast to the focus on truth and those societies where truth recovery has been central to dealing with the aftermath of human rights violations, comparatively little scholarly attention has been paid to those jurisdictions whose transition from violent conflict has been marked by the absence or rejection of a formal truth process. This book draws upon the case study of Northern Ireland where, despite a lengthy debate, the question of establishing a formal truth recovery process remains hotly contested. The strongest and most vocal opposition has been from unionist political elites, loyalist ex-combatants, and members of the security forces. Based on empirical research, their opposition is unpicked and interrogated at length throughout this book. Critically exploring notions of national imagination and blamelessness, the politics of victimhood, and the tension between traditions of sacrifice and the fear of betrayal, this book is the first substantive effort to concentrate on the opponents of truth recovery rather than its advocates. This book will interest those studying truth processes and transitional justice in the fields of Law, Politics, and Criminology. In Spirit and Truth Sylvia Sweeney, Kevin J. Moroney, Stephanie Budwey, Samuel Torvend, 2020-12-17 An invitation to a conversation about the direction of our worship life. The Anglican colloquium of the North American Academy of Liturgy acknowledged the need for a collection of insights to aid in the liturgical formation of the Episcopal Church as we move into liturgical revision. The volume's contributions have been shaped around the clauses of resolution A068, looking at the ways in which parishes and individuals can live into this time of revision and creativity. With a shared understanding of our deepest held Christian values, the editors look forward to what the future brings for our collective worship lives and our missional lives as bearers of Christ to a troubled and broken world This volume provides churches with tools for intelligent cogent accessible historical and theological conversation illuminating the way forward for the Episcopal branch of the Jesus movement Truth and Reconciliation in South Korea Jae-Jung Suh,2013-09-13 The Korean War is multiple wars Not only is it a war that began on 25 June 1950 but it is also a conflict that is rooted in Korea s colonial experiences postcolonial desires and frustrations and interventions and partitions imposed by outside forces In South Korea the war is a site of contestation Which war should be remembered and how should it be remembered The site has been overwhelmed by the Manichean official discourse that pits evil communists against innocent Koreans but the hegemonic project remains unfinished in the face of the resiliency embodied in the survivors who have withstood multiple killings by the state The historical significance of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Republic of Korea TRCK lies in its success in bringing back to life the voices of the silenced that complicate the hegemonic memory of the war as yugio the June 25th war At the same time the Commission embodies the structural dilemma that the effort to give voice to the silenced has turned to the state to redress the state s wrongdoings The TRCK as such stands on the problematic boundary between violence and post violence insecurity and security exception and normalcy Truth and reconciliation and human security are perhaps located in a process of defining and redefining the boundary This edited volume explores such political struggles for the future reflected in the TRCK s work on the past war that is still present This book was published as a special issue of Critical Asian Studies The Truth about Nature Bram Büscher,2020-12-15 How should we share the truth about the environmental crisis At a moment when even the most basic facts about ecology and the climate face contestation and contempt environmental advocates are at an impasse Many have turned to social media and digital technologies to shift the tide But what if their strategy is not only flawed but dangerous The Truth about Nature follows environmental actors as they turn to the internet to save nature It documents how conservation efforts are transformed through the political economy of platforms and the algorithmic feeds that have been instrumental to the rise of post truth politics Developing a novel account of post truth as an expression of power under platform capitalism Bram B scher shows how environmental actors attempt to mediate between structural forms of platform power and the contingent histories and contexts of particular environmental issues Bringing efforts at wildlife protection in Southern Africa into dialogue with a sweeping analysis of truth and power in the twenty first century B scher makes the case for a new environmental politics that radically reignites the art of speaking truth to power Truth in Testing Act of 1979, the Educational Testing Act of 1979 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Elementary, Secondary, and Vocational Education,1980 Searching for Truth in the Transitional Justice Movement Jamie Rowen,2017-08-11 Searching for Truth in the Transitional Justice Movement examines calls for a truth commission to redress the brutal war during the breakup of the former Yugoslavia the decades long armed conflict in Colombia and US detention policies in the War on Terror In so doing it argues that transitional justice is an idea around which a loosely structured movement emerged and professionalized making truth commissions a standard response to mass violence By exploring how this movement developed as well as efforts to make truth commissions in the Balkans Colombia and the US this book explains different processes through which political actors translate new legal ideas such as transitional justice into political action Further it reveals how the malleability of transitional justice and truth commissions is both an asset and a liability for those hoping to ensure accountability improve survivor well being and prevent future violence
