Hamada, 2017-05-26 This book covers the entire Nile Basin and reflects the latest findings It provides unique and cutting edge insights into the region's agriculture water resources governance poverty productivity upstream downstream linkages innovations future plans and their implications Many international summits and conferences have declared that there is an urgent need to save agriculture from its demise Most international agencies now recognize that something must be done but what Beyond policy changes the restructuring of global governance and institutional reforms are called for Commitments must be translated into concrete actions leading to a renewed interest in agriculture and a return to the basic objective of achieving food security Sudan's Wars and Peace Agreements Stephanie Beswick, Jay Spaulding, 2010-07-12 Originating from the 2008 27th annual conference of the Sudan Studies Association SSA of the same title these essays document and analyze Sudan's chronic history of conflict since independence in 1956 as well as its own and international efforts to bring an end to these conflicts As the country moves toward what some see as the inevitable separation of South Sudan in 2011 honoring the principle of self determination long fought for by southerners the lessons of six decades of a history of war and peace agreements is both telling and compelling This analysis is offered by the real experts on Sudan rather than the usual story offered by journalists and pundits In addition to an Introduction by the editors all founders or current or past presidents of the SSA the essays by Sudanese and non

Sudanese explore the often bitter history of North South relations and loss of life leading to the consideration of a range of options from a continuation of national unity under revised terms to federation or redivision to full separation of the South and the constitution of a new African state The role of the Khartoum government's pursuit of policies of Islamization and Islamism for a quarter of a century across multiple regimes is also treated The central question of constructing a sustainable peace irrespective of the outcome in 2011 is detailed along with the essential consideration of women and gender perspectives to sustain any peace negotiated This book is must reading in advance of or in response to the crucial events as they unfold in Sudan in 2011 and beyond

The Report: Egypt 2016 Oxford Business Group, 2016-01-13 The country's economic strengths include its large domestic market diversified economic base favourable trade relations with major partners such as the EU and geographic location As Egypt continues to rebuild its economy it faces a number of risks External challenges include regional unrest and a slowdown in exports due to muted global growth although the nation's limited exposure to Asian markets lends it some degree of protection The possibility of unrest also features in the domestic risk matrix and security remains a national concern Nevertheless Egypt's economy has continued to expand with the IMF forecasting GDP growth of roughly 4% for 2015 and 4.4% for 2016

Environmental Consequences of International Conflicts Aleksander V. Semenov, Igor S. Zonn, Andrey G. Kostianoy, Sergey S. Zhiltsov, Abdelazim Negm, 2025-01-23 This is the first of two volumes that taken together provide an integrated picture of the environmental consequences arising from international conflicts The volumes build upon the successful book Environmental Consequences of War and Aftermath published in The Handbook of Environmental Chemistry in 2009 The books focus on environmental consequences only and discuss land degradation erosion water scarcity and pollution water resources management air pollution desertification deforestation food scarcity and radioactive contamination among others This volume addresses conflicts in the MENA region Middle East and North Africa covering historical and more recent events such as water conflicts military conflicts migration and overpopulation and infrastructure projects Readers will also find several chapters in this book on the theory of international conflicts and their impact on the environment in general. Given its breadth, this book appeals to environmental scientists, policy makers, and researchers interested in the environmental impacts of international conflicts. A River Flows Through It Selina Ho, 2020-12-18. A River Flows Through It: A Comparative Study of Transboundary Water Disputes and Cooperation in Asia explores water disputes in Asia and addresses the question of how states sharing a river system can be incentivized to cooperate. Water scarcity is a major environmental, societal, and economic problem around the world. Increasing demand for water as a result of rapid economic development, high population growth, and density has depleted the world's water resources, leading to floods, droughts, environmental disasters, and societal displacement. Shared river basins are therefore often a source of tension and conflict between states. In regions where relations between countries have historically been conflictual, scarce river water resources have exacerbated tensions and have even sparked wars. Yet more often than not, states sharing a river basin are able to come to some form of agreement, whether they are far-reaching ones such as water sharing agreements or those that are more limited such as the sharing of hydrological data. Why do riparian states cooperate, especially when power asymmetries between upstream and downstream countries are characteristic of transboundary river basins? How do non-state actors affect the management of international rivers? What are the conditions that facilitate or hinder cooperation? This book wrestles with these questions by exploring water disputes and cooperation in the major river systems in Asia and by comparing them with cases in Africa, Europe, and the United States. This book will be of great value to scholars, students, and policymakers interested in transboundary water disputes and cooperation, hydro-diplomacy, and river activism. It was originally published as special issues of Water International.

Integration of Core Sustainable Development Goals in Rural Areas Abdelazim M. Negm, Zeina ElZein, 2024-07-18. This book addresses the application of the water-energy and food nexus in the MENA Region. It highlights the technologies and solutions to support the sustainable development of rural areas in the region. The first part provides an introduction and an overview of water-energy, food, climate change, and ecosystem interactions within the framework of sustainable development goals. The editors present a brief overview and highlights of the book's themes and chapters. The second part discusses current State and Security of the WEF Nexus in the MENA Region, addresses the role of water-energy and food nexus in sustainable development through reviewing case studies in the MENA Region that have followed an integrated nexus approach. The third part focuses on the integration within the Nexus for Rural Development, includes three chapters. It discusses analysis and assessment of the nexus through a quantitative index approach to consider the efficiency and security of resources, addresses territorial climate planning in water-scarce areas focusing on the Souss-Massa Region in Morocco, and discusses the Algerian food system and future scenarios through the lens of food and water challenges. The fourth part addresses the WEF Nexus and sustainable development solutions and technologies, exploration of an adaptation model for food security and water resources, water agricultural management practices, standardized hydraulic incident index.

to analyze hydraulic incidents and their impact on energy integrated management of natural resources in Egypt through the WEF nexus approach and ICT tools as a facilitator for collaborative governance of water resources in Mediterranean agriculture The fifth chapter focuses on sediment management in the context of climate change for the Fertile Crescent and Southwest Asia and the Nile River It also addresses haloculture as a climate change adaptation and mitigation solution that supports food security Finally the book presents key updates conclusions and recommendations from the book chapters The book is useful to researchers professionals practitioners post graduates and undergraduates who are interested in the field of sustainable development and water energy and food interaction Ethical Water Stewardship Ingrid Leman

Stefanovic,Zafar Adeel,2020-10-20 This interdisciplinary book brings philosophers and non philosophers to the table to address questions of water ethics specifically in terms of how moral questions inform decision making around water security at local national and international scales Water security which pertains to the experience of assured access to clean water is a broad concept that intersects human rights politics economics law legislation public health trade agriculture and energy Decisions made at each of these intersection points have ramifications for human well being especially for the populations that are marginalized in a societal and political sense In this book the ethical dimensions of decision making at those intersection points are explored and real world examples are used to tease out some key insights It charts how ethical consideration can help shape a future in which everyone will be water secure Water-Energy-Food Nexus P. Abdul Salam,Sangam Shrestha,Vishnu Prasad Pandey,Anil Kumar Anal,2017-07-12 Water energy and food are key resources to sustain life and are the fundamental to national regional and global economies These three resources are interlinked in multiple ways and the term nexus captures the interconnections The nexus has been discussed debated researched and advocated widely but the focus is often on the pairings of water energy or water food or energy food To really benefit from the nexus approach in terms of resource use efficiency it is essential to understand operationalize and practice the nexus of all three resources As demand for these resources increases worldwide using them sustainability is a critical concern for scientists and citizens governments and policy makers Volume highlights include Contributions to the global debate on water energy food nexus Examples of the nexus approach in practice from different regions of the world Perspectives on the future of the nexus agenda Water Energy Food Nexus Theories and Practices is a valuable resource for students research scholars and professionals in academic institutions with strong interests in interdisciplinary research involving geography earth science environmental science environmental management sustainability science international development and ecological economics The volume will also be useful for professionals practitioners and consultants in NGOs government and international agencies Read an interview with the editors to find out more <https://eos.org/editors-vox-working-towards-a-sustainable-future> Ethiopian Yearbook of International Law 2016 Zeray Yihdego,Melaku Gebeye Desta,Fikremarkos

Merso,2017-06-09 This first volume of EtYIL focuses on issues concerning the developing world in general and the Horn of Africa and Ethiopia specifically It argues that rebalancing the international law narrative to reflect Africa's legitimate interests is an urgent priority and can only succeed through the fair representation of African countries in the creation and interpretation of international law The book begins by reflecting on the ICJ's West African Cases and provides a unique perspective on decolonisation as a source of jus cogens and obligations erga omnes This is followed by a comprehensive analysis of the reception of international law in the Ethiopian legal system and of the potential implications of Ethiopia joining the WTO The book then delves into such topical issues as the relationship between competition for natural resources and international investment law the UN Global Goals and the fledgling international climate change regime with particular emphasis on the Paris Climate Agreement and their implications for developing countries Further issues include the Declaration of Principles on the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam signed by Ethiopia Sudan and Egypt in light of Nile colonial treaties and contemporary international watercourses law as well as selected legal implications of the armed conflict in South Sudan Gathering high quality scholarship from diverse researchers and examining a constellation of critical international law issues affecting developing countries especially African countries the book offers a unique resource
