Film Noir and the Spaces of Modernity Edward Dimendberg,2004-06-15 Exploring classic examples of film noir such as The Asphalt Jungle Double Indemnity and The Naked City alongside many lesser known works Dimendberg confirms that noir is not simply a reflection of modernity but a virtual continuation of the spaces of the metropolis

L.A. Noir William Hare,2008-02-07 Los Angeles is an ideal city for film noir for both economic and aesthetic reasons The largest metropolitan area in the country home to an ever changing population of the disillusioned and in close proximity to city mountains ocean and desert the City of Angels became a center of American film noir This detailed discussion of nine films explores such topics as why certain settings are appropriate for film noir why L A has been a favorite of authors such as Raymond Chandler and relevant political developments in the area The films are also examined in terms of story content as well as how they developed in the project stage Utilizing a number of quotes from interviews the work examines actors directors and others involved with the films touching on their careers and details of their time in L A The major films covered are The Big Sleep Criss Cross D O A In A Lonely Place The Blue Gardenia Kiss Me Deadly The Killing Chinatown and L A Confidential

Early Film Noir William Hare,2010-07-27 The name is French and it has connections to German expressionist cinema but film noir was inspired by the American Raymond Chandler whose prose was marked by the gripping realism of seedy hotels dimly lit bars main streets country clubs mansions cul de sac apartments corporate boardrooms and flop houses of America Chandler and the other writers and directors including James M Cain Dashiell Hammett Jane Greer Ken Annakin Rouben Mamoulian and Mike Mazurki who were primarily responsible for the creation of the film noir genre and its common plots and themes are the main focus of this work It correlates the rise of film noir with the new appetites of the American public after World War II and explains how it was developed by smaller studios and filmmakers as a result of the emphasis on quality within a deliberately restricted element of cities at night The author also discusses how RKO capitalized on films such as Murder My Sweet and Out of the Past two of film noir's most famous titles and film noir's connection to British noir and the great international triumph of Sir Carol Reed in The Third Man
