Four Tenths Of An Acre Reflections On A Gardening Life:

Four Tenths of an Acre Laurie Lisle,2005 A former journalist describes her passion for gardening and her efforts to transform the land surrounding a historic house in a pre Revolutionary Connecticut village into her own private Eden

Louise Nevelson Laurie Lisle, 2016-03-08 Louise Nevelson one of the most important American sculptors of the twentieth century was a beautiful woman who lived so audacious a life that by the time of her death she was a legend both inside and outside the art world Born Leah Berliawsky in Czarist Russia in 1899 she grew up in Maine ostracized as a Jew and a foreigner At twenty she escaped to Manhattan as Mrs Charles Nevelson eventually leaving her husband for a life devoted to art She lived and loved with lusty abandon often in poverty and obscurity until she finally achieved fame and fortune at sixty This biography of a monstre sacre is a tale of hard tacks heroism and heedless swipes at those who dared to love her said Interview magazine Nevelson found inspiration in cubism primitive art and her own unconscious creating a rich iconography of images With black white or gold paint and perfect placement she transformed old pieces of wood picked up on the street into powerful sculptures In later years she appeared in mink eyelashes and flamboyant costumes all the while going to her studio every day before dawn to add to the astonishing body of work now in collections of museums around the world Laurie Lisle interviewed Nevelson before the artist s death in 1988 as well as her lovers family members artist friends and many others This biography provides fascinating insights and information discovered in archives and public records letters and diaries and the artist's own prose and poetry Now in a revised e book edition Louise Nevelson A Passionate Life is the only biography of this important American sculptor It is impressive in its thoroughness which nonetheless results in good reading by virtue of its interweaving of personal and professional information its eclectic introduction of psychological analysis and a phraseology that appreciates both the pain and the joy surrounding Nevelson's eccentric behavior according to Woman's Art Journal God Gardened East Louis A. Ruprecht, 2008-01-01 Working within two popular genres gardening books and biblical meditations God Gardened East offers a meditation on the first twenty five chapters of Genesis emphasizing the tropes of cultivation wandering and the east Reconceived in a post 9 11 environment Ruprecht wrestles with difficult questions about the violent legacy of monotheism and traces some of this violence back to the foundational story of Abraham and his dislocation from his homeland Westover Laurie Lisle, 2012-01-01 Westover a girls school in Middlebury Connecticut was founded in 1909 by emancipated New Women educator Mary Hillard and architect Theodate Pope Riddle Landscape designer Beatrix Farrand did the plantings It has evolved from a finishing school for the Protestant elite including F Scott Fitzgerald's first love to a meritocracy for pupils of many religions and races from all over the world The fascinating account of the ups and downs of this female community is the subject of Laurie Lisle's lively and well researched book The author describes the innovations of the idealistic minister's daughter who founded the school in 1909 her intellectual successor who turned it into a college preparatory school in the 1930s the quiet headmaster who managed to keep it open during the turbulent 1970s and the prize winning mathematics teacher wife and mother who leads the high school today This beautifully illustrated book tells an important story about female education during decades of dramatic change in America
