Made Impossible Christian Smith, 2012-08-01 Biblicism an approach to the Bible common among some American evangelicals emphasizes together the Bible s exclusive authority infallibility clarity self sufficiency internal consistency self evident meaning and universal applicability Acclaimed sociologist Christian Smith argues that this approach is misguided and unable to live up to its own claims If evangelical biblicism worked as its proponents say it should there would not be the vast variety of interpretive differences that biblicists themselves reach when they actually read and interpret the Bible Far from challenging the inspiration and authority of Scripture Smith critiques a particular rendering of it encouraging evangelicals to seek a more responsible coherent and defensible approach to biblical authority This important book has generated lively discussion and debate The paperback edition adds a new chapter responding to the conversation that the cloth edition has sparked REASONING WITH THE WORLD'S VARIOUS RELIGIONS Edward D. Driven by God Jae-Eun Park, 2018-10-01 For more than two millennia believers have struggled with the antinomy of God's absolute sovereignty over and man's ultimate responsibility in justification and sanctification Theologians have used some version of the terms active justification and definitive sanctification in an attempt to illuminate this mystery However in the past decade scholars have begun to criticize these concepts saying that they are unsupported in Scripture lead to theological confusion and are of no practical benefit to believers Through the work of theologians from the broader Dutch Reformed tradition especially Herman Bavinck Alexander Comrie Herman Witsius and Abraham Kuyper Jae Eun Park demonstrates that the terms active justification and definitive sanctification are derived from Scripture and serve to clarify not obscure the doctrines of justification and sanctification In addition the book shows that neglect misuse or misunderstanding of the terms have resulted in contemporary criticisms that are unconvincing and unfounded Writings of the aforementioned theologians define and expound four characteristics held in common between active justification and definitive sanctification i.e inseparability objectivity and decisiveness Christ centeredness and God's absolute sovereignty concepts of the mentioned theologians All four characteristics of active justification and definitive sanctification emphasize the God driven nature of salvation Jae Eun Park explains how when properly defined and presented the two terms are important theologically bringing clarity to the issue of the perfect balance between God's sovereignty and human responsibility in salvation He also shows how active justification and definitive sanctification offers practical assurance of their perseverance unto glory to true believers and provides pastors with an invaluable tool for exhorting parishioners who may have lapsed into either triumphalism or defeatism The Christian Delusion John W.
