Four Dan Sculptors Continuity And Change:

Four Dan Sculptors Barbara C. Johnson, 1986 Four Dan Sculptors Barbara C. Johnson, 1986-09-01 Questions of Tradition Mark Salber Phillips, Mark Phillips, Gordon J. Schochet, 2004-01-01 Tradition is a central concern for a wide range of academic disciplines interested in problems of transmitting culture across generations Yet the concept itself has received remarkably little analysis A substantial literature has grown up around the notion of invented tradition but no clear concept of tradition is to be found in these writings since the very notion of invented tradition presupposes a prior concept of tradition and is empty without one this debunking usage has done as much to obscure the idea as to clarify it In the absence of a shared concept the various disciplines have created their own vocabularies to address the subject Useful as they are these specialized vocabularies of which the best known include hybridity canonicity diaspora paradigm and contact zones separate the disciplines and therefore necessarily create only a collection of parochial and disjointed approaches Until now there has been no concerted attempt to put the various disciplines in conversation with one another around the problem of tradition Combining discussions of the idea of tradition by major scholars from a variety of disciplines with synoptic synthesizing essays Questions of Tradition will initiate a renewal of interest in this vital subject Dan Ge Performance Daniel B. Reed, 2003-08-21 An excellent study of both the visible and invisible elements that constitute the Ge performance of the Dan People of western Côte d'Ivoire The World of Music Ge formerly translated as mask or masquerade appears among the Dan people of Côte d'Ivoire as a dancing and musical embodiment of their social ideals and religious beliefs In Dan Ge Performance Daniel B Reed sets out to discover what resides at the core of Ge He finds that Ge is defined as part of a religious system a form of entertainment an industry a political tool an instrument of justice and a form of resistance and it can take on multiple roles simultaneously He sees genui pl dancing the latest dance steps co-opting popular music and acting in concert with Ivorian authorities to combat sorcery Not only are the bounds of traditional performance stretched but Ge performance becomes a strategy for helping the Dan to establish individual and community identity in a world that is becoming more religiously and ethnically diverse Readers interested in all aspects of expressive culture in West Africa will find fascinating material in this rich and penetrating book The Artist Himself in African Art Studies Sam Vangheluwe, 2001 Abidjan USA Daniel B. Reed, 2016-09-24 Studies of four musicians and a broader discussion about diaspora and migration provides an important study of African music in the United States Alex Perullo author of Live from Dar es Salaam Daniel B Reed integrates individual stories with the study of performance to understand the forces of diaspora and mobility in the lives of musicians dancers and mask performers originally from Côte d'Ivoire who now live in the United States Through the lives of four Ivorian performers Reed finds that dance and music being transportable media serve as effective ways to understand individual migrants in the world today As members of an immigrant community who are geographically dispersed these performers are unmoored from their place of origin and yet deeply engaged in presenting their symbolic roots to North American audiences By looking at performance Reed shows how translocation has led to transformations on stage but he is also sensitive to how performance acts as a way to reinforce and maintain community Abidjan USA provides a multifaceted view of community that is at once local national and international and where identity is central but transportable fluid and adaptable Daniel B Reed s scholarship is solid and his writing style is thoroughly engaging The topic is novel there are fascinating twists and turns throughout Eric Charry editor of Hip Hop Africa This study s attention to the intersection of lived experiences with wider historical events and social formations as well as the author s careful analysis of Ivorian ballet and the dances and drum rhythms that constitute the genre make Abidjan USA an important intervention in ethnomusicology and folklore Journal of American Folklore Kahlil Joseph and the Audiovisual Atlantic Joe Jackson,2024-07-11 It s wonderful to read a book that ranges across music cinema music video art and literature with such ease One of the beautiful things about this book is that it is really attentive to relationships and this is particularly clear when talking about Kahlil Joseph s creative mentors and comrades including Arthur Jafa and Terrence Malick Tsitsi Ella Jaji Helen S Bevington Associate Professor of Modern Poetry Associate Professor of African American Studies Duke University USA Kahlil Joseph has collaborated with musicians FKA twigs Flying Lotus Sampha and Shabazz Palaces among many others He has directed numerous films music videos and advertisements across Africa America and Europe The award winning filmmaker s disruptive style which frequently merges visual representations of transcontinental experiences with the countercultural energies of Afrodiasporic music challenges the Eurocentric biases underpinning Western media At the same time his works generate various contradictions and tensions because they are themselves products situated within an economic framework of neoliberal capitalism at once offering alternative ways of being while simultaneously participating in and thereby sustaining the social structures that they otherwise seek to subvert and dismantle This is the first book length study of Kahlil Joseph s work Distinguishing the artist s personal and professional personas it traces Joseph s career trajectory and artistic output emphasizing how the director s construction of a multifaceted filmmaking persona operates in tandem with his artworks to challenge fixed unidimensional or stable notions of identity Through biographical study and deep examinations of the director s respective transmedia artworks this book draws from various discussions shaped by Paul Gilroy s ground breaking text The Black Atlantic 1993 By applying The Black Atlantic s disruptive audiocentric ideas to contemporary digital media forms generated by Kahlil Joseph and his peers alike this book challenges the latent Eurocentricity on which dominant theorizations of modernity as well as the overlapping fields of Film Media and Screen Studies are grounded In turn it offers an alternative framework for negotiating the paradoxes contradictions and transnational flows of our media saturated present namely the Audiovisual Atlantic This book has been selected as runner up for Best First Monograph 2025 by BAFTSS British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies The Death of Authentic Primitive Art Shelly Errington,2023-09-01 In this lucid witty and forceful book Shelly Errington argues that

Primitive Art was invented as a new type of art object at the beginning of the twentieth century but that now at the century's end it has died a double but contradictory death. Authenticity and primitivism both attacked by cultural critics have died as concepts. At the same time the penetration of nation states, the tourist industry and transnational corporations into regions that formerly produced these artifacts has severely reduced supplies of primitive art, bringing about a second death. Errington argues that the construction of the primitive in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the kinds of objects chosen to exemplify it must be understood as a product of discourses of progress from the nineteenth century European narrative of technological progress to the twentieth century narrative of modernism to the late twentieth century narrative of the triumph of the free market. In Part One she charts a provocative argument ranging through the worlds of museums, art theorists, mail order catalogs, boutiques, tourism and world events, tracing a loosely historical account of the transformations of meanings of primitive art in this century. In Part Two she explores an eclectic collection of public sites in Mexico and Indonesia: a national museum of anthropology, a cultural theme park, an airport and a ninth century Buddhist monument newly refurbished to show how the idea of the primitive can be used in the interests of promoting nationalism and economic development. Errington's dissection of discourses about progress and primitivism in the contemporary world is both a lively introduction to anthropological studies of art institutions and a dramatic new contribution to the growing field of cultural studies.

Art and Architecture of the World's Religions Leslie D. Ross, 2009-06-04 Two abundantly illustrated volumes offer a vibrant discussion of how the divine is and has been represented in art and architecture the world over. Beginning with the ancient worlds of Mesopotamia, Egypt, Greece and Rome and moving forward through time, Art and Architecture of the World's Religions explores the major faiths from countries and continents around the globe, helping readers better understand the creations their beliefs have inspired. After tracing the history and development of a religion, the book provides a general overview of its principal beliefs and key practices. It then offers specific examples of how works of art, architecture reflect that religion's values. The focus of each chapter is on the temples, churches and religious buildings, statues, paintings and other works of art and architecture created by believers. Each representative work of art or architecture is examined in terms of its history, materials, symbols, colors and patterns as its significance is explained to the reader. With extensive illustrations, these volumes are the definitive reference work on art and architecture of the world's religions.
