Dostoevsky, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, and Kafka William Hubben, 1962 How four of Europe's most mysterious and fascinating writers shaped the modern mind Dostoevsky Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Kafka were all outsiders in their societies unable to fit into the accepted nineteenth century categories of theology philosophy or belles lettres Instead they saw themselves both as the end products of a dying civilization and as prophets of the coming chaos of the twentieth century In this brilliant combination of biography and lucid exposition their apocalyptic visions of the future are woven together into a provocative portrait of modernity

Goebel,Clayton Koelb,2005-08-30 Known for depicting alienation frustration and the victimization of the individual by impenetrable bureaucracies Kafka s works have given rise to the term Kafkaesque This encyclopedia details Kafka s life and writings Included are more than 800 alphabetically arranged entries on his works characters family members and acquaintances themes and other topics Most of the entries cite works for further reading and the Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography      F. M. Dostoevsky Miriam T. Šajkovic,Miriam T. Šajković,2016-11-11 Dostoevsky is the unrivaled and perspicacious seer of the human mind and heart he emerges as a great friend and teacher of humanity He has dearly read the signs of our times for he lived through the agonizing doubts and despairs of our present spiritual crisis His sincerity his spiritual heroism and his moral courage have never been questioned With these words the author of the present work Miriam T ajkovi begins her initial attempt to acquaint American readers with Dostoevsky s philosophy of education The views of Dostoevsky on educational problems in his own time have been historically explored by ajkovi in relation to nineteenth century Russia and the events which shaped its attitudes and customs The author has studied the central aspects of Dostoevsky s system in order to extract from them a contribution toward the formulation of a philosophy of education suitable for the present time ajkovi proposes that a new synthesis of Dostoevsky s thought and contemporary American pedagogy be effected for the purpose of reinstating serious reflection upon modern morals and religion The book contains an annotated bibliography conveniently divided into sections according to various high school reading levels selections from his letters arranged under topic headings a chronological table of his works and a master bibliography of primary and secondary sources A unique and valuable contribution to both philosophy of education and Dostoevsky commentary Dostoevsky His Image of Man will be of lasting worth to professional educators in particular as well as students of literature in general      Crime and Punishment Laura Cremonini,2021-01-04 We would like to point out that most of the texts included in this work come freely from the Internet and can be found on Wikipedia Then the question arises why buy it The answer is simple It is a painstaking work of assembly with a specific search for images these for example you can t find them on Wikipedia that completes the work in order to make it unique and not repeatable in its structure In short a work that while coming from the work of others is transformed into a unicum assuming its own logical form which is to describe In addition the work has been enriched with numerous images that you cannot find on wikipedia Book content Crime and Punishment Background Plot 6part Epilogue Major characters Other characters Structure Themes Style Symbolism Dreams The environment of Saint Petersburg Reception English translations Adaptations Fyodor Dostoevsky Ancestry Childhood 1821 1835 Youth 1836 1843 Career Early career 1844 1849 Siberian exile 1849 1854 Release from prison and first marriage 1854 1866 Second marriage and honeymoon 1866 1871 Back in Russia 1871 1875 Last years 1876 1881 Death Personal life Extramarital affairs Political beliefs Racial beliefs Religious beliefs Themes and style Legacy Reception and influence Honours Criticism Reputation Works

Philosophy and Kafka Brendan Moran, Carlo Salzani, 2013-04-19 The relationship of philosophy with Kafka's oeuvre is complex It has been argued that Kafka's novels and stories defy philosophic extrapolation conversely it has also been suggested that precisely the tendency of Kafka's writings to elude discursive solution is itself a philosophical tendency one that is somehow contributing to a wiser relationship of human beings with language These matters are the focus of the proposed volume on Philosophy and Kafka The proposed collection brings together essays that interrogate the relationship of philosophy and Kafka and offer new and original interpretations The volume obviously cannot claim completeness but it partially does justice to the multiplicity of philosophical issues and philosophical interpretations at stake This variety informs the composition of the volume itself A number of essays focus on specific philosophical commentaries on Kafka's work from Adorno's to Agamben's from Arendt's to Benjamin's from Deleuze and Guattari's to Derrida's A number of essays consider the possible relevance of certain philosophical outlooks for examining Kafka's writings here Kafka's name goes alongside those of Socrates Kant Kierkegaard Nietzsche Wittgenstein Buber Heidegger Blanchot and Levinas Finally a number of essays consider Kafka's writings in terms of a specific philosophical theme such as communication and subjectivity language and meaning knowledge and truth the human animal divide justice and freedom In all contributions to the volume such themes motifs and interpretations arise To varying degrees all essays are concerned with the relationship of literature and philosophy and thus with the philosophical significance of Kafka's writings

Søren Kierkegaard's Journals and Papers Søren Kierkegaard, 1975 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1952 Includes Part 1A Books Søren Kierkegaard Literature, 1956-2006 Aage Jørgensen, 2009 This bibliography on Søren Kierkegaard carries on the work of Jens Himmelstrup's international bibliography 1962 It collates everything written about Kierkegaard books contributions to edited collections and journals and also features an appendix of primary text editions and translations Discussion notes reviews etc are catalogued according to the items they refer to The bibliography contains more than 5 600 primary entries and is a testament to the expanding worldwide interest in the Danish philosopher It also remedies the deeply felt need for a collected overview of the extensive literature on Kierkegaard

Sin and Redemption Harold Bloom, Blake Hobby, 2010 The allied themes of sin and redemption are at the heart of many classics of religious literature and even secular writers feel compelled to explore the role of sin and redemption in such works as King Lear Moby Dick Paradise Lost The Portrait of a Lady The Waste Land and many more works Featuring original essays and excerpts from previously published critical analyses this addition to the

Bloom's Literary Themes series gives students valuable insight into the title's subject theme Dostoevsky, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche and Kafka William Hubben, 1997 Volume 19, Tome VI: Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter Šajda, Jon Stewart, 2017-03-16 The long tradition of Kierkegaard studies has made it impossible for individual scholars to have a complete overview of the vast field of Kierkegaard research. The large and ever increasing number of publications on Kierkegaard in the languages of the world can be simply bewildering even for experienced scholars. The present work constitutes a systematic bibliography which aims to help students and researchers navigate the seemingly endless mass of publications. The volume is divided into two large sections. Part I which covers Tomes I-V is dedicated to individual bibliographies organized according to specific language. This includes extensive bibliographies of works on Kierkegaard in some 41 different languages. Part II which covers Tomes VI-VII is dedicated to shorter individual bibliographies organized according to specific figures who are in some way relevant for Kierkegaard. The goal has been to create the most exhaustive bibliography of Kierkegaard literature possible and thus the bibliography is not limited to any specific time period but instead spans the entire history of Kierkegaard studies Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter Šajda, 2017
