Fourteen Hills Vol 12 No 1 Winterspring 2006:

Fourteen Hills ,2006 The Five Percenter Michael Muhammad Knight,2013-10-01 From Malcolm X to the Wu Tang Clan the first in depth account of this fascinating black power movement With a cast of characters ranging from Malcolm X to 50 Cent Knight s compelling work is the first detailed account of the movement inextricably linked with black empowerment Islam New York and hip hop Whether discussing the stars of Five Percenter rap or 1980s crack empires this fast paced investigation uncovers the community s icons and heritage and examines its growing influence in urban American youth culture Vertigo Martha Clare Ronk,2007 A melancholy visionary meditation on the mysteries and uncertainties of memory Between Loving and Leaving Jon K. Lauck,2025-09-30 Between Loving and Leaving reveals the depth and breadth of this revived field showcasing its variety and reach cultivating new approaches and opening the way to the extraordinary range of topics embraced by a true history of the Midwest Playhouse to Powerhouse Kerry Goldmann,2025-09-29 The rise of Black cultural nationalism in the 1960s came with resounding promises of assertive new methods to achieve Black liberation in America especially through art Nowhere were these efforts more impactful or lasting than in the Black theatres founded or led by Black women between 1960 and 1990 Prior to the 1960s most Black theatre was barred from mainstream white venues limiting public access Black artistic and economic opportunity and cultural ownership Playhouse to Powerhouse Locating Black Power Women and Their Movement in the Black Theatre examines the revolutionaries who brought about this change merging arts and entrepreneurship to embed theatres in Black communities from California to New York to Texas In Playhouse to Powerhouse Kerry L Goldmann explores the Black theatre movement through the lens of three significant women led theatres that are still in operation today Nora Vaughn s Black Repertory Group in Berkeley Barbara Ann Teer s National Black Theatre in Harlem and George Hawkins and Eileen Morris s Ensemble Theatre in Houston Goldmann concludes with a discussion of the current moment examining contemporary obstacles such as gentrification the co opting of Black theatres and the impact of COVID 19 This remarkable work sheds light on the foundational role that Vaughn Teer and Morris played in the Black cultural revolution of the mid to late twentieth century securing theatre houses that thrived in multiple capacities as sites for revolution organizing revenue generation for communal uplift and unapologetic Black cultural representation Philosophy and Allotment : John Locke's influence on Henry L. Dawes David Bergeron,2020-01-06 This book provides a new perspective for examining the Native policies of the late nineteenth century It centers on the figure of Henry Laurens Dawes and more specifically on the conceptual roots of his views on allotment education and assimilation These roots are grounded in John Locke s epistemology and pedagogy Through a philosophical analysis of Dawes ideas and policies the book provides a new approach to arrive at a better understanding of an important historical process In this regard an often overlooked link between philosophy and history is clarified helping philosophers historians and other scholars in their quest for knowledge This book clarifies the impact of philosophical ideas on historical conceptions and by studying Dawes also addresses the reflection behind a major historical process Political and social philosophers as well as historians of ideas and of Native policies will greatly benefit from this concise book Russian Security Strategy Under Putin R. Craig Nation, Dmitrii Trenin, 2007 Increasingly the armed forces and a vision of security as emphasizing hard rather than soft security have come to the fore in Moscow's national security policy process Due to this institutionally driven vision Russia sees itself facing increasing military political and strategic threats all along its frontiers Recent Russian policies reflect that perception and Moscow's adaptation to it We may think this threat perception to be misguided even bizarrely misconceived given our own beliefs about what American policy is and what its goals are Nevertheless the strongest forces in the Russian policy community have bought into that vision and have made policy accordingly Therefore the key point that readers should take as they read these papers together is that Russian and American perspectives and policies are mutually interactive They do not take place in a strategic vacuum devoid of all context and develop to a considerable degree in response to the other side's activities and rhetoric Neither we nor Russia can act in disregard of the fact that our actions have consequences and that other state actors in Eurasia as elsewhere also have a vote in shaping the context of international affairs and in the day to day conduct of U S and Russian national security policy expansion and the machinations of settler colonialism Contemporary Piracy and Maritime Terrorism Martin N. Murphy, 2013-05-13 Do piracy and maritime terrorism individually or together present a threat to international security and what relationship if any exists between them Piracy may be a marginal problem in itself but the connections between organised piracy and wider criminal networks and corruption on land make it an element of a phenomenon that can have a weakening effect on states and a destabilising one on the regions in which it is found Furthermore it is also an aspect of a broader problem of disorder at sea that exacerbated by the increasing pressure on littoral waters from growing numbers of people and organisations seeking to exploit maritime resources encourages maritime criminality and gives insurgents and terrorists the freedom to operate In this context maritime terrorism though currently only a low level threat has the potential to spread and become more effective in the event of political change on land It is only by addressing the issue of generalised maritime disorder that the problems of piracy and maritime terrorism may be controlled in the long term The Local Historian ,2007 The Cinema of Muhammad Malas Samirah Alkassim, Nezar Andary, 2018-06-28 This book provides an in depth and intimate study of the cinema of Muhammad Malas One of the well known auteurs of Arab and Syrian cinema Malas s distinctive cinematic project has always confronted the social and political issues of his time From feature films Dreams of the City The Night Bab al Maqam Passion and Ladder to Damascus to documentaries such as The Dream and Aleppo Maqamat of Pleasure Malas s films challenge and explore Arab culture and history Archival images run through the chapters of this book which combines insightful interviews with excerpts from Malas s literary works and critical explorations of his cinematic style and thematic concerns The book concludes with Malas s own words sharing the treatment of his film project Cinema al Dunya Illinois Documents List ,2006 Neocharismatic Leadership Ghadah T. Angawi, 2020-10-03 This book introduces the theory of Neocharismatic leadership through a conceptual framework based on research and literature review This is followed by a gradient of leadership developmental sessions In the folds the sessions transcend the leaders to the Neocharismatic leadership model application through a set of ten behavioral roles across 3 stages In total the book comprises of 32 self coaching sessions that can be conducted by leaders themselves or by other coaches who work with leaders This all comes alongside explanations connotations and stories of success The sessions allow leaders to connect with global and ethical issues and align them with their purpose In essence the book addresses in its folds the ethical and moral leadership behavior in modern organizations as they interact with stakeholders and make strategic transformational decisions that can affect the global community African Research & Documentation ,2007 The Art of the Sister Chapel Andrew Hottle, 2017-07-05 The Sister Chapel 1974-78 was an important collaborative installation that materialized at the height of the women s art movement Conceived as a nonhierarchical secular commemoration of female role models The Sister Chapel consisted of an eighteen foot abstract ceiling that hung above a circular arrangement of eleven monumental canvases each depicting the standing figure of a heroic woman The choice of subject was left entirely to the creator of each work As a result the paintings formed a visually cohesive group without compromising the individuality of the artists Contemporary and historical women deities and conceptual figures were portrayed by distinguished New York painters Alice Neel May Stevens and Sylvia Sleigh as well as their accomplished but less prominent colleagues Among the role models depicted were Artemisia Gentileschi Frida Kahlo Betty Friedan Joan of Arc and a female incarnation of God Although last exhibited in 1980 The Sister Chapel has lingered in the minds of art historians who continue to note its significance as an exemplar of feminist collaboration Based on previously unpublished archival materials and featuring dozens of rarely seen works of art this comprehensive study details the fascinating history of The Sister Chapel its constituent paintings and its ambitious creators

Afghanistan and Central Asia: NATO's Role in Regional Security since 9/11 Oktay Tanrisever, 2013-02-15 Instability in Afghanistan has had a considerable effect on regional security in Central Asia particularly in the aftermath of the events of 9 11 and this has meant that the importance of NATO and its contribution to security in this area has increased considerably A detailed analysis of this topic is precisely important because it could highlight the areas where the Central Asian countries could increase their security contributions to Afghanistan s security through enhancing their cooperation with NATO This book presents the fully revised and updated versions of papers presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW NATO the Fight against International Terrorism in Afghanistan and Security Situation in Central Asia since 9 11 held in Ankara Turkey in April 2011 This ARW was supported by the NATO Science for Peace and Security Programme The book takes a comprehensive approach to the regional security complex in Central Asia by emphasizing the human security socio political and energy dimensions in addition to the traditional military dimension of the fight against international terrorism in and around Afghanistan The findings of the book enhance our understanding of the root causes of international terrorism and the effective ways of coping with the security challenges in this region The book is divided into five parts First NATO s Contribution to Lasting Security in Afghanistan Second Responses of the Central Asian States to Political Instability Organized Crime and International Terrorism in Afghanistan Third Energy Security in and around Central Asia Fourth International Competition and Co operation over Afghanistan and Central Asia and Last but not least Regional Security Organizations and the Fight against International Terrorism in Afghanistan

Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1980 Globalization and Conflict Robert G. Patman, 2006-08-10 This volume highlights the gap between the new security environment and the notion of state centred national security favoured by Washington showing how a Cold War phenomenon known as the national security state in which defence and foreign policy interests essentially converge remains largely intact The conventional wisdom since the suicide attacks of 9 11 is that the world has been transformed and according to President Bush September 11 changed the strategic thinking of the US This book challenges these assumptions Indeed the Bush administration s National Security strategy of 2002 has reinvigorated and even extended the idea of national security Paradoxically the renewed emphasis on a distinctly state centred approach to security including the War on Terror has unfolded during an era of deepening globalization Drawing on the international expertise of fourteen specialists the book examines four inter related themes the impact of globalization on the concept of security the strategic outlook of the world s only superpower the US the new conflicts that have come to characterize the post Cold War era efforts to regulate the emerging patterns of conflict in the world Globalization and Conflict will be essential reading for students of strategic studies security studies and international relations
