Fractured Bonds A Foster Mothers Journal:

Fractured Bonds Claudia A. Niemeyer, 2001-09-19 This book relates some of our experiences during 30 years as foster parents The reality of what these children endured before and after placement in the foster care system is heartbreaking After all these years my husband Ron and I cling stubbornly to our belief that time and man can change but God and truth will not My goal is to inform the public about the foster care system I hope to sound the alarm loud and clear that the current foster care system is not working I want to bring attention to the powerless children within the system being tossed about in the waves of loophole laws uninformed policy makers non committed decision makers and non motivated and often disinterested birth parents Court mandated and enforced accountability must take place at all levels involved Shattered Bonds Dorothy Roberts, 2009-02-23 The story of foster care in the United States is the story of the failure of the social safety net to aid poor largely black parents in their attempt to make a home for their children Shattered Bonds tells this story as no other book has before from the perspective of a prominent black female legal theoretician The current state of the child welfare system in America is a well known tragedy Thousands of children every year are removed from their parents homes often for little reason other than the endemic poverty that afflicts women and children more than any other group in the United States Dorothy Roberts an acclaimed legal scholar and social critic reveals the racial politics of child welfare in America through extensive legal research and original interviews with Chicago families in the foster care system She describes the racial imbalance in foster care the concentration of state intervention in certain neighborhoods the alarming percentages of children in substitute care the difficulty that poor and black families have in meeting state s standards for regaining custody of children placed in foster care and the relationship between state supervision of families and continuing racial inequality Death, Society, and Human Experience Robert Kastenbaum, Christopher M. Moreman, 2018-03-29 Providing an overview of the myriad ways that we are touched by death and dying both as an individual and as a member of society this book will help readers understand our relationship with death Kastenbaum and Moreman show how various ways that individual and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss This landmark text draws on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities such as history religion philosophy literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage of understanding death and the dying process Death Society and Human Experience was originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world s first death education courses Christopher Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for almost two decades specializing in afterlife beliefs and experiences has updated this edition The Student's Journal, 1904 Necessary Losses Judith Viorst, 2010-05-11 From grief and mourning to aging and relationships poet and Redbook contributor Judith Viorst presents a thoughtful and researched study in this examination of love loss and letting go Drawing on psychoanalysis literature and personal experience Necessary Losses is a philosophy for understanding and accepting life s inevitable In Necessary Losses Judith Viorst turns her considerable talents to a serious and far reaching subject how we grow and change through the losses that are a certain and necessary part of life She argues persuasively that through the loss of our mothers protection the loss of the impossible expectations we bring to relationships the loss of our younger selves and the loss of our loved ones through separation and death we gain deeper perspective true maturity and fuller wisdom about life She has written a book that is both life affirming and life changing Confronting the Racist Legacy of the American Child Welfare System Alan J. Dettlaff,2023 In Confronting the Racist Legacy of the American Child Welfare System Alan J Dettlaff presents a call to abolish the American child welfare system due to the harm and destruction it causes Black families Dettlaff provides evidence of the vast harms that result from family separations and placement in foster care to make a case that the child welfare system is beyond reform Rather the only solution to ending this harm is complete abolition of the child welfare system and a fundamental reimagining of the way society cares for children and families The New Zealand Law Journal ,1985 For Dear Life Carol Jacobsen,2019-02-11 For Dear Life chronicles feminist and artist Carol Jacobsen s deep commitment to the causes of justice and human rights and focuses a critical lens on an American criminal legal regime that imparts racist gendered and classist modes of punishment to women lawbreakers Jacobsen s tireless work with and for women prisoners is charted in this rich assemblage of images and texts that reveal the collective strategies she and the prisoners have employed to receive justice The book gives evidence that women s lawbreaking is often an effort to survive gender based violence The faces letters and testimonies of dozens of incarcerated women with whom Jacobsen has worked present a visceral yet politicized chorus of voices against the criminal legal systems that fail us all Their voices are joined by those of leading feminist scholars in essays that illuminate the arduous methods of dissent that Jacobsen and the others have employed to win freedom for more than a dozen women sentenced to life imprisonment and to free many more from torturous prison conditions The book is a document to Jacobsen s love and lifelong commitment to creating feminist justice and freedom and to the efficacy of her artistic legal and extralegal political actions on behalf of women
