Grace after Genocide Carol A. Mortland, 2017-05-01 Grace after Genocide is the first comprehensive ethnography of Cambodian refugees charting their struggle to transition from life in agrarian Cambodia to survival in post-industrial America while maintaining their identities as Cambodians. The ethnography contrasts the lives of refugees who arrived in America after 1975 with their focus on Khmer traditions, values, and relations with those of their children, who as descendants of the Khmer Rouge catastrophe have struggled to become Americans in a society that defines them as different. The ethnography explores America's mid-twentieth-century involvement in Southeast Asia and its enormous consequences on multiple generations of Khmer refugees.

The Vagina: A Literary and Cultural History Emma L. E. Rees, 2013-08-01 From South Park to Kathy Acker and from Lars Von Trier to Sex and the City, women's sexual organs are demonized. Rees traces the fascinating evolution of this demonization, considering how calling the c-word obscene both legitimates and perpetuates the fractured identities of women globally. Rees demonstrates how writers, artists, and filmmakers contend with the dilemma of the vagina's puzzlingly covert visibility. In our postmodern, porn-obsessed culture, vaginas appear to be everywhere, literally or symbolically, but crucially, they are as silenced as they are objectified. The Vagina: A Literary and Cultural History examines the paradox of female genitalia through five fields of artistic expression: literature, film, TV, visual, and performance art. There is a peculiar paradox unlike any other regarding female genitalia: Rees focuses on this paradox of what is termed the covert visibility of the vagina and on its monstrous manifestations. That is what happens when the female body refuses to be pathologized, eroticized, or rendered subordinate to the will or intention of another. Common and often offensive slang terms for the vagina can be seen as an attempt to divert attention away from the reality of women's lived sexual experiences such that we don't look at the vagina itself. Slang offers a convenient distraction to something so taboo. The Vagina: A Literary and Cultural History is an important contribution to the ongoing debate in understanding the feminine identity.

Child Slavery Now Gary Craig, 2010 Around 210 million children are still in slavery today. This groundbreaking book shows why they remain locked in slavery, the ways in which they are exploited, and how they can be emancipated. It also reminds us that all consumers are implicated in modern childhood slavery.

Inside War Fabio Armao, 2016-02-22 The post-Cold War era was characterised by both the recurrence of state wars and the spread of forms of organised violence other than wars.

Asymmetric warfare between alliances led by the USA and groups of insurgents such as those witnessed in Afghanistan and Iraq coexist alongside domestic conflicts such as that of former Yugoslavia and more recently Libya and Syria and still other conflicts involving gangs mafias or narco traffickers The massive military industrial complexes conceived in the context of the threat of nuclear Armageddon are still there of course but they now coexist with irregular armies of insurgents carrying out massacres through the use of light weapons and improvised explosives devices This book oppose the idea that this situation prefigures the return to an anarchical pre political condition by assuming that new wars are rather the product of the blurring of the public private divide induced by the end of the Cold War together with globalisation As a consequence also the internal and external factors are blurred and ever more permeable and elusive is becoming even the border between war and crime Inside War goes beyond a state centered analysis and adopts an interdisciplinary and multilayered approach and is intended to foster the dialogue among researchers from different fields It places war at the core of analysis assuming that the reality of war is what we make of it and that the only insurmountable limit to our comprehension of war is our way of knowing and representing it Fabio Armao teaches courses in Politics and Globalisation Processes and Criminal Systems He has been Visiting Professor at Cornell University and co convenor of the Standing Group on Organized Crime European Consortium for Political Research Founding member of T wai Torino World Affair Institute he is also member of the Editorial Board of Global Crime His research interests and publications focus on international wars and geopolitics on violent non state actors and transnational organised crime and on urban security

(Re)Constructing Memory: Education, Identity, and Conflict Michelle J. Bellino,James H. Williams,2017-02-08 How do schools protect young people and call on the youngest citizens to respond to violent conflict and division operating outside and sometimes within school walls What kinds of curricular representations of conflict contribute to the construction of national identity and what kinds of encounters challenge presumed boundaries between us and them Through contemporary and historical case studies drawn from Cambodia Egypt Northern Ireland Peru and Rwanda among others this collection explores how societies experiencing armed conflict and its aftermath imagine education as a space for forging collective identity peace and stability and national citizenship In some contexts the erasure of conflict and the homogenization of difference are central to shaping national identities and attitudes In other cases collective memory of conflict functions as a central organizing frame through which citizenship and national identity are re constructed with embedded messages about who belongs and how social belonging is achieved The essays in this volume illuminate varied and complex inter relationships between education conflict and national identity while accounting for ways in which policymakers teachers youth and community members replicate resist and transform conflict through everyday interactions in educational spaces
