Fragile Beauty:

Fragile Beauty Sandy Puckett, 1993-06-01      Faith and Beauty Edward Farley, 2020-04-14 Aesthetics and theological aesthetics usually imply a focus on questions about the arts and how faith or religion relates to the arts only the final pages of this work take up that problem The central theme of this book is that of beauty Farley employs a new typology of western texts on beauty and a theological analysis of the image of God and redemption to counter the centuries long tendency to ignore or marginalize beauty and the aesthetic as part of the life of faith Studying the interpretation of beauty in ancient Greece eighteenth century England the work of Jonathan Edwards and nineteenth and twentieth century philosophies of human self transcendence the author explores whether Christian existence the life of faith and the ethical exclude or require an aesthetic dimension in the sense of beauty The work will be of particular interest to those interested in Christian theology ethics and religion and the arts

Aching for Beauty Wang Ping, 2002-03-12 When Wang Ping was nine years old she secretly set about binding her feet with elastic bands Footbinding had by then been outlawed in China women s feet liberated but at that young age she desperately wanted the tiny feet her grandmother had deformed and malodorous as they were By first examining the root of her own girlhood desire Wang unleashes a fascinating inquiry into a centuries old custom Aching for Beauty combines Wang s unique perspective and remarkable literary gifts in an award winning exploration of the history and culture surrounding footbinding In setting out to demystify this reviled tradition Wang probes an astonishing range of literary references addresses the relationship between beauty and pain and discusses the intense female bonds that footbinding fostered Her comprehensive examination of the notions of hierarchy femininity and fetish bound up in the tradition places footbinding in its proper context in Chinese history and opens a window onto an intriguing culture

Beauty a Duty Susanna Cocroft, 1915      The Beauty of Preaching Michael Pasquarello, 2020-08-27 What does beauty have to do with healing the fragmentation within our churches According to Michael Pasquarello everything Amid the cacophony of ugly political invective that dominates nearly every space today including church only God has the power to unify and heal through his truth and goodness revealed in his beauty And every Sunday those in the pulpit have the opportunity and responsibility to share this beauty with their parishioners Tapping into a long tradition that can be traced back to Augustine Michael Pasquarello explores a theological definition of beauty that has tremendous revelatory power in a post Christendom world A church manifesting this beauty is not merely a gathering of people but a place where God s new creation appears in the midst of the old creation ushered in by a pastor willing to make God the primary actor within the doxological craft of preaching
