publishing practices and early theories of plagiarism Furthermore as in Gildon s original publication Roberts presents the Life with Betterton s comedy The Amorous Widow In a comprehensive introduction Roberts explores Gildon s relationships with both his publishers and with Betterton himself presenting the Life as a classical dialogue based on a personal knowledge of the actor It also sheds light on how Gildon exploited early definitions of plagiarism balancing his unacknowledged borrowings with original insights into acting theory With old spelling and detailed annotations this edition provides a rich foundation for understanding Gildon s impact on theatre publication and the evolving standards of intellectual property
