Fragmented Gods The Poverty And Potential Of Religion In Canada:

Fragmented Gods Reginald Wayne Bibby,1990 Aspects of the Canadian Evangelical Experience George A. Rawlyk,1997 Aspects of the Canadian Evangelical Experience explores Canadian evangelicalism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries placing it within historical cultural and theological frameworks from publisher description

Revivalists Kevin Bradley Kee,2006 How prominent Canadian revivalists used commerce and entertainment to advance their Christian causes Revivalists Kevin Kee,2006-06-26 In Canada the latter half of the nineteenth century marked a profound break with the settler past and the beginning of an age of commercialization Kevin Kee shows how Protestant evangelists used theatre film and jazz to make religion personally relevant to their audiences

Post-Christendom Studies: Volume 1 Steven M. Studebaker, Lee Beach, Gordon L. Heath,2018-01-10 Post Christendom Studies publishes research on the nature of Christian identity and mission in the contexts of post Christendom Post Christendom refers to places both now and in the past where Christianity was once a significant cultural presence though not necessarily the dominant religion Sometimes Christendom refers to the official link between church and state The term post Christendom is often associated with the rise of secularization religious pluralism and multiculturalism in western countries over the past sixty years Our use of the term is broader than that however Egypt for example can be considered a post Christendom context It was once a leading center of Christianity Christendom moreover does not necessarily mean official public and dominant religion For example under Saddam Hussein Christianity was probably a minority religion but for the most part Christians were left alone After America deposed Saddam Christians began to flee because they became a persecuted minority In that sense post Saddam Iraq is an experience of post Christendom it is a shift from a cultural context in which Christians have more or less freedom to exercise their faith to one where they are persecuted and or marginalized for doing so Religion in the Context of Globalization Peter Beyer,2013-07-24 Peter Beyer has been a central figure in the debate about religion and globalization for many years this volume is a collection of essays on the relation between religion and globalization with special emphasis on the concept of religion its modern forms and on the relation of religion to the state Featuring a newly written introduction and conclusion which frame the volume and offer the reader guidance on how the arguments fit together this book brings together ten previously published pieces which focus on the institutional forms and concept of religion in the context of globalizing and modern society The guiding theme that they all share is the idea that religion and globalization are historically conceptually and institutionally related What has come to constitute religion and what social roles religion plays are not manifestations of a timeless essence called religion or even a requirement of human societies In concept and institutional form religion is an expression of the historical process of globalization above all during modern centuries What religion has become is one of the outcomes of the successive transformations and developments that have brought about contemporary global society Including some of the most important theoretical work in the field of religion and globalization this collection provokes the reader to consider paths for future research in the area and will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and politics globalization and religion and sociology

Varieties of Religious Establishment Lori G. Beaman, 2016-02-17 Advocacy for religious freedom has become a global project while religion and the management of religion has become of increasing interest to scholars across a wider range of disciplines Rather than adopting the common assumption that religious freedom is simply incompletely realized the authors in this book suggest that the starting point for understanding religion in public life today should be religious establishment In the hyper globalized world of the politics of religious freedom today a focus on establishments brings into view the cultural assumptions cosmologies anthropologies and institutions which structure religion and religious diversity Leading international scholars from a diverse range of disciplines explore how countries today live with religious difference and consider how considering establishments reveals the limitations of universal multicultural and interfaith models of religious freedom Examining the various forms religion takes in Tunisia Canada Taiwan South Africa and the USA amongst others this book argues that legal protections for religious freedom can only be understood in a context of socially and culturally specific constraints

None of the Above Joel Thiessen, Sarah Wilkins-Laflamme, 2020-04-14 Compares secular attitudes characterizing religious nones in the United States and Canada Almost a quarter of American and Canadian adults are nonreligious while teens and young adults are even less likely to identify religiously None of the Above explores the growing phenomenon of religious nones in North America Who are the religious nones Why and where is this population growing While there has been increased attention on secularism in both Europe and the United States little work to date has focused on Canada Joel Thiessen and Sarah Wilkins Laflamme turn to survey and interview data to explore how a nonreligious identity impacts a variety of aspects of daily life in the US and Canada in sometimes similar and sometimes different ways offering insights to illuminate societal and political trends With numbers of nonreligious people even higher in Canada than in the US some believe that secular currents to the north foreshadow what will happen in the US None of the Above asserts that a growing divide between religious and nonreligious populations could engender a greater distance in moral and political values and behaviors At once provocative and insightful this book tackles questions of coexistence religious tolerance and spirituality as American and Canadian society accelerate toward a more secular future

The Spirit Said Go Michael Wilkinson, 2006 North America has experienced dramatic changes with the arrival of immigrants from Africa Asia and Latin America since the 1970s Some of the most important and often neglected aspects of migration are religious In this case study of Pentecostal immigrants in Canada Wilkinson shows how global religious networks transform social relationships and religious organizations while contributing to new translocal identities

Christians in a Secular World Kurt Bowen, 2005-05 A detailed assessment of the degree to which religious commitment or lack thereof affects the psychological state of Canadians and the social fabric of Canada

The Fourth Civilization, Volume One Richard J.

Sutcliffe,2024-11-27 The Fourth Civilization Technology Society and Ethics stimulates its readers to consider the ethical and societal consequences of technologies they already use and others that will become ubiquitous Its discussions and provocative questions integrate history science technology and ethical and religious beliefs examining the past and present and preparing for the future Social changes always follow the adoption of new technologies The plow drove the transition from hunter gatherer to agrarian society and the steam engine began the Industrial Revolution Computing technology now ushers in an Information Age What does ethical decision making look like in a time of rapid transition and beyond What will society be like once things stabilize in a Fourth Civilization if indeed they will How will robots artificial intelligence factory automation and self driving vehicles affect daily life and work Discussions about ideas were not common in an era of specialist technicians They are becoming necessary and routine in a fast changing and more broadly integrative world and this book attempts to practice what it preaches Let it inform provoke and become a part of New Renaissance literature inspiring its readers to become ethically informed New Renaissance people in the Fourth Civilization information age

Christianity and Ethnicity in Canada Paul Bramadat,David Seljak,2008-06-14 Over the past decade scholars and policy makers interested in Canadian multiculturalism have begun to take religion much more seriously Moreover Christian communities have become increasingly aware of the impact of ethnic diversity on church life However until very recently almost no systematic academic attention has been paid to the intersection between the ethnic and religious identities of individuals or communities This gap in both our academic literature and our public discourse represents an obstacle to understanding and integrating the large numbers of ethnic Christians most of whom either join existing Canadian churches or create ethnically specific congregations In Christianity and Ethnicity in Canada eleven scholars explore the complex relationships between religious and ethnic identity within the nine major Christian traditions in Canada The contributors discuss the ways in which changes in the ethnic composition of these traditions influence religious practice and identity as well as how the nine religious traditions influence communal and individual ethnic identities An introductory chapter by Paul Bramadat and David Seljak provides a thorough discussion of the theoretical historical and empirical issues involved in the study of Christianity and ethnicity in Canada This volume complements Religion and Ethnicity in Canada in which the authors address similar issues within the six major non Christian communities in Canada and within Canadian health care education and politics

New Religions As Global Cultures Irving Hexham,Karla Poewe,2018-02-12 Although the Great Anti Cult Crusade links new religious movements to dangerous cults brainwashing and the need for deprogramming Karla Poewe and Irving Hexham argue that many cults are the product of a dynamic interaction between folk religions and the teachings of traditional world religions Drawing on examples from Africa the United States Asia and Europe they suggest that few new religions are really new Most draw on rich if localized cultural traditions that are shaped anew by the influence of technological change and international linkages With the widespread loss of belief in biblical mythology in the nineteenth

Callaway, 2013 A retrospective look at Alberta's Prairie Bible Institute and the influence of American fundamentalism on the school's teachings Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity, 2015-03-20 The Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity Themes and Developments in Culture Politics and Society maps the transformations as well as the continuities of the largest of the major religions engaging with the critical global issues which relate to the faith in a fast changing world International experts in the area offer contributions focusing on global movements regional trends and developments Christianity the state politics and polity and Christianity and social diversity Collectively the contributors provide a comprehensive treatment of health of the religion as Christianity enters its third millennium in existence and details the challenges and dilemmas facing its various expressions both old and new The volume is a companion to the Handbook of Contemporary Global Christianity Movements Institutions and Allegiance The Fourth Civilization, Volume Two Rick Sutcliffe, 2024-12-05 The Fourth Civilization Technology Society and Ethics stimulates its readers to consider the ethical and societal consequences of technologies they already use and others that will become ubiquitous Its discussions and provocative questions integrate history science technology and ethical and religious beliefs examining the past and present and preparing for the future Social changes always follow the adoption of new technologies The plow drove the transition from hunter gatherer to agrarian society and the steam engine began the Industrial Revolution Computing technology now ushers in an Information Age What does ethical decision making look like in a time of rapid transition and beyond What will society be like once things stabilize in a Fourth Civilization if indeed they will How will robots artificial intelligence factory automation and self driving vehicles affect daily life and work Discussions about ideas were not common in an era of specialist technicians They are becoming necessary and routine in a fast changing and more broadly integrative world and this book attempts to practice what it preaches Let it inform provoke and become a part of New Renaissance literature inspiring its readers to become ethically informed New Renaissance people in the Fourth Civilization information age The Teachings of Modern Christianity on Law, Politics, and Human Nature John Witte (Jr.), John Witte, Frank S. Alexander, 2006 This is a major project to be undertaken as part of a broad initiative of the Pew Charitable Trusts and the University of Notre Dame on the role of Christianity in modern society John Witte is one of the editors of the forthcoming Sex Marriage and the Family A Reader in World Religions Minorities and Reconstructive Coalitions Willie Gin, 2017-07-06 Through comparative and historical analysis the book shows that reconstructive coalitions such as labor and pan Christian moral movements affect minority incorporation and bring Catholics and Protestants together under new identities and significantly improving Catholic standing It provides overviews of the history of Catholics in Australia Canada and the United States while at the same time advancing unique arguments about the impact of coalitions on minority politics Pilgrims in

Lotus Land Robert K. Burkinshaw, 1995-05-05 Burkinshaw traces the growth of conservative Protestantism in British Columbia from its clashes with liberal Protestants in the early twentieth century through the post World War II years when a bewildering variety of smaller groups including Baptist and Pentecostal denominations as well as Mennonite Reformed and Evangelical Free churches became important to the 1970s when the majority of worshipping Protestants belonged to evangelical groups He examines the factors that made evangelicalism more adaptable to changes in the geographic ethnic and social distribution of the province's population and argues that while the evangelical movement in BC was influenced by American fundamentalism it was not simply an extension of the American campaign He also examines the impact of evangelicals on provincial politics most particularly their role in the rise of the Social Credit Party Burkinshaw provides a wealth of new information on the phenomenon of twentieth century evangelicalism and challenges us to rethink the nature of religious conservatism Recent Social Trends in Canada, 1960-2000 Lance W. Roberts, Rodney A. Clifton, Barry Ferguson, 2005-08-15 The introduction summarizes and locates the major waves of change The authors then document each trend in relation to eighteen thematic groups that include age community women labour management stratification social relations the state mobilizing institutions social forces ideologies households lifestyle leisure education integration and attitudes and values
