Fragments of a Past Eiji Yoshikawa,1992 Fragments of a Past 〰〰〰,1996 Writing the Radical Memoir Paul Williams,Shelley Davidow,2023-05-18 For those that have mastered the basics of memoir and wish to probe this brand of creative nonfiction further Writing the Radical Memoir uses salient theories about memory and the self to challenge assumptions about how we remember and tell the truth of our lives when we write about it Innovative in approach and making new critical ideas accessible each chapter maps out the key principles of such writers as Barthes Lacan Derrida Lewis Mehl Madrona Philippe Le Jeune and Joseph Campbell invokes literary examples to show how other writers have mastered the idea before reflecting on how you can practically apply the theory to your writing With original exercises and prompts for further reading that bridge the gap between the theoretical and how it might be put into practice the book is attentive to the multiple facets of the genre of nonfiction writing generally covering such topics as The writer reader contract How to embark on a thematic symbolic exploration of themes and incidents in your life How neuro scientific theory can inform our understanding of memory and recall and what happens to our memories when we remember them Character development and the ethics of writing about real people How constructing your identity in memoir offers a chance to push back against traditional structures That memoir might not be preservation of your past but a process of self erasure How J M Coetzee s Autobiography trilogy challenges traditional biography By bringing together lived experience post structuralist and postmodernist theories praxis and artistic vision as a unique approach to writing memoir this book encourages you to think the self how it is portrayed created erased and made strange through the process of writing and remembering Tell Me True Patricia Hampl,Elaine Tyler May,2008-10-14 Fourteen accomplished writers investigate the tantalizing gray area where memory and history intersect Victorian Bloomsbury S.P. Rosenbaum,2016-07-27 A subtle and powerful picture of the Bloomsbury Group S P Rosenbaum is an unparalleled interpreter of the philosophical as well as the literary traditions absorbed by this group Richard Ellman This is more detailed more considered more extensive and therefore far more valuable than anything of the kind we have had before required reading for anyone professing a serious interest in Bloomsbury Andrew McNellie This first volume of a three volume study of the early literary history of the Bloomsbury Group describes the intellectual family and Cambridge backgrounds of Bloomsbury as they are reflected in the Group s early or autobiographical works While many books have been written on the Bloomsbury Group this is the first to study comprehensively the literary history of their interrelated achievements Professor Rosenbaum has written a wonderful account of the ideas and people who were the early influences on the Group He sees the modern period not as the age of great men but in a new light where original ideas about art women and society This book will be of interest not only to anyone fascinated by the Bloomsbury Group but also to students of Woolf or Forster or Keynes or Strachey who need to know the background of those writers Memory into Memoir Laura Kalpakian,2021-10-01 The memoir is not the story of what you know it's the story of how you learned it. Memory into Memoir provides a lively guide for anyone looking to wrestle the unruly past onto the page. In thirteen chapters, Laura Kalpakian provides tools to develop narrative form, scenic depiction, character development, and dialogue. There are chapters devoted to excavating the Family Story and the slippery Truth, especially when telling stories not solely your own. Kalpakian explores the use of letters, diaries, and photographs, and she offers tips for research, publishing choices, and the uses of music. With a broad exploration of technique and development and a range of reference, Memory into Memoir includes examples, extensive resources, and animating prompts. The seasoned writer, the aspiring writer, and the reluctant writer looking for a knowledgeable, encouraging companion will find Memory into Memoir the go-to guide for a successful, fulfilling writing experience.

The Barsden Memoirs (1799-1816) Grant Rodwell, 2022-02-27. Covering the life of Josephus Henry Barsden from his birth in 1799 through his childhood to 16 years of age, the Barsden memoirs describe events from a Sussex smugglers' inn, a convict ship, to the colony of New South Wales, sealing and whaling expeditions to Van Diemen's Land, and Barsden's participation in a Tahitian civil war. The author assesses the value of memoirs and of these memoirs in particular to students of history in respect to the transnational paradigm. He tests the historicity and veracity of their contents and provides an engaging exegesis and graphical supplement of its contents. Of central importance is Barsden's account of the Battle of Fe'i Pi, which was in many respects the Pacific's equivalent to the contemporaneous Battle of Waterloo, such was its lasting impact on Pacific geopolitics. This was no ordinary childhood and poses many questions about a transnational adolescent's impact on major events. A fascinating read for scholars and students of Australian Pacific and British Colonial History, written with academic rigour but accessible to non-specialists.

Borders, Conflict Zones, and Memory Donna R. Gabaccia, Franca Iacovetta, 2018-12-07. This volume pays tribute to Luisa Passerini, whose scholarship has had a major impact on feminist and other scholars around the world. First known internationally for developing new conceptual approaches to oral history and memory studies based on the recognition of the subjective nature of memory, Passerini has more recently written about autobiography, the history of emotions, and concepts of belonging in Europe and reimagining a more inclusive Europe. In this book, scholars from North America, South America, and Europe engage Passerini's groundbreaking insights into the nature of subjectivity, intersubjectivity, autobiography, and love in relation to the themes of borders, emotions, and memory. The contributions deal with topics including Mennonite refugee women's food memories, the testimonies of far-left Chilean women who survived brutal sexualized violence, and memories of the war between East and West Pakistan and India and Pakistan. Other contributions to the volume situate and reflect on Passerini's career, encompassing scholarship. Passerini speaks with the editors of her latest work on oral and visual memories of human movement and also offers a thoughtful response to the essays whose authors represent a transnational and multi-generational group of scholars. This book was originally published
