Naguib Mahfouz , The Female Suffering Body Abir Hamdar,2014-12-17 Although there is a history of rich complex and variegated representations of female illness in Western literature over the last two centuries the sick female body has traditionally remained outside the Arab literary imagination Hamdar takes on this historical absence in The Female Suffering Body by exploring how both literary and cultural perspectives on female physical illness and disability in the Arab world have transformed in the modern period In doing so she examines a range of both canonical and hitherto marginalized Arab writers including Mahmoud Taymur Yusuf al Sibai Ghassan Kanafani Naguib Mahfouz Ziyad Qassim Colette Khoury Hanan al Shaykh Alia Mamdouh Salwa Bakr Hassan Daoud and Betool Khedair Hamdar finds that over the course of sixty years female physical illness and disability has moved from the margins of Arabic literature where it was largely the subject of shame disgust or revulsion to the center as a new wave of female writers have sought to give voice to the female suffering body

Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph,2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph s volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship A New Old Damascus Christa Salamandra, 2004-12-10 Filled with rare encounters with Syria s oldest most elite families Critics of anthropology s taste for exoticism and marginality will savor this study of upper class Damascus a world that is urbane and cosmopolitan yet in many ways as remote as the settings in which the best ethnography has traditionally been done Written with a nuanced appreciation of the cultural forms in question and how Damascenes themselves think talk about and create them Andrew Shryock In contemporary urban Syria debates about the representation preservation and restoration of the Old City of Damascus have become part of status competition and identity construction among the city s elite In theme restaurants and nightclubs that play on images of Syrian tradition in television programs nostalgic literature and visual art and in the rhetoric of historic preservation groups the idea of the Old City has become a commodity for the consumption of tourists and most important of new and old segments of the Syrian upper class In this lively ethnographic study Christa Salamandra argues that in deploying and debating such representations Syrians dispute the past and criticize the present Indiana Series in Middle East Studies Mark Tessler general editor Ten Arab Filmmakers Josef Gugler, 2015-06-29 ss Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2022-06-15 Arabic Disclosures presents readers with a comparative analysis of Arabic postcolonial autobiographical writing In Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J al Musawi investigates the genre of autobiography within the modern tradition of Arabic literary writing from the early 1920s to the present Al Musawi notes in the introduction that the purpose of this work is not to survey the entirety of autobiographical writing in modern Arabic but rather to apply a rigorously identified set of characteristics and approaches culled from a variety of theoretical studies of the genre to a particular set of autobiographical works in Arabic selected for their different methodologies varying historical contexts within which they were conceived and written and the equally varied lives experienced by the authors involved The book begins in the larger context of autobiographical space where the theories of Bourdieu Bachelard Bakhtin and Lefebvre are laid out and then considers the multiple ways in which a postcolonial awareness of space has impacted the writings of many of the authors whose works are examined Organized chronologically al Musawi begins with the earliest modern example of autobiographical work in h usayn s book translated into English as The Stream of Days Al Musawi studies some of the major pioneers in the development of modern Arabic thought and literary expression Jurj Zayd n M k l Nu aymah A mad Am n Sal mah M s Sayyid Qu b and untranslated works by the prominent critic and scholar amm d amm d the novelist liah Mamd and others He also examines the autobiographies of a number of women including Naw l al Sa d w and Fadw q n and fiction writers The book draws a map of Arab thought and culture in its multiple engagements with other cultures and will be useful for scholars and students of comparative literature Arabic studies and Middle Eastern studies intellectual thought and history

Syria in World War I M. Talha Çiçek,2015-12-14 The First World War quickly escalated from a European war into a global conflict that would cause fundamental changes in the Middle East Africa Asia and the Americas Its end signalled the dissolution of the Ottoman Empire which had controlled most of the Arab Middle East Over the wartime period millions of people across the Empire died as a result of warfare epidemics famines and massacres However for the Ottoman leaders their entry into the war was not just a response to a life or death struggle but rather presented them with an opportunity to transform the empire into a new type of state Syria in World War I brings together leading scholars working with original Turkish Arabic Armenian and German sources to present a comprehensive examination of this key period in Syria s history Together the chapters demonstrate how the war represented a radical break from the past for the Syrian lands which underwent crucial political economic social and cultural transformations It contextualises various facets of the then Unionist ruler of Syria Djemal Pasha as well as exploring the impact of the Ottoman leaders divergent policies on the Syrian lands and people which would undergo a series of political economic and ecological catastrophes whose traces are still evident in the region s collective memory Introducing a significant body of new information and considerably expanding the parameters of current debates Syria in World War I is of key interest to students and scholars of Middle East History as well as History of the Late Ottoman Empire and World War I History

Autobiographical Identities in Contemporary Arab Culture Valerie Anishchenkova,2014-07-16 Over the last 40 years autobiography in Arab societies has moved away from exemplary life narratives and toward more unorthodox techniques such as erotic memoir writing postmodernist self fragmentation cinematographic self projection and blogging Valerie Anishchenkova argues that the Arabic autobiographical genre has evolved into a mobile unrestricted category arming authors with narrative tools to articulate their selfhood Reading works from Arab nations such as Egypt Iraq Morocco Syria and Lebanon Anishchenkova connects the century s rapid political and ideological developments to increasing autobiographical experimentation in Arabic works The immense scope of her study also forces consideration of film and online forms of self representation and offers a novel theoretical framework to these various modes of autobiographical cultural production

Fezzes in the River Sarah D. Shields,2011-03-16 A fascinating case study of a province of Alexandretta caught in mandate system of the League of Nations and Great Power Politics in the interwar period

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

A Land of Aching Hearts Leila Tarazi Fawaz,2014-11-17 A century after the Great War the experiences of civilians and soldiers in the Middle East during those years have faded from memory A Land of Aching Hearts traverses ethnic class and national borders to recover the personal stories of those who endured this cataclysmic event and their profound sense of sacrifices made in vain

Fathers and Sons in the Arab Middle East D. Cohen-Mor,2013-11-07 Drawing on insights from psychology sociology anthropology religion history and literature this book examines early and contemporary writings of male authors from across the Arab world to explore the traditional and evolving nature of father son relationships in Arab families

The Cambridge History of the First World War: Volume 1, Global War Jay Winter,2014-01-09 This first volume of The Cambridge History of the First World War provides a comprehensive account of the war s military history An international team of leading historians charts how a war made possible by globalization and imperial expansion unfolded into catastrophe growing year by year in scale and destructive power far beyond that which anyone had anticipated in 1914 Adopting a global perspective the volume analyses the spatial impact of the war and the subsequent ripple effects that occurred both regionally and across the world It explores how imperial powers devoted vast reserves of manpower and material to their war efforts and how by doing so they changed the political landscape of the world order It also charts the moral political and legal implications of the changing character of war and in particular the collapse of the distinction between civilian and military targets Showcasing the Role of the Arabic Language along the Silk Roads UNESCO,2024-12-14 The Charity of War

Melanie S Tanielian,2023-05-25 A captivating account of the starvation and disease that wracked far from the front Beirut during WWI and the relief efforts that followed Middle East Journal With the exception of a few targeted aerial bombardments of the city's port Beirut and Mount Lebanon did not see direct combat in World War I Yet civilian casualties in this part of the Ottoman Empire reached shocking heights possibly numbering half a million people No war in its usual understanding took place there but Lebanon was incontestably war stricken As a food crisis escalated into famine it was the bloodless incursion of starvation and the silent assault of fatal disease that defined everyday life The Charity of War tells how the Ottoman home front grappled with total war and how it sought to mitigate starvation and sickness through relief activities Melanie S Tanielian examines the wartime famine's reverberations throughout the community in Beirut's municipal institutions in its philanthropic and religious organizations in international agencies and in the homes of the city's residents Her local history reveals a dynamic politics of provisioning that was central to civilian experiences in the war as well as to the Middle Eastern political landscape that emerged post war By tracing these responses to the conflict she demonstrates World War I's immediacy far from the European trenches in a place where war was a socio economic and political process rather than a military event The Anchor Book of Modern Arabic Fiction Denys Johnson-Davies,2010-03-31 This dazzling anthology features the work of seventy nine outstanding writers from all over the Arab speaking world from Morocco in the west to Iraq in the east Syria in the north to Sudan in the south Edited by Denys Johnson Davies called by Edward Said the leading Arabic to English translator of our time this treasury of Arab voices is diverse in styles and concerns but united by a common language It spans the full history of modern Arabic literature from its roots in western cultural influence at the end of the nineteenth century to the present day flowering of Naguib Mahfouz's literary sons and daughters Among the Egyptian writers who laid the foundation for the Arabic literary renaissance are the great Tawfik al Hakim the short story pioneer Mahmoud Teymour and Yusuf Idris who embraced Egypt's vibrant spoken vernacular An excerpt from the Sudanese writer Tayeb Salih's novel Season of Migration to the North one of the Arab world's finest appears alongside the Libyan writer Ibrahim al Koni's tales of the Tuaregs of North Africa the Iraqi writer Mohamed Khudayir's masterly story Clocks Like Horses and the work of such women writers as Lebanon's Hanan al Shaykh and Morocco's Leila Abouzeid
