Fragments Portraits From The Inside:

Fragments Andre De Toth,1996-09-01 Fragments André De Toth,1994-01 Andre de Toth s remarkable eccentric and utterly compelling memoir opens amidst the enchanted cafe society of pre war Budapest With a novelist s sense of time and place he propels the reader through a series of snapshots from his fantastically eventful life from Vienna Paris and London to Hollywood where he encountered many of the legendary figures of cinema s golden age Ever the maverick de Toth avoids the anodyne cliches of the show biz biography Brutally honest and frequently self deprecating Fragments is a memoir with bite

Hollywood's War with Poland, 1939-1945 M.B.B. Biskupski, 2010-01-08 This passionate carefully researched richly detailed well written study reveals the political motives behind WWII Hollywood's portrayal of Poles Choice During World War II Hollywood studios supported the war effort by making patriotic movies designed to raise the nation s morale Often the characterizations were as black and white as the movies themselves Americans and their allies were heroes while everyone else was a villain The peoples of Norway France Czechoslovakia and England were all good because they had been invaded or victimized by Nazi Germany Yet Poland the first country to be invaded by the Third Reich was repeatedly represented in a negative light In this prize winning study Polish historian M B B Biskupski explores why Biskupski presents a close critical study of prewar and wartime films such as To Be or Not to Be In Our Time and None Shall Escape Through memoirs letters diaries and memoranda written by screenwriters directors studio heads and actors Biskupski examines how the political climate and especially pro Soviet sentiment influenced Hollywood films of the time Winner of the Oscar Halecki Prize A Choice Outstanding Academic Title The Fragment Camelia Elias, 2004 This monograph is an interdisciplinary study of the concept of fragment in literature and in critical and literary theory. It discusses the fragment's performativity and function within a historical perspective stretching from Heraclitus via the German Romantics and European writers of the Modernist period to American postmodern manifestations of the fragment This is the first history of the fragment to appear in English and it is also the first attempt at producing a consistent taxonomy of literary and critical fragments The fragments are categorised according to function not author intention and the study addresses a number of questions What constitutes the fragment when the fragment can only be defined a posteriori Does the fragment begin on its own or is it begun by others writers and critics Does it acquire a name of its own or is it labelled by others All these questions revolve around issues of agency and they are best discussed in terms of performativity which means seeing fragments as acts acts of literature acts of reading acts of writing The book demonstrates how a poetics of the fragment as a performative genre can be created situating the fragment both as literature and as a phenomenon within postmodern criticism against the background of philosophy art history and theology Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e q amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon Columbia Pictures Jim Pauley, 2024-10-15 Columbia Pictures reaches a major milestone in 2024 by celebrating the 100 year anniversary of Columbia's incorporation In the same vein of recent Hollywood movie studio titles such as Warner Bros Hollywood s Ultimate Backlot Paramount City of Dreams and MGM Hollywood's Greatest Backlot this new book documents the studio history of Columbia Pictures Corporation in Hollywood as well as Columbia s back lot in Burbank California This book reveals how Columbia came to be founded by Joe Brandt and brothers Harry and Jack Cohn in 1924 and uses the studio tour concept to describe Columbia's history of filmmaking which includes Lost Horizon Mr Smith Goes to Washington From Here to Eternity The Bridge on the River Kwai as well as many serials and television programs The book has hundreds of photos including studio documents vintage publicity stills and candids along with aerial views and maps The majority of the photos have never been published before A catalogue of Pictures, Statues, Busts, Antique Columns, Bronzes, Fragments of Antique Buildings, Tables of Florentine and Roman Mosaic Scagliola and Inlaid Wood John Waldie, 2023-05-04 Reprint of the original first published in 1859 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Phantom Lady Christina Lane, 2020-02-04 Winner of the Mystery Writers of America's 2021 Edgar Allan Poe Award for Best Critical Biographical In 1933 Joan Harrison was a twenty six year old former salesgirl with a dream of escaping both her stodgy London suburb and the dreadful prospect of settling down with one of the local boys A few short years later she was Alfred Hitchcock's confidente and one of the Oscar nominated screenwriters of his first American film Rebecca Harrison had quickly grown from being the worst secretary Hitchcock ever had to one of his closest collaborators critically shaping his brand as the Master of Suspense Harrison went on to produce numerous Hollywood features before becoming a television pioneer as the producer of Alfred Hitchcock Presents A respected powerhouse she acquired a singular reputation for running amazingly smooth productions and defying anyone who posed an obstacle She built most of her films and series from the ground up She waged rough and tumble battles against executives and censors and even helped to break the Hollywood blacklist She teamed up with many of the most respected well known directors writers and actors of the twentieth century And she did it all on her own terms Author Christina Lane shows how this stylish stunning woman became Hollywood's most powerful female writer producer one whom history has since overlooked Love, Queenie Mayukh Sen, 2025-03-04 Extraordinary The New York Times Book Review A Kirkus and The Millions Most Anticipated Book One of Town Country's Best Books of Spring 2025 One of Bookpage's 7 books to read this Women's History Month A beautiful reclamation of a pioneering South Asian actress captures her glittering complicated life and lasting impact on Hollywood Merle Oberon made history when she was announced as a nominee for the Best Actress Oscar in 1936 Hers was a face that launched a thousand ships a so called exotic beauty who the camera loved and fans adored Her nomination for The Dark Angel marked the first time the Academy recognized a performer of color Almost ninety years before actress Michelle Yeoh would triumph in the same category Oberon born to a South Asian mother and white father in India broke through a racial barrier but no one knew it Oberon was passing for white In the first biography of Oberon 1911 1979 in more than forty years Mayukh Sen draws on family interviews and heretofore untapped archival material to capture the exceptional life of an oft forgotten talent Born into poverty Queenie Thompson dreamt of big screen stardom By sheer force of will she immigrated to London in her teens and met film mogul Alexander Korda who christened her Merle Oberon and invented the story that she was born to European parents in Tasmania Her new identity was her ticket into Hollywood When she was only in her twenties Oberon dazzled as Cathy in Wuthering Heights opposite Laurence Olivier Against the backdrop of Hollywood's racially exclusionary Golden Age and the United States s hostile immigration policy towards South Asians in the twentieth century Oberon rose to the highest echelons of the film world elite all while keeping a secret that could have destroyed her career Tracing Oberon s story from her Indian roots to her final days surrounded by wealth and glamor Sen questions the demands placed on stars in life and death His compassionate compelling chronicle illuminates troubling truths on race gender and power that still resonate today

John Waldie,1859 Michael Curtiz Alan K. Rode,2017-11-17 Academy Award winning director Michael Curtiz 1886 1962 whose best known films include Casablanca 1942 Yankee Doodle Dandy 1942 Mildred Pierce 1945 and White Christmas 1954 was in many ways the anti auteur During his unprecedented twenty seven year tenure at Warner Bros he directed swashbuckling adventures westerns musicals war epics romances historical dramas horror films tearjerkers melodramas comedies and film noir masterpieces The director's staggering output of 180 films surpasses that of the legendary John Ford and exceeds the combined total of films directed by George Cukor Victor Fleming and Howard Hawks In the first biography of this colorful instinctual artist Alan K Rode illuminates the life and work of one of the film industry's most complex figures He explores the director's little known early life and career in his native Hungary revealing how Curtiz shaped the earliest days of silent cinema in Europe before immigrating to the United States in 1926 In Hollywood Curtiz earned a reputation for explosive tantrums his difficulty with English and disregard for the well being of others However few directors elicited more memorable portrayals from their casts and ten different actors delivered Oscar nominated performances under his direction In addition to his study of the director's remarkable legacy Rode investigates Curtiz's dramatic personal life discussing his enduring creative partnership with his wife screenwriter Bess Meredyth as well as his numerous affairs and children born of his extramarital relationships This meticulously researched biography provides a nuanced understanding of one of the most talented filmmakers of Hollywood's golden age Special Effects on the Screen Martin Lefebvre, Marc Furstenau, 2025-10-01 Since the very first days of cinema audiences have marveled at the special effects imagery presented on movie screens While long relegated to the margins of film studies special effects have recently become the object of a burgeoning field of scholarship With the emergence of a digital cinema and the development of computerized visual effects film theorists and historians have been reconsidering the traditional accounts of cinematic representation recognising the important role of special effects Understood as a constituent part of the cinema special effects are a major technical but also aesthetic component of filmmaking and an important part of the experience for the audience In this volume new directions are charted for the exploration of this indispensable aspect of the cinematic experience Each of the essays in this collection offers new insight into the theoretical and historical study of special effects The contributors address the many aspects of special effects from a variety of perspectives considering them as a conceptual problem recounting the history of specific special effects techniques and analysing notable effects films Edgerton, 2013-09-13 For nearly two centuries Americans have embraced the Western like no other artistic genre Creators and consumers alike have utilized this story form in literature painting film radio and television to explore questions of national identity and purpose Westerns The Essential Collection comprises the Journal of Popular Film and Television's rich and longstanding legacy of scholarship on Westerns with a new special issue devoted exclusively to the genre This collection examines and analyzes the evolution and significance of the screen Western from its earliest beginnings to its current global reach and relevance in the 21st century Westerns The Essential Collection addresses the rise fall and durability of the genre and examines its preoccupation with multicultural matters in its organizational structure Containing eighteen essays published between 1972 and 2011 this seminal work is divided into six sections covering Silent Westerns Classic Westerns Race and Westerns Gender and Westerns Revisionist Westerns and Westerns in Global Context A wide range of international contributors offer original critical perspectives on the intricate relationship between American culture and Western films and television series Westerns The Essential Collection places the genre squarely within the broader aesthetic socio historical cultural and political dimensions of life in the United States as well as internationally where the Western has been reinvigorated and reinvented many times This groundbreaking anthology illustrates how Western films and television series have been used to define the present and discover the future by looking backwards at America's imagined past Martin Scorsese Vincent LoBrutto, 2007-11-30 Martin Scorsese's current position in the international film community is unrivaled and his name has become synonymous with the highest standards of filmmaking excellence He is widely considered America s best living film director and his Taxi Driver and Raging Bull appear frequently on worldwide surveys of the best films of all time Here in the first biographical account of this artist's life Vincent LoBrutto traces Scorsese's Italian American heritage his strict Catholic upbringing the continuing role of religion in his life and art his obsessive love of cinema history and the powerful impact that the streets of New York City had on his personal life and his professional career Meanwhile the filmmaker's humble soft spoken public persona tells only part of the story and LoBrutto will delve into the other side of a complex and often tortured personality Scorsese's intense passion his private relationships his stormy marriages and his battles with drugs and depression are all chronicled here and in many cases for the first time In addition the book includes an interview with the director as well as filmographies cataloging his work as a director producer actor and presenter As his Best Director award at the 2007 Oscars clearly demonstrated Scorsese has become something like Hollywood royalty in recent years finally enjoying the insider status and favor that eluded him for most of his career But these recent developments aside Scorsese is also notable as a distinctly American type of artist one whose work created in a medium largely controlled by commercialism and marketing has always been unmistakably his own and who thus remains a touchstone of artistic integrity in American cinema In Martin Scorsese A Biography readers can examine not only the work of one of the form's genuine artists but also the forces that have propelled the man behind it Hidden Faces: Covered Portraits of the Renaissance Alison Manges Nogueira, 2024-04-02 Many small Renaissance portraits were richly adorned with covers or backs bearing allegorical figures mythological scenes or emblems that celebrated the sitter and invited the viewer to decipher their meaning Hidden Faces includes seventy objects ranging in format from covered paintings to miniature boxes that illuminate the symbiotic relationship between the portrait and its pair Texts by thirteen distinguished scholars vividly illustrate that the other faces of these portraits represent some of the most innovative images of the Renaissance created by masters such as Hans Memling and Titian Uniting works that have in some cases been separated for centuries this fascinating volume shows how the multifaceted format unveiled the sitter's identity both by physically revealing the portrait and reading the significance behind its cover The Great Escape Kati Marton, 2006-10-17 Extravagantly praised by critics and readers this stunning story by bestselling author Kati Marton tells of the breathtaking journey of nine extraordinary men from Budapest to the New World what they experienced along their dangerous route and how they changed America and the world This is the unknown chapter of World War II the tale of nine men who grew up in Budapest's brief Golden Age then driven from Hungary by anti Semitism fled to the West especially to the United States and changed the world These nine men each celebrated for individual achievements were part of a unique group who grew up in a time and place that will never come again Four helped usher in the nuclear age and the computer two were major movie myth makers two were immortal photographers and one was a seminal writer The Great Escape is a groundbreaking poignant American story and an important untold chapter of the tumultuous last century Muller, 2021-07-20 This revised and expanded edition of Eddie Muller's Dark City is a film noir lover's bible taking readers on a tour of the urban landscape of the grim and gritty genre in a definitive highly illustrated volume Dark Cityexpands with new chapters and a fresh collection of restored photos that illustrate the mythic landscape of the imagination It s a place where the men and women who created film noir often find themselves dangling from the same sinister heights as the silver screen avatars to whom they gave life Eddie Muller host of Turner Classic Movies Noir Alley takes readers on a spellbinding trip through treacherous terrain Hollywood in the post World War II years where art politics scandal style and brilliant craftsmanship produced a new approach to moviemaking and a new type of cultural mythology Stephen McVeigh, 2007-02-14 This wide ranging book illuminates the importance of the Western in American history It explores the interconnections between the Western in both literature and film and the United States in the 20th century Structured chronologically the book traces the evolution of the Western as a uniquely American form The author argues that America's frontier past was quickly transformed into a set of symbols and myths an American meta narrative that came to underpin much of the American century He details how and why this process occurred the form and function of Western myths and symbols the evolution of this mythology and its subversions and reconstructions throughout 20th century American history The book engages with the full range of historical literary and cinematic perspectives and texts from the founding Western histories of Theodore Roosevelt and Frederick Jackson Turner to the New Western history of Patricia Nelson Limerick and Richard White Historical Dictionary of Crime Films Geoff Mayer, 2012-09-13 The Historical Dictionary of Crime Films covers the history of this genre through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on key films directors performers and studios This The Restoration of the Roman Forum in Late Antiquity Gregor Kalas, 2015-04-15 In The Restoration of book is an the Roman Forum in Late Antiquity Gregor Kalas examines architectural conservation during late antiquity period at Rome s most important civic center the Roman Forum During the fourth and fifth centuries CE when emperors shifted their residences to alternate capitals and Christian practices overtook traditional beliefs elite citizens targeted restoration campaigns so as to infuse these initiatives with political meaning Since construction of new buildings was a right reserved for the emperor Rome's upper echelon funded the upkeep of buildings together with sculptural displays to gain public status Restorers linked themselves to the past through the fragmentary reuse of building materials and as Kalas explores proclaimed their importance through prominently inscribed statues and monuments whose placement within the existing cityscape allowed patrons and honorees to connect themselves to the celebrated history of Rome Building on art historical studies of spolia and exploring the Forum over an extended period of time Kalas demonstrates the mutability of civic environments The Restoration of the Roman Forum in Late Antiquity maps the evolution of the Forum away from singular projects composed of new materials toward an accretive and holistic design sensibility Overturning notions of late antiquity as one of decline Kalas demonstrates how perpetual reuse and restoration drew on Rome s venerable past to proclaim a bright future
