More than Mythology Catharina Raudvere, Jens Peter Schjødt, 2012-01-07 Written by distinguished scholars from multiple perspectives this account widens the interpretative scope on religious life among the pre Christian Scandinavian people The religion of the Viking Age is conventionally identified through its mythology the ambiguous character Odin the forceful Thor and the end of the world approaching in Ragnarök However pre Christian religion consisted of so much more than mythic imagery and legends and has long lingered in folk tradition Exploring the religion of the North through an interdisciplinary approach the book sheds new light on a number of topics including rituals gender relations social hierarchies and interregional contacts between the Nordic tradition and the Sámi and Finnish regions

German Representations of the Far North (17th-19th Centuries) Jan Borm, Joanna Kodzik, 2020-11-24 German travellers explorers missionaries and scholars produced significant new knowledge about the Arctic in Europe and elsewhere from the 17th until the 19th century However until now no English language study or collective volume has been dedicated to their representations of the Arctic Possibly due to linguistic barriers this corpus has not been sufficiently taken into account in transnational and circumpolar approaches to the fast growing field of Arctic Studies This volume serves to heighten awareness about the importance of these writings in view of the history of the Far North The chapters gathered here offer critical readings of manuscripts and publications including travelogues natural histories of the Arctic newspaper articles and scholarly texts based on first hand observations as well as works of fiction The sources are considered in their historical context as political religious social economic and cultural aspects are discussed in relation to discourses about the Arctic in general The volume opens with a spirited preface by Professor Jean Malaurie France's most distinguished Arctic specialist and author of The Last Kings of Thule 1955 The Sámi Narrative Tradition Jens-Ivar Nergård, 2021-11-17 This book sets out to document and analyse the Sámi narrative tradition It considers the worldviews inherent in the narratives and links them to traditional cosmology and other cultural expressions such as joik and duodji The chapters address a variety of issues including care for children the perception of nature disputes over land and natural resources local justice the spiritual world of everyday life and L stadianism Sketching Sámi history and the cultural context of storytelling Nergård also considers the modern challenge for the narrative tradition Drawing on long term fieldwork and research the volume is valuable reading for Indigenous studies and disciplines such as anthropology

Colonial Entanglements and the Medieval Nordic World Cordelia Heß, Solveig Marie Wang, Erik Wolf, 2024-12-16 The book investigates the multifaceted entanglements between the many pasts and presents of the Nordic medieval period and colonialism The edited volume contributes to the untangling of questions concerning how present recent and past structures of colonialism affect historiography on the medieval Nordic past Consisting of thematically diverse chapters the book brings together a range of approaches related to medieval colonialism in a Nordic context touching both on medieval and medievalist factors The editors and contributors understand their project as part of the growing conversation about colonialism and its reverberations in academia and as a contribution to decolonization efforts The volume will offer an interdisciplinary approach to oft neglected aspects of the medieval world through an incorporation of more inclusive methodologies and re readings of both medieval texts and previous scholarship

Nordic Mythologies: Interpretations, Intersections, and Institutions Timothy R. Tangherlini, 2014 A collection of essays by leading scholars of Nordic Mythology Inari Sámi Folklore August V. Koskimies, Toivo I. Itkonen, 2019-01-15 A rich multivoiced anthology of folktales legends joik songs proverbs riddles and other verbal art this is the most comprehensive collection of Sámi oral tradition available in English to date Collected by August V Koskimies and Toivo I Itkonen in the 1880s from nearly two dozen storytellers from the arctic Aanaar Inari region of northeast Finland the material reveals a complex web of social relations that existed both inside and far beyond the community First published in 1918 only in the Aanaar Sámi language and in Finnish this anthology is now available in a centennial English language edition for a global readership Translator Tim Frandy has added biographies of the storytellers maps and period photos annotations and a glossary In headnotes that contextualize the stories he explains such underlying themes as Aanaar conflicts with neighboring Sámi and Finnish communities the collapse of the wild reindeer populations less than a century before and the pre Christian past in Aanaar He introduces us to the bawdy humor of Antti Kitti the didacticism of Iisakki Mannermaa and the feminist leanings of Juho Petteri Lusmaniemäki emphasizing that folktales and proverbs are rooted in the experiences of individuals who are links in a living tradition Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Peoples in the Arctic Timo Koivurova, Else Grete

Broderstad, Dorothée Cambou, Dalee Dorrough, Florian Stammler, 2020-12-03 This handbook brings together the expertise of Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars to offer a comprehensive overview of issues surrounding the well being self determination and sustainability of Indigenous peoples in the Arctic Offering multidisciplinary insights from leading figures this handbook highlights Indigenous challenges approaches and solutions to pressing issues in Arctic regions such as a warming climate and the loss of biodiversity It furthers our understanding of the Arctic experience by analyzing how people not only survive but thrive in the planet s harshest climate through their innovation ingenuity and agency to tackle rapidly changing environments and evolving political social economic and cultural conditions The book is structured into three distinct parts that cover key topics in recent and future research with Indigenous Peoples in the Arctic The first part examines the diversity of Indigenous peoples and their cultural expressions in the different Arctic states It also focuses on the well being of Indigenous peoples in the Arctic regions The second part relates to the identities and livelihoods that Indigenous peoples in Arctic regions derive from the resources in their environments This interconnection between resources and people s identities underscores their entitlements to use their lands and resources The third and final part provides insights into the political involvement of Indigenous peoples from local all the way to the international level and their right to self determination and some of the recent related topics in this field This book offers a novel contribution to Arctic studies empowering Indigenous research for the future and rebuilding the image of Indigenous peoples as proactive participants signaling their pivotal role in the co production of knowledge It will appeal to scholars and students of law political sciences geography anthropology Arctic studies and environmental studies as well as policy makers and professionals

Sámi Media and Indigenous Agency in the Arctic North Coppélie Cocq Gelfgren, Thomas A. DuBois, 2020-01-09

Digital media GIFs films TED Talks tweets and more have become integral to daily life and unsurprisingly to Indigenous people's strategies for addressing the historical and ongoing effects of colonization In Sámi Media and Indigenous Agency in the Arctic North Thomas DuBois and Coppélie Cocq examine how Sámi people of Norway Finland and Sweden use media to advance a social cultural and political agenda anchored in notions of cultural continuity and self determination Beginning in the 1970s Sámi have used Sámi language media including commercially produced musical recordings feature and documentary films books of literature and poetry and magazines to communicate a sense of identity both within the Sámi community and within broader Nordic and international arenas In more contemporary contexts from YouTube music videos that combine rock and joik a traditional Sámi musical genre to Twitter hashtags that publicize protests against mining projects in Sámi lands Sámi activists artists and cultural workers have used the media to undo layers of ignorance surrounding Sámi livelihoods and rights to self determination Downloadable songs music festivals films videos social media posts images and tweets are just some of the diverse media through which Sámi activists transform how Nordic majority populations view and understand Sámi minority communities and more globally how modern states regard and treat Indigenous populations

Sámi Religion Trude A. Fonneland, Tiina Äikäs, 2021-02-05 Sámi Religion Religious Identities Practices and Dynamics explores expressions of Sámi religion in contemporary cultures the role it plays in identity politics and heritagization processes and the ways the past and present are entangled In recent years attitudes towards Sámi religion have changed both within religious cultural political and educational contexts as a consequence of what can be called the Indigenous turn Contemporary indigenous religion is approached as a something that adds value by a range of diverse actors and for a variety of reasons In this Special Issue we take account of emic categories and connections focusing on which notions of Sámi religion are used today by religious entrepreneurs and others who share and promote these types of spiritual beliefs and how Sámi religion is taking shape on a plenitude of arenas in contemporary society

On Corruption in America Sarah Chayes, 2020 This is a Borzoi book published by Alfred A Knopf

Healers and Empires in Global History Markku Hokkanen, Kalle Kananoja, 2019-04-15 This book explores cross cultural medical encounters involving non Western healers in a variety of imperial contexts from the Arctic Asia Africa Americas and the Caribbean It highlights contests over healing knowledge and medicines through the frameworks of hybridisation and pluralism The intertwined histories of medicine empire and early globalisation influenced the ways in which millions of people encountered and experienced suffering healing and death In an increasingly global search for therapeutics and localised definition of acceptable healing networks and mobilities played key roles Healers engagements with politics law and religion underline the close connections between healing power and authority They also reveal the agency of healers sufferers and local societies in encounters with modernising imperial states medical science and commercialisation The book questions and complements the traditional narratives of triumphant biomedicine reminding readersthat traditional medical cultures and practitioners did not often disappear but rather underwent major changes in the increasingly interconnected world Theorizing Religions Past Harvey Whitehouse,Luther H. Martin,2004-09-15 Historians bound by their singular stories and archaeologists bound by their material evidence donOt typically seek out broad comparative theories of religion But recently Harvey WhitehouseOs Omodes of religiosityO theory has been attracting many scholars of past religions Based upon universal features of human cognition WhitehouseOs theory can provide useful comparisons across cultures and historical periods even when limited cultural data is present In this groundbreaking volume scholars of cultures from prehistorical hunter gatherers to 19th century Scandinavian Lutherans evaluate WhitehouseOs hypothesis that all religions tend toward either an imagistic or a doctrinal mode depending on how they are remembered and transmitted Theorizing Religions Past provides valuable insights for all historians of religion and especially for those interested in a new cognitive method for studying the past Sacred to the Touch Thomas A. DuBois,2018-01-01 With near mythical forests of birch and pine the Nordic and Baltic countries boast a rich tradition of religious wood carving that is in many ways emblematic of their cultures Sacred to the Touch examines the spiritual and intellectual projects of six twentieth and twenty first century artists who have adapted and revitalized this tradition Through interviews and analyses folklorist Thomas A DuBois explores the notions of continuity with the past that these artists seek to express through their art examining the forest church of late Finnish artist Eva Ryy n n n the carvings of Norwegian Americans Phillip Odden and Else Bigton that decorate a planned replica of a stave church in Southern California the medieval Catholic rooted work of Lutheran Sister Lydia Mariadotter Swedish the grave markers and roadside figures of Algimantas Sakalauskas Lithuanian and the merging of Lutheran and pre Christian traditions by Lars Levi Sunna S mi With color photographs and detailed descriptions Sacred to the Touch reveals the interplay of tradition with personal and communal identity that characterize modern religious carving in Northern Europe Indigenous Research

Methodologies in Sámi and Global Contexts ,2021-05-03 This book addresses the conceptualization and practice of Indigenous research methodologies especially in S mi and North European academic contexts It examines the meaning of S mi research and research methodologies practical levels of doing Indigenous research today in different contexts as well as global debates in Indigenous research The contributors present place specific and relational S mi research approaches as well as reciprocal methodological choices in Indigenous research in North South relationships This edited volume is a result of a research collaboration in four countries where S mi people live By taking the readers to diverse local discussions the collection emphasizes communal responsibility and care as a key in doing Indigenous research Contributors are Rauni rel Vihri l Hanna Guttorm Lea Kantonen Pigga Keskitalo Ilona Kivinen Britt Kramvig Petter Morottaja Eljas Niskanen Torjer
