Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema

Culture in the Anteroom Johannes von Moltke, Gerd Gemünden, 2012-05-07 Culture in the Anteroom introduces an English speaking readership to the full range of Siegfried Kracauer s work as novelist architect journalist sociologist historian exile critic and theorist of visual culture This interdisciplinary anthology including pieces from Miriam Bratu Hansen Andreas Huyssen Noah Isenberg Lutz Koepnick Eric Rentschler and Heide Schl pmann brings together literary and film scholars historians and art historians sociologists and architects to address the scope and current relevance of a body of work dedicated to investigating all aspects of modernism and modernity The contributors approach Kracauer s writings from a variety of angles some by placing them in dialogue with his contemporaries in Weimar Germany and the New York Intellectuals of the 1940s and 50s others by exploring relatively unknown facets of Kracauer s oeuvre by considering his contributions to architectural history the history of radio as well as other new media and museum and exhibition culture

German Pop Literature Margaret McCarthy, 2015-04-24 Pop literature of the 1990s enjoyed bestselling success as well as an extensive and sometimes bluntly derogatory reception in the press Since then less censorious scholarship on pop has emerged to challenge its flash in the pan status by situating the genre within a longer history of aesthetic practices This volume draws on recent work and its attempts to define the genre locate historical antecedents and assess pop s ability to challenge the status quo Significantly it questions the official story of pop literature by looking beyond Ralf Dieter Brinkmann s works as origin to those of Jürgen Ploog Jörg Fauser and Hadayatullah H bsch It also remedies the lack of attention to questions of gender in previous pop lit scholarship and demonstrates how the genre has evolved in the new millennium via expanded thematic concerns and new aesthetic approaches Essays in the volume examine the writing of well known established pop authors such as Christian Kracht Andreas Neumeister Joachim Lottman Benjamin Lebert Florian Illies Feridun Zaimo lu and Sven Regener as well as more recent works by Jana Hensel Charlotte Roche Kerstin Grether Helene Hegemann and songwriter poet Peter Licht      Transnational German Cinema Irina Herrschner, Kirsten Stevens, Benjamin Nickl, 2021-08-31 This volume explores the notion of German cinema as both a national and increasingly transnational entity It brings together chapters that analyse the international circuits of development and distribution that shape the emerging films as part of a contemporary German cinema the events and spectacles that help frame and re frame national cinemas and their discoverability and the well known filmmakers who sit at the vanguard of the contemporary canon Thereby it explores what we understand as German cinema today and the many points where this idea of national cinema can be interrogated expanded and opened up to new readings At the heart of this interrogation is a keen awareness of the technological social economic and cultural changes that have an impact on global cinemas more broadly new distribution channels such as streaming platforms and online film festivals and audience engagement that transcends national borders as well as the cinema space International film production and financing further heightens the transnational aspects of cinema a quality that is often neglected in marketing and branding of the filmic product With particular focus on film festivals this volume explores the tensions between the national and transnational in film but also in the events that sit at the heart of global cinema culture It includes contributions from filmmakers cultural managers and other professionals in the field of film and cinema as well as scholarly contributions from academics researching popular culture film and events in relation to Germany      The German Cinema Book Tim Bergfelder, Erica Carter, Deniz Göktürk, Claudia Sandberg, 2020-02-20 This comprehensively revised updated and significantly extended edition introduces German film history from its beginnings to the present day covering key periods and movements including early and silent cinema Weimar cinema Nazi cinema the New German Cinema the Berlin School the cinema of migration and moving images in the digital era Contributions by leading international scholars are grouped into sections that focus on genre stars authorship film production distribution and exhibition theory and politics including women s and queer cinema and transnational connections Spotlight articles within each section offer key case studies including of individual films that illuminate larger histories Heimat Downfall The Lives of Others The Edge of Heaven and many more stars from Ossi Oswalda and Hans Albers to Hanna Schygulla and Nina Hoss directors including F W Murnau Walter Ruttmann Wim Wenders and Helke Sander and film theorists including Siegfried Kracauer and B la Bal zs The volume provides a methodological template for the study of a national cinema in a transnational horizon      American Culture in the 1980s Graham Thompson, 2007-03-13 This book looks beyond the common label of Ronald Reagan s America to chart the complex intersection of cultures in the 1980s In doing so it provides an insightful account of the major cultural forms of 1980s America literature and drama film and television music and performance art and photography and influential texts and trends of the decade from White Noise to Wall Street from Silicon Valley to MTV and from Madonna to Cindy Sherman A focused chapter considers the changing dynamics of American culture in an increasingly globalised marketplace H.C. Artmann's Structuralist Imagination Marc-Oliver Schuster,2010

Destination London Tim Bergfelder,Christian Cargnelli,2008-08-01 The legacy of emigr s in the British film industry from the silent film era until after the Second World War has been largely neglected in the scholarly literature Destination London is the first book to redress this imbalance Focusing on areas such as exile genre technological transfer professional training and education cross cultural exchange and representation it begins by mapping the reasons for this neglect before examining the contributions made to British cinema by emigr directors actors screenwriters cinematographers set designers and composers It goes on to assess the cultural and economic contexts of transnational industry collaborations in the 1920s artistic cosmopolitanism in the 1930s and anti Nazi propaganda in the 1940s

Post-wall German Cinema and National History Mary-Elizabeth O'Brien,2012 Since unification a radical shift has taken place in Germans view of their country s immediate past with 1989 replacing 1945 as the primary caesura The cold war division the failed socialist state the 68 student movement and the Red Army Faction historical flashpoints involving political oppression civil disobedience and the longing for utopian solutions to social injustice have come to be seen as decisive moments in a collective history that unites East and West even as it divides them Telling stories about a shared past establishing foundational myths and finding commonalities of experience are pivotal steps in the construction of national identity Such nation building is always incomplete but the cinema provides an important forum in which notions of German history and national identity can be consumed negotiated and contested This book looks at history films made since 1989 exploring how utopianism and political dissent have shaped German identity It studies the genre including popular successes critical successes and perceived failures as a set of texts and a discursive network gauging which conventions and storylines are resilient At issue is the overriding question to what extent do these films contribute to a narrative that legitimizes the German nation state Mary Elizabeth O'Brien is Professor of German and The Courtney and Steven Ross Chair in Interdisciplinary Studies at Skidmore College

Punk Rock and German Crisis C. Shahan,2013-12-04 1977 is usually associated with West German terrorism but it witnessed another cultural watershed punk music A new reckoning with the legacy of political and aesthetic spaces this book argues the centrality of punk music for understanding crises of state and terrorist violence American racism and German fascism and aesthetic production

The Berlin School and Its Global Contexts Jaimey Fisher,Marco Abel,2018-06-04 This volume will be of great interest to scholars of German and global cinema

Wim Wenders Olivier Delers,Martin Sulzer-Reichel,2020-01-23 Wim Wenders Making Films That Matter is the first book in 15 years to take a comprehensive look at Wim Wenders s extensive filmography In addition to offering new insights into his cult masterpieces the 10 essays in this volume highlight the thematic and aesthetic continuities between his early films and his latest productions Wenders s films have much to contribute to current conversations on intermediality whether it be through his adaptations of important literary works or his filmic reinventions of famous paintings by Edward Hopper or Andrew Wyeth Wenders has also positioned himself as a decidedly transnational and translingual filmmaker taking on the challenge of representing peripheral spaces without falling into the trap of a neo colonial gaze Making Films That Matter argues that Wenders remains a true innovator in both his experiments in 3D filmmaking and his attempts to define a visual poetics of peace

Postwall German Cinema Mattias Frey, 2013 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall there has been a proliferation of German historical films These productions have earned prestigious awards and succeeded at box offices both at home and abroad where they count among the most popular German films of all time Recently however the country's cinematic take on history has seen a significant new development the radical style content and politics of the New German Cinema With in depth analyses of the major trends and films this book represents a comprehensive assessment of the historical film in today's Germany Challenging previous paradigms it takes account of a postwall cinema that complexly engages with various historiographical forms and above all with film history itself

The Dark Mirror Lutz Koepnick, 2002-10-03 Lutz Koepnick's The Dark Mirror provides one of the finest most compelling and suggestive accounts to date of the multiple locations of German cinema between Hitler and Hollywood Charting the shifting relationships between institutional contexts and individual acts of reception Koepnick persuasively shows how the German cinema and its filmmakers both in exile and in Nazi Germany contributed to a fragile stratified indeed nonsynchronous public sphere Patrice Petro author of Aftershocks of the New Feminism and Film History Lutz Koepnick's brilliant study debunks the received wisdom concerning Nazi German and Hollywood film of the 1930s and 40s Using detailed analyses of 8 films with special focus on sound and music he insists upon the disjointed contexts and uneven relationships of American and German filmmaking Historically nuanced and theoretically savvy this remarkable book offers something for everyone Americanists Germanists historians students of cinema sound and music those interested in debates between art and popular forms and European and Hollywood production

Caryl Flinn author of Strains of Utopia Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e.g. amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon      The Politics of Tragedy and Democratic Citizenship Robert C. Pirro,2011-03-31 This study of the political significance of theories of tragedy and ordinary language uses of tragedy offers a fresh perspective on democracy in contemporary times      Transatlantic Cultural Exchange Katharina Gerund,2014-03-15 From Josephine Baker s performances in the 1920s to the 1970s solidarity campaigns for Angela Davis from Audre Lorde as mother of the Afro German movement in the 1980s to the literary stardom of 1993 Nobel Laureate Toni Morrison Germans have actively engaged with African American women s art and activism throughout the 20th century The discursive strategies that have shaped the West German reactions to African American women s social activism and cultural work are examined in this study which proposes not only a nuanced understanding of African Americanizations as a form of cultural exchange but also sheds new light on the role of African American culture for West German society culture and national identity      Author and Narrator Dorothee Birke,Tilmann Köppe,2015-03-10 The distinction between author and narrator is one of the cornerstones of narrative theory In the past two decades however scope implications and consequences of this distinction have become the subjects of debate This volume offers contributions to these debates from different vantage points literary studies linguistics philosophy and media studies It thus manifests the status of narrative theory as a transdisciplinary project
