France On Display Peasants Provincials And Folklore In The 1937 Paris Worlds Fair:

France on Display Shanny Peer, 1998-02-26 Winner of the 1999 Laurence Wylie Prize in French Cultural Studies presented by the Association for French Cultural Studies The 1937 Paris World's Fair presented a traditionalist image of France as a rural provincial country faithful to its folk traditions and to its Old World heritage France's attachment well into the twentieth century to its traditionalist roots has often been interpreted by scholars as a reactionary impulse a desire to resist modernization or a wish to return to the past However in this book Peer argues that this enduring attachment in Third Republic France to peasants provincials and folklore was not inherently reactionary or anti modernist Instead these aspects of France's traditional heritage were refashioned in new ways to allow France to modernize while still retaining its distinctive identity

France on Display Shanny Peer, 1998-01-01 Explores national identity in twentieth century France Festival Architecture Sarah Bonnemaïson, Christine Macy, 2007-12-06 With contributions from provocative art and architectural historians this book is a unique exposition of the temporary architecture erected for festivals and the role it has played in developing Western architectural and urban theory Festival Architecture is arranged in historical periods from Antiquity to the modern era and divided between analyses of specific festivals set in relation to contemporary architecture and urban design ideas and theories Illustrated with a wealth of unusual and rarely seen images from the European festival tradition this is a fascinating outline of the history of festival architecture ideal for postgraduate architecture and urban design students

Races on Display Dana S. Hale, 2008-03-27 While European commerce in race was substantial the colonial trade in ideas of race was highly profitable as well Looking at official propaganda and commercial representations in France during the Third Republic this book explores the way the French increased the value of their racial identity at home at the expense of their colonized brothers and sisters The French did not create the identity effacing stereotypes of Africans Arabs and Indochinese Instead they refined or remolded these images and as they did so they redefined and remolded their images of themselves Focusing on world's fairs colonial expositions and mundane manufacturers trademarks Races on Display shows not only the prevalence of racial stereotypes but also how complex these representations prove to be Picasso's War Russell Martin, 2012-02 The destruction of a town and the creation of a masterpiece On April 26 1937 in the late afternoon of a busy market day in the Basque town of Gernika in northern Spain the German Luftwaffe began the relentless bombing and machine gunning of buildings and villagers at the request of General Francisco Franco and his rebel forces Three and a half hours later the village lay in ruins its population decimated This act of terror and unspeakable cruelty the first intentional large scale attack against a nonmilitary target in modern warfare outraged the world and one man in particular Pablo Picasso The renowned artist an expatriate living in Paris reacted immediately to the devastation in his homeland by creating the canvas that would become widely considered one of the greatest artworks of the twentieth century Guernica Weaving themes of conflict and redemption of the horrors of war and of the power of art to transfigure tragedy Russell Martin follows this monumental work from its fevered creation through its journey across decades and continents from Europe to America and finally and triumphantly to democratic Spain Full of historical sweep and deeply moving drama Picasso's War delivers an unforgettable portrait of a painting the dramatic events that led to its creation and its ongoing power today World Fairs and the Global Moulding of National Identities, 2021-11-01 This volume examines the role of the broad variety of international exhibitions between 1851 and 1958 in two programmatic essays and twelve case studies covering not just France and the United States but also among others Sweden Romania Colombia Japan and the nascent European Community World fairs were global platforms for the construction of national identities The mix of national self profiling and commercial exoticism turned the nation into a brand while reframing the nation state from its nineteenth century positioning amidst neighbouring enemies towards being a competitor in a global consumer oriented trade and entertainment economy By presenting national identities in banal form as feelgood factors world fairs helped the nation to maintain its grassroots appeal across the century of totalitarianism and internationalism Contributors are Joep Leerssen Eric Storm Florian Gro Anthony Swift Cosmin Minea Claire Hendren Taka Oshikiri Robert W Rydell Sven Schuster Miriam Oesterreich Bartosz Dzievanowski Stefa czyk Christina Romlid Jonathan Voges and Anastasia Remes Women in International and Universal Exhibitions, 1876-1937 Rebecca Rogers, Myriam Boussahba-Bravard, 2017-08-14 This book argues for the importance of bringing women and gender more directly into the dynamic field of exposition studies Reclaiming women for the history of world fairs 1876-1937 it also seeks to introduce new voices into these studies dialoguing across disciplinary and national historiographies From the outset women participated not only as spectators but also as artists writers educators artisans and workers without figuring among the organizers of international exhibitions until the 20th century Their presence became more pointedly acknowledged as feminist movements developed within the Western World and specific spaces dedicated to women's achievements emerged International exhibitions emerged as showcases of modernity and progress but also as windows onto the foreign the different the unexpected and the spectacular As public rituals of celebration they transposed national ceremonies and protests onto an international stage For spectators exhibitions brought the world home for organizers the entire world was a fair Women were actors and writers of the fair narrative although acknowledgment of their contribution was uneven and often ephemeral Uncovering such silence highlights how gendered the triumphant history of modernity was and reveals the ways women as a category engaged with modern life within that quintessential modern space the world fair Creole Medievalism Michelle R. Warren, 2011 How a scholar's multilingual multiracial background created a French medieval ideal The Melodramatic Thread James R. Lehning, 2007-07-09 This ambitious undertaking is concerned with the melodramatic form in theatre and film and its impact on French political culture H France Review In France both political culture and theatrical performances have drawn upon melodrama This melodramatic thread helped weave the country's political life as it moved from monarchy to democracy By examining the relationship between public ceremonies and theatrical performance James R Lehning sheds light on democratization in modern France He explores the extent to which the dramatic forms were present in the public performance of political power By concentrating on the Republic and the Revolution and on theatrical performance Lehning affirms the importance of examining the performative aspects of French political culture for understanding the political differences that have marked France in the years since 1789 In this thoroughly researched and persuasive book Lehning provides a fascinating reading of public performances in modern France This is an important contribution to the study of French culture and the democratization process Essential Choice Lehning's application of the themes of melodrama to French political culture offers new insights into French history His style is lively clear and highly readable Venita Datta Wellesley College The analyses in this book make a real contribution to debates about the ways in which art particularly popular art and politics interact how politics itself is theatrical in the French case and the role of ritual in politics and the function of politics as ritual and ceremony John Gaffney Aston University French Musical Life Katharine Ellis, 2022 Explicitly or not the historical musicology of post Revolutionary France has focused on Paris as a proxy for the rest of the country This distorting lens is the legacy of political and cultural struggle during the long nineteenth century indicating a French Revolution unresolved both then and now In light of the capital's power as the seat of a centralizing French state which provincials found colonizing and as a cosmopolitan musical crossroads of nineteenth century Europe the struggles inherent in creating sustainable musical cultures outside Paris and in composing local and regionalist music are ripe for analysis Replacement of France with Paris has encouraged normative history writing articulated by the capital's opera and concert life Regional practices have been ignored disparaged or treated piecemeal This book is a study of French musical centralization and its discontents during the period leading up to and beyond the provincial awakening of the Belle époque The book explains how different kinds of artistic decentralization and regionalism were hard won or not across a politically turbulent century from the 1830s to World War II In doing so it redraws the historical map of musical power relations in mainland France Based on work in over 70 archives chapters on conservatoires concert life stage music folk music and composition reveal how tensions of State and locality played out differently depending on the structures and funding mechanisms in place the musical priorities of different communities and the presence or absence of galvanizing musicians Progressively the book shifts from musical contexts to musical content exploring the pressure point of folk music and its translation into local color for officials who perpetually feared national division Control over composition on the one hand and the emotional intensity of folk based musical experience on the other emerges as a matter of consistent official praxis In terms of French music and its compositional styles what results is a surprising new historiography of French neoclassicism bound into and growing out of a study of diversity and its limits in daily musical life Americanism, Media and the Politics of Culture in 1930s France David A. Pettersen, 2016-05-20 First book to focus on Americanism and its consideration of French film and literature The book is organized around individual figures texts and films making it easy to adopt for individual units in courses The book is written in clear accessible and jargon free language The book brings a new and innovative transatlantic perspective to 1930s French culture The books offers new perspectives on important figures that we thought we knew well The book mixes cultural history with the analysis of individual films and novels in a way that is engaging to read Angkor Wat - A Transcultural History of Heritage Michael Falser,2019-12-16 This book unravels the formation of the modern concept of cultural heritage by charting its colonial postcolonial nationalist and global trajectories By bringing to light many unresearched dimensions of the twelfth century Cambodian temple of Angkor Wat during its modern history the study argues for a conceptual connected history that unfolded within the transcultural interstices of European and Asian projects With more than 1 400 black and white and colour illustrations of historic photographs architectural plans and samples of public media the monograph discusses the multiple lives of Angkor Wat over a 150 year long period from the 1860s to the 2010s Volume 1 Angkor in France reconceptualises the Orientalist French colonial discovery of the temple in the nineteenth century and brings to light the manifold strategies at play in its physical representations as plaster cast substitutes in museums and as hybrid pavilions in universal and colonial exhibitions in Marseille and Paris from 1867 to 1937 Volume 2 Angkor in Cambodia covers for the first time in this depth the various on site restoration efforts inside the Archaeological Park of Angkor from 1907 until 1970 and the temple s gradual canonisation as a symbol of national identity during Cambodia s troublesome decolonisation 1953 89 from independence to Khmer Rouge terror and Vietnamese occupation and finally as a global icon of UNESCO World Heritage since 1992 until today Congratulations to our author Michael Falser who received the prestigious 2021 ICAS Book Prize in the Ground Breaking Subject Matter category The French empire between the wars Martin Thomas,2017-03-01 By considering the distinctiveness of the inter war years as a discrete period of colonial change this book addresses several larger issues such as tracing the origins of decolonization in the rise of colonial nationalism and a re assessment of the impact of inter war colonial rebellions in Africa Syria and Indochina The book also connects French theories of colonial governance to the lived experience of colonial rule in a period scarred by war and economic dislocation The French in Love and War Charles Rearick,1997-01-01 Describes developments in French popular culture between 1914 and 1945 and argues that the harsh times led to the emergence of images glorifying the common Frenchman in songs film and popular literature

Environment-Space-Place, Volume 3 / Issue 1 (Spring 2011) Gary Backhaus,2011-01-01 Architecture of Regionalism in the Age of Globalization Liane Lefaivre,Alexander Tzonis,2020-12-13 This book remains the definitive introductory text on the theory and history of regionalist architecture in the context of globalization It addresses issues of identity diversity community inequality geopolitics and sustainability From the authors who coined the concept of Critical Regionalism this new edition enhances the understanding of the complex evolution of regionalism and its rival unchecked globalization Covering a rich selection of the most outstanding examples of design from all over the world Liane Lefaivre and

Alexander Tzonis who introduced the concept of Critical Regionalism to architecture present an enlightening concise historical analysis of the endurance of regionalism and the ceaseless drive for globalization New case studies include current cutting edge projects in Japan Africa China and the United States Architecture of Regionalism in the Age of Globalization offers undergraduate and graduate students of architecture geography history environmental studies and other related fields an accessible vivid and scholarly perspective of this major conflict as it relates to the design and to the future of the human made environment

Reappraisals Tony Judt, 2008-04-17 Exhilarating brave and forthright The New York Times Book Review Perhaps the greatest single collection of thinking on the political diplomatic social and cultural history of the past century Forbes We have entered an age of forgetting Our world we insist is unprecedented wholly new The past has nothing to teach us Drawing provocative connections between a dazzling range of subjects from Jewish intellectuals and the challenge of evil in the recent European past to the interpretation of the Cold War and the displacement of history by heritage the late historian Tony Judt takes us beyond what we think we know of the past to explain how we came to know it showing how much of our history has been sacrificed in the triumph of myth making over understanding and denial over memory Reappraisals offers a much needed road map back to the historical sense we urgently need Judt's book Ill Fares the Land republished in 2021 featuring a new preface by bestselling author of Between the World and Me and The Water Dancer Ta Nehisi Coates

Cultures of International Exhibitions 1840-1940 Marta Filipová, 2017-07-05 Beyond the great exhibitions expositions universelles and world fairs in London Paris or Chicago numerous smaller yet ambitious exhibitions took place in provincial cities and towns across the world Focusing on the period between 1840 and 1940 this volume takes a novel look at the exhibitionary cultures of this period and examines the motivations scope and impact of lesser known exhibitions in for example Australia Japan Brazil as well as a number of European countries The individual case studies included explore the role of these exhibitions in the global exhibitionary network and consider their marginality related to their location and omission by academic research so far The chapters also highlight a number of important issues from regional or national identities the role of modernisation and tradition to the relationship between capital cities and provincial towns present in these exhibitions They also address the key topic of colonial exhibitions as well as the displays of arts and design in the context of the so called marginal fairs Cultures of International Exhibitions 1840 1940 Great Exhibitions in the Margins therefore opens up new angles in the way the global phenomenon of a great exhibition can be examined through the prism of the regional and will make a vital contribution to those interested in exhibition studies and related fields
