Stiles, 2009-10-26 Stiles utilizes in depth ethnographic study of judicial reasoning and litigant activity in Islamic family court in Zanzibar Tanzania to draw new and important conclusions on how people understand and use Islamic legal ideas in marital disputes      Friends: Teacher's book James David Cooper, 1999      The Unexpected Unseen Hamid Rafizadeh, 2018-06-19 John Reagan is a retired policeman who is stuck in a purgatory of his own making until the events of September 11 2001 prompt him to view every foreigner as a potential enemy One day when he realizes his neighbor is hosting suspicious meetings in his basement Reagan grabs his binoculars and a microphone and does everything he can to find out what is going on and if they are terrorists Inside the walls of the dark and musty basement a man has recruited a group of seekers that include an Indian an Egyptian a Jew and a Greek professor willing to listen to his radical ideas on prehistory Through years of research he has concluded that all of humankind's prehistory originated when Earth passed through a giant comet's swarm of fragments As Reagan stealthily continues his self imposed investigation the small band of seekers attempts to determine how to accept this seemingly unbelievable truth from millennia past The only alternative is to remain ignorant of Earth's two versions a mistake with potentially disastrous consequences In this gripping science fiction thriller a retired cop and a revolutionary group delve into ancient history as the startling discovery of Earth's two versions is revealed      It Happened In Casablanca Hassan El Garch, 2010-12-30      The Book of Fate Parinoush Saniee, 2013-08-31 Selected as one of World Literature Today's 75 Notable Translations of 2013 Spanning five turbulent decades in Iranian history from before the 1979 revolution through the Islamic Republic and up to the present The Book of Fate is a powerful story of friendship and passion fear and hope A teenager in pre revolutionary Tehran Massoumeh is an average girl passionate about learning On her way to school she meets a local man and falls in love but when her family discovers his letters they accuse her of bringing them dishonour She is badly beaten by her brother and her parents hastily arrange for her to marry a man she's never met Facing a life without love and the prospect of no education Massoumeh is distraught but a female neighbour urges her to comply We each have a destiny and you can't fight yours The years that follow Massoumeh's wedding prove transformative for Iran Hamid Massoumeh's husband is a political dissident and a threat to the Shah's regime When the secret service arrive to arrest him it is the start of a terrifying period for Massoumeh Her fate so long dictated by family loyalty and tradition is now tied to the changing fortunes of her country      Refugee Azmat Ashraf, 2020-08-21 Following a bloody violent struggle in 1971 East Pakistan became the independent state of Bangladesh Caught in the midst of this conflict were the Biharis a Muslim minority group who originally fled the Indian state of Bihar when India was partitioned by the British in 1947 Author

Azmat Ashraf himself a Bihari was one year old when his family escaped India in 1953 for the relative safety of East Pakistan. Less than two decades later after building a solid life for themselves his family were targeted by communal violence during Bangladesh's turbulent birth in which most of Azmat's family members were killed. On the road once again it wasn't until 2002 nearly fifty years after his first migration that Azmat finally completed his epic search for a home settling in Canada with his wife and three daughters. This book is a memoir of one family's fight for survival and to rebuild their lives following a series of unimaginable tragedies. It is a story of human resilience in the face of evil of real love and true friendship and an inspiration for refugees everywhere who are struggling to find a place of security and prosperity in this world. Despite the personal tragedies that Azmat and his family have suffered he has taken great care to provide a balanced view of the conflict of 1971 to help Pakistanis and Bangladeshis in particular and people of the subcontinent in general understand this painful part of their mutual history.

Confessions of an Old Boy Kam Raslan, 2007      Edge of Truth Brynn Kelly, 2017-05-30
Edge of Truth has it all danger desire and heart pounding action. Brynn Kelly captures you on page one and doesn't let go. Laura Griffin New York Times bestselling author Rotting in an African dungeon is the last place journalist Tess Newell expected to find herself. Held hostage by the terrorist group she's been investigating Tess's salvation and temptation arrives in the form of another prisoner. A French Foreign Legionnaire with a sinful smile and too many secrets to be anything but dangerous. Yet she knows he's her only hope of surviving. The Legion is the only family Flynn has. His sanctuary and his purgatory after years spent in hell. When a mission goes south and Flynn is captured it's not the enemy that worries him but rather the brazen alluring reporter whose prying questions threaten to bring down his world and the walls he's built around his heart. Yet after a daring escape Flynn must risk it all and go on the run with Tess to retrieve the evidence she needs. The chemistry between them threatens to detonate but with the enemy fast closing in time is running out to unravel the truth from the lies in this deadly conspiracy. A breathtaking romantic thriller. The characters are so real they leap off the page the love story is hot and the action never lets up. I couldn't put it down. Karen Robards New York Times bestselling author Brynn Kelly will capture your heart and leave you breathless in this passionate harrowing novel of romantic suspense. A must read. Brenda Novak New York Times bestselling author      Mahjubah , 1994      The Nineteenth Century and After , 1909

The Twentieth Century , 1909      Mirrors Naguib Mahfouz, 1999, กระจก      Mirrors is one of Nobel laureate Naguib Mahfouz's more unusual works. First published in serialized form in the Egyptian television magazine it consists of a series of vignettes of characters from a writer's life a writer very like Mahfouz himself. And accompanying each vignette is a portrait of the character by a friend of the author the renowned Alexandrian artist Seif Wanli. Through each vignette whether of a lifelong friend a sometime adversary or a childhood sweetheart not only is that one character described but much light is thrown on other characters already familiar or yet to be encountered as well as on the narrator himself who we come to know well through the mirrors of his world of acquaintances. At the same time Mirrors also reflects the recent history of Egypt its political movements its leaders its wars and its peace all of which affect the lives of friends and enemies and of the narrator himself As the translator writes in his Introduction the narrator s acquaintances from childhood schooldays and civil service career take him from the lofty heights of intellectual salons to the seamy squalor of brothels and drug dens from the dreams of youth and nationalistic ideals to the sobering realities of post revolutionary society and clashing economic and political values The apparently simple but penetrating portraits by Seif Wanli add an extra distinctive dimension to this already intriguing book They originally appeared with the serialized texts in the television magazine but were omitted when the book was first published in 1972 and were also omitted when the English translation first appeared in 1977 Now in this special edition the pictures and the complete text appear together for the first time      Strand Magazine ,1909      The Strand Magazine Herbert Greenhough Smith,1909
