Hammering Swords Into Ploughshares Buti Tlhagale, Itumeleng Jerry Mosala, 1987      Hammering Swords Into Ploughshares, 1987      Hammering Swords Into Ploughshares Buti Tlhagale, Itumeleng Jerry Mosala, 1986      Desmond Tutu Michael Battle, 2021-03-16 The first biography of its kind about Desmond Tutu this book introduces readers to Tutu's spiritual life and examines how it shaped his commitment to restorative justice and reconciliation Desmond Tutu was a pivotal leader of the anti apartheid movement in South Africa and remains a beloved and important emblem of peace and justice around the world Even those who do not know the major events of Tutu's life receiving the Nobel Peace Prize in 1984 serving as the first black archbishop of Cape Town and primate of Southern Africa from 1986 1996 and chairing the Truth and Reconciliation Commission from 1995 1998 recognize him as a charismatic political and religious leader who helped facilitate the liberation of oppressed peoples from the ravages of colonialism But the inner landscape of Tutu's spirituality the mystical grounding that spurred his outward accomplishments often goes unseen Rather than recount his entire life story this book explores Tutu's spiritual life and contemplative practices particularly Tutu's understanding of Ubuntu theology which emphasizes finding one's identity in community and traces the powerful role they played in subverting the theological and spiritual underpinnings of apartheid Michael Battle's personal relationship with Tutu grants readers an inside view of how Tutu's spiritual agency cast a vision that both upheld the demands of justice and created space to synthesize the stark differences of a diverse society Battle also suggests that North Americans have much to learn from Tutu's leadership model as they confront religious and political polarization in their own context      Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit, 2007-04-01 What is the role of the church in society What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid in the struggle against apartheid and during the period of transformation The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these They are all occasional pieces They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated always intended for specific audiences always addressing issues of the particular moment      The Ambivalence of the Sacred Scott R. Appleby, 2000 This text explains what religious terrorists and religious peacemakers share in common and what causes them to take different paths in fighting injustice      Social Memory as a Force for Social and Economic Transformation Muxe Nkondo, 2023-02-01 This volume of essays is a reflection on social memory as a force for social and economic transformation Written by scholars and organic intellectuals it focuses on the uses of social memory in particular the conflict between the legacies of colonialism and the movement for fundamental change The content addresses both experts and ordinary citizens alike with a view to advancing discourse on where we are right now and how we move on from here to achieve meaningful transformation As scholars and public representatives with a deep understanding of the social economic and political dynamics of modern history of South Africa the contributors offer their unique perspectives and reflections on history politics economics culture education ethics and the arts as well as the links that bind these aspects into an ecology of ideas and attitudes      Secular Discourse on Sin in the Anthropocene Ernst M. Conradie, 2020-10-13 In Secular Discourse on Sin in the Anthropocene What's Wrong with the World Ernst M. Conradie utilizes a notion of social diagnostics to explore not only the surface level symptoms of ecological destruction but also its ultimate causes. Conradie uses two toolkits to review secular literature on the Anthropocene: namely the prophetic and pastoral vocabulary of Christian sin talk and the theological critique against apartheid in South Africa. Various layers of the underlying problem are uncovered on this basis, including unsustainable habits of the heart, structural violence, the ideologies of unlimited economic growth and humanism, quasi soteriologies such as climate engineering, idolatries such as self divinization and heresy. Conradie offers authentic discourse on the Anthropocene from the perspective of the global South and includes a theological postscript to posit tentative suggestions as to what God may have in store for humanity in this time. Scholars of theology, environmental studies and history will find this book particularly useful.

Liberal Quaker Reconciliation Theology: A Constructive Approach Christy Randazzo, 2020-02-17 This work brings the fields of Christian theologies of atonement and reconciliation and Liberal Quaker theology into dialogue and lays the foundation for developing an original Liberal Quaker reconciliation theology. This dialogue focuses specifically on the metaphorical language employed to describe the relationship of interdependence between humans and God, which both traditions hold as integral to their conceptions of human and divine existence. It focuses on these areas: the sin of human division and exclusion, atonement and reunification of humans and God as a response to sin, and the metaphors Liberal Quakers use to describe this interdependent relationship, specifically the metaphor of Light. This unique approach develops an original model of reconciliatory interdependence between humans and God that is rooted in both Christological and Universalist Liberal Quaker metaphorical and theological categories and utilizes the Liberal Quaker language of God as interdependent Light towards a new theology.

The Credo of Eight Black Leaders John J. Ansbro, 2005-05-10 Based on a detailed analysis of 21,000 pages of primary works including numerous biographies, this book presents that author's formulations of the objectives, strategies and tactics of eight African American and African activists: Frederick Douglass, Booker T. Washington, Marcus Garvey, W. E. B. Du Bois, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, and Archbishop Desmond Tutu. As seen in the New York Times Book Review section.

Poverty in the Book of Proverbs Lechion Peter Kimilike, 2008 The growth of the Christian church in sub-Saharan Africa is reflected in a wide range of attempts at contextualizing Christian theology and biblical interpretation in Africa. Theologians and biblical scholars relate the historical traditions and sources of Christianity to the socio and religious cultural context of Africa. This series aims at making African theology and biblical interpretation its subject as well as object as the concerns of African theologians and biblical interpreters will be analyzed.

Conceptions of God, Freedom, and Ethics in African American and Jewish Theology K. Buhring, 2008-05-12 This book is a consideration of major contemporary Black and Jewish understanding of God, examining how profound faith in a just God is sustained and even strengthened in the face of particularly horrific and long standing evil.

and suffering in a community      African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Mari-Anna Pöntinen, 2013-02-14 In African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Celebrating Life and Harmony in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botswana Mari Anna Pöntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the Christian faith in this church These interpretations draw from the Tswana tradition and liberation in Christ      The Cambridge Companion to Black Theology Dwight N. Hopkins, Edward P. Antonio, 2012-07-26 This volume discusses normative theological categories from a black perspective and argues that there is no major Christian doctrine on which black theology has not commented Part One explores introductory questions such as what have been the historical and social factors fostering a black theology and what are some of the internal factors key to its growth Part Two examines major doctrines which have been important for black theology in terms of clarifying key intellectual foci common to the study of religion The final part discusses black theology as a world wide development constituted by interdisciplinary approaches The volume has an important role in bringing Christian thought into confrontation with one of the central challenges of modernity namely the problem of race and racism This Companion puts theological themes in conversation with issues of ethnicity gender social analysis politics and class and is ideal for undergraduate and graduate students      African Theology Emmanuel Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey's African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey's understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent      Encyclopedia of Protestantism J. Gordon Melton, 2005 An illustrated A to Z reference containing over 600 entries providing information on the theology people historical events institutions and movements related to Protestantism      Mission as Accompaniment Brian E. Konkol, 2017-06-15 Mechanistic dehumanization occurs when human beings are objectified and exploited as a means to an end comparable to expendable components of a machine This misconception of human value is a source and sustainer of overproduction an excess of consumption and the pursuit of unrestrained economic growth damaging both people and the planet Can the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America ELCA Global Mission respond to mechanistic dehumanization through mission as accompaniment The notion of mission as accompaniment which emerges from liberation theology and development methodology promotes solidarity among church companions that embodies interdependence and mutuality Grounded in the New Testament expression of koinonia Mission as Accompaniment is affirmed in this study as a suitable foundation to counteract mechanistic dehumanization Through this research with the University of KwaZulu Natal South Africa Theology and Development program Brian E Konkol incorporates economics ecology anthropology and postcolonial missiology He maintains that two particular elements the African concept of Ubuntu and an Olive Agenda when integrated into mission as accompaniment will equip the ELCA Global Mission with an advocacy driven trajectory in response to mechanistic dehumanization

Social Justice and Deep Participation Paula Donnelly Roark, 2014-11-24 Knowing what deep participation is and how it works can make a critical difference in solving 21st century economic political and social problems This book provides a new approach to hands on change and begins formulation of a participatory social theory promising greater prosperity and justice for all

A Church for the Future Harold T. Lewis, 2007-10 Examines current issues facing the Anglican Communion through the prism of the history of the Southern African church and people Through this combined narrative of the global and local church the author offers a remarkable story combining history race class and culture in Africa He traces the paradigm shift in Anglicanism as its vitality moves beyond the borders of England and America to the global South with all the theological implications Today South African Anglicanism attempts a middle way through crucial issues like HIV AIDS poverty and human sexuality Ideal for those interested in inculturation the intersection of church culture and ethnicity
