avant garde the role of the artist technology and art and the society of the spectacle Memory & Oblivion A.W.

Reinink, Jeroen Stumpel, 2012-12-06 Memory is a subject that recently has attracted many scholars and readers not only in the general historical sciences but also in the special field of art history However in this book in which more than 130 papers given at the XXIXth International Congress of the History of Art Amsterdam 1996 have been compiled Memory is also juxtaposed to its counterpart Oblivion thus generating extra excitement in the exchange of ideas The papers are presented in eleven sections each of which is devoted to a different aspect of memory and oblivion ranging from purely material aspects of preservation to social phenomena with regard to art collecting from the memory of the art historian to workshop practices from art in antiquity to the newest media from Buddhist iconography to the Berlin Wall The book addresses readers in the field of history history of art and psychology Women Artists on the Leading Edge Joan M. Marter, 2019-10-07

How do students develop a personal style from their instruction in a visual arts program Women Artists on the Leading Edge explores this question as it describes the emergence of an important group of young women artists from an innovative post war visual arts program at Douglass College The women who studied with avant garde artists at Douglas were among the first students in the nation to be introduced to performance art conceptual art Fluxus and Pop Art These young artists were among the first to experience new approaches to artmaking that rejected the predominant style of the 1950s Abstract Expressionism The New Art espoused by faculty including Robert Watts Allan Kaprow Roy Lichtenstein Geoffrey Hendricks and others advocated that art should be based on everyday life The phrase anything can be art was frequently repeated in the creation of Happenings multi media installations and video art Experimental approaches to methods of creation using a remarkable range of materials were investigated by these young women Interdisciplinary aspects of the Douglass curriculum became the basis for performances videos photography and constructions Sculpture was created using new technologies and industrial materials The Douglass women artists included in this book were among the first to implement the message and direction of their instructors Ultimately the artistic careers of these young women have reflected the successful interaction of students with a cutting edge faculty From this BA and MFA program in the Visual Arts emerged women such as Alice Aycock Rita Myers Joan Snyder Mimi Smith and Jackie Winsor who went on to become lifelong innovators Camaraderie was important among the Douglass art students and many continue to be instructors within a close circle of associates from their college years Even before the inception of the women s art movement of the 1970s these women students were encouraged to pursue professional careers and to remain independent in their approach to making art The message of the New Art was to relate one s art production to life itself and to personal experiences From these directions emerged a proto feminist art of great originality identified with women s issues The legacy of these artists can be found in radical changes in art instruction since the 1950s the promotion of non hierarchical approaches to media and acceptance of conceptual art as a viable art form

After Modern Art 1945-2000 David Hopkins, 2000-09-14 Contemporary art can be baffling and beautiful provocative and disturbing This pioneering book presents a new look at the controversial period between 1945 and 2000 when art and its traditional forms were called into question It focuses on the relationship between American and European art and challenges previously held views about the origins of some of the most innovative ideas in art of this time Major artists such as Jackson Pollock Jasper Johns Yves Klein Andy Warhol Louise Bourgeois Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst are all discussed as is the art world of the last fifty years Important trends are also covered including Abstract Expressionism Pop Art Minimalism Conceptualism Postmodernism and the art of the nineties Essays in a Pluralistic Art World Arthur C. Danto,2001-09-04 Danto writes about the contemporary art to be seen in museums and galleries placing it in the context of the history of modern art and of current debates about essential ideas in our society Edward Ruscha Lisa Turvey,2014-01-01 An immense contribution to scholarship on Ed Ruscha and his pioneering artistic practice offering thorough documentation of his works on paper This highly anticipated book the first in a series of three comprehensively chronicles the first two decades of Ed Ruscha s b 1937 work on paper which comprises the largest component of his production of original works Over 1 000 works on paper are documented all created between 1956 and 1976 and they encompass a wide range of formats materials themes and styles Included are collages ephemeral sketches preparatory studies for paintings oil on paper works and drawings executed in a variety of inventive materials including gunpowder and organic substances Ruscha came to prominence in the early 1960s as part of the Pop art movement although his work equally engages the legacies of Dada Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism as well as the Conceptual art that emerged later in the decade He has long enjoyed international standing and admiration and his work is widely known Despite this recognition this volume contains hundreds of works that have infrequently or never been exhibited or published Each work is catalogued with a color reproduction collection details full chronological provenance exhibition history and bibliographic references Essays by Lisa Turvey and Harry Cooper complete this extraordinary survey which expands and enriches our understanding of Ruscha s pioneering exploration of the written word as a subject for visual art and his witty assessment of the iconography of Los Angeles both real and imagined Wayne Thiebaud Rachel Teagle,2018-01-16 Published on the occasion of the exhibition Wayne Thiebaud 1958 1968 organized and presented by the Jan Shrem and Maria Manetti Shrem Museum of Art January 16 May 14 2018 Copyright page Seeing Through the Seventies Laura Cottingham,2013-11-05 In recent years Laura Cottingham has emerged as one of the most visible feminist critics of the so called post feminist generation Following a social political approach to art history and criticism that accepts visual culture as part of a larger social reality Cottingham s writings investigate central tensions currently operative in the production distribution and evaluation of art especially those related to cultural production by and about women Seeing Through the Seventies Essays on Feminism and Art gathers together Cottingham s key essays from the 1990 s These include an appraisal of Lucy R Lippard the most influential feminist art critic of the 1970 s a critique of the masculinist bias implicit to modernism and explicitly recuperated by commercially successful artists during the 1980s an exhaustive analysis of the curatorial failures operative in the Bad Girls museum exhibitions of the early 1990s surveys of feminist influenced art practices during the women s liberationist period speculations on the current possibilities and obstacles that attend efforts to recover lesbian cultural history and an examination of the life work and obscuration of the early twentieth century French photographer Claude Cahun

Marcel Duchamp and Max Ernst David Hopkins,1998 David Hopkins analyses the extensive network of shared concerns and images in the work of Marcel Duchamp and Max Ernst the greatest names associated with Dada and Surrealist art This book covers a broad period from c 1912 to the mid 1940s during which the emergence of Dada and Surrealism in Europe and the United States challenged earlier movements such as Cubism and Expressionism creating scope for the expression of the unconscious fears and desires of artists acutely sensitive to the troubled nature of their times Examining Duchamp s and Ernst s subversion and manipulation of religious and hermetic beliefs such as Catholicism Rosicrucianism and Masonry David Hopkins demonstrates the ways in which these esoteric concerns intersect with themes of peculiarly contemporary relevance including the social construction of gender and notions of ordering and taxonomy This detailed comparison of components of Duchamp s and Ernst s work reveals fascinating structural patterns enabling the reader to discover an entirely new way of understanding the mechanisms underlying Dada and Surrealist iconography

Warhol's Working Class Anthony E. Grudin,2017-10-20 This book explores Andy Warhol s creative engagement with social class During the 1960s as neoliberalism perpetuated the idea that fixed classes were a mirage and status an individual achievement Warhol s work appropriated images techniques and technologies that have long been described as generically American or middle class Drawing on archival and theoretical research into Warhol s contemporary cultural milieu Grudin demonstrates that these features of Warhol s work were in fact closely associated with the American working class The emergent technologies Warhol conspicuously employed to make his work home projectors tape recorders film and still cameras were advertised directly to the working class as new opportunities for cultural participation What s more some of Warhol s most iconic subjects Campbell s soup Brillo pads Coca Cola were similarly targeted since working class Americans under threat from a variety of directions were thought to desire the security and confidence offered by national brands Having propelled himself from an impoverished childhood in Pittsburgh to the heights of Madison Avenue Warhol knew both sides of this equation the intense appeal that popular culture held for working class audiences and the ways in which the advertising industry hoped to harness this appeal in the face of growing middle class skepticism regarding manipulative marketing Warhol was fascinated by these promises of egalitarian individualism and mobility which could be profound and deceptive generative and paralyzing charged with strange forms of desire By tracing its intersections with various forms of popular culture including film music and television Grudin shows us how Warhol s work disseminated these promises while also providing a record of their intricate tensions and transformations Dictionary of International Contemporary Artists Rachele Ferrario, Paola Gaggiotti, 1995 After Modern Art David Hopkins, 2018-06-14
