Smith, Leonard Handler, 2015-09-07 This book highlights assessment techniques issues and procedures that appeal to practicing clinicians Rather than a comprehensive Handbook of various tests and measures The Clinical Assessment of Children and Adolescents is a practitioner friendly text that provides guidance for test selection interpretation and application With topics ranging from personality assessment to behavioral assessment to the assessment of depression and thought disorder the leaders in the field of child and adolescent measurement outline selection and interpretation of measures in a manner that is most relevant to clinicians and graduate students Each chapter makes use of extensive case material in order to highlight issues of applicability TEMAS (Tell-Me-A-Story) Assessment in Multicultural Societies Giuseppe Costantino, Richard H. Dana, Robert G. Malgady, 2020-08-26 Ethnic minority children now comprise over 75 percent of students in 100 of the largest cities in the United States However these students have not been given equal access to nor benefited from the contemporary mental health system as have their non minority peers TEMAS Tell Me A Story Assessment in Multicultural Societies examines the health mental care system in which professional service providers including psychologists labor to offer quality care for youth in the United States The authors ardently support the use of the TEMAS assessment instrument as a useful tool for diagnosis of all youngsters particularly its use on the growing population of minority children and adolescents Part I presents a rationale and context for employing TEMAS Introductory chapters describe the mental health status of the population at risk as well as systems of care for youth where assessment and intervention are components Topics to follow highlight a history of positive TEMAS test reviews with the detail required by instructors for preparing dedicated TEMAS courses The volume thoroughly outlines cross cultural studies and illustrates case examples of European American Hispanic Latino Asian American and forensic studies TEMAS Tell Me A Story Assessment in Multicultural Societies brings practical insight to instructors who teach standard assessment courses clinicians counselors and school psychologists assessment specialists and administrators concerned with mental health services designed for children and adolescents Culturally Adaptive Counseling Skills Miguel E. Gallardo, Christine J. Yeh, Joseph E. Trimble, 2011-01-24 The intent of this book is to shift from a top down to a bottom up perspective in the way that we understand ethnocultural communities The book outlines the Skills Identification Stage Model SISIM as initially proposed by Parham 2002 to establish specific skills in working with African American communities In addition to highlighting the original African American model the book has adapted the model to highlight its utility with the Asian Latino Native and

Middle Eastern American communities Each specific ethnocultural community is addressed with case examples to highlight the model's implementation In addition the book addresses how the content can be integrated into the classroom and how it can help students develop the needed skills to respond to the needs of ethnocultural communities The book also addresses future implications for education training practice and research and elaborates on the multiple perspectives in attempting to understand and further develop a multicultural framework Provided by publisher Assessing Children in the Urban Community Barbara L Mercer, Tricia Fong, Erin Rosenblatt, 2015-12-22 This book illuminates the process of child psychological assessment in community psychology through discussion theory and case studies of collaborative systemic treatment of children and their parents Assessing Children in the Urban Community presents a semi structured form of collaborative psychological assessment designed to help clients gain new insights and make changes in their lives Traditional psychological assessment focuses on diagnosis and treatment but has been slow to include contextual elements particularly social and cultural contexts into the assessment process and psychological report Clients receiving services in a community psychology clinic pay for their treatment through state welfare coverage They cannot choose their providers they cannot always determine the length and course of their mental health care they often do not have access to transportation to begin services to continue them or to take advantage of follow up recommendations The Therapeutic Assessment model is particularly adaptable to community psychology because it allows maximum interaction in the assessment process and promotes participation and collaboration in an often disempowering system This book will be relevant to clinical psychologists community psychologists social workers family therapists graduate students in psychology social work marriage and family therapists and counseling programs
