and Elijah and the herculean disciples beneath vulgarly exaggerated in gesture and attitude this is Ludovico Carracci's picture in the Bologna Gallery See illustration But he did not wish to end there He wanted a strong contrast and this he found in the episode of the demoniac boy It is the logical development of those principles of composition which he had adopted in the Heliodorus Stanza Above peace solemnity and celestial rapture beneath noisy crowds and earthly lamentation The Apostles stand there closely packed together There are confused groups and strident outlines The chief motive is a diagonal path over which the crowd has spread The figures in the lower part of the picture are on a larger scale than those in the upper but there is no danger of their outweighing the Transfiguration scene The clear geometrical disposition triumphs over all the tumult of the multitude Raphael was not able to finish this picture Many details of form are repellent and the whole is unattractive in colour But the great contrast in arrangement must have been his original thought Titian's Assumption was produced in Venice The Art of the Italian Renaissance Heinrich Wölfflin, 1963 The Art of the Italian Renaissance commissioned it He was apparently disgusted by the failure of the emissary who was probably more used to buying pigs than discussing art to accord the picture and the artist the value they deserved Any discussion of works of art and material culture implicitly assigns them a set of values Whether these values be monetary cultural or religious they tend to constrict the ways in which such works can be discussed The variety of potential forms of valuation becomes particularly apparent during the Italian Renaissance when relations between the visual arts and humanistic studies were undergoing rapid changes against an equally fluid social economic and political background In this volume 13 scholars explicitly examine some of the complex ways in which a variety of values might be associated with Italian Renaissance material culture Papers range from a consideration of the basic values of the materials employed by artists to the manifestation of cultural values in attitudes to dress and domestic devotion By illuminating some of the ways in which values were constructed they provide a broader context within which to evaluate Renaissance material culture     Routledge Revivals: Medieval Italy (2004).
