Good Morning Vietnam:

Good Morning Vietnam , Donation Good Morning, the Discussion Maker of Vietnam Leighanna Miller, 2019 First arriving on the big screen in 1987 Good Morning Vietnam is a comedic historical fiction film starring Robin Williams as Adrian Cronauer a new radio DJ for the United States Armed Forces in Saigon The film is loosely based on Adrian Cronauer's actual experiences in Saigon as a DJ during the Vietnam War Due to the comedic stylings of Robin Williams this film has become a well known ice breaker movie for classrooms across the United States to introduce students of many ages to the subject of the Vietnam War This film is different than most war films of its day as it shows both sides in the conflict as a human with reasons and goals for why they act as they do It provokes discussion on difficult topics such as censorship cultural barriers the reasons for violence and the overall effect that those topics had on the Vietnam War To understand how a popular culture film can have this effect in the classroom one must first look at the history of the information Meeting the Vietnamese Arndt Schmidt, 2012-02-15 Essay from the year 2008 in the subject History Miscellaneous grade 2 3 University of Cape Town Department of Historical Studies course Hollywood Vietnam language English abstract The traumatic experiences of their own troops and the fact that they were fighting against a largely invisible enemy may provide a hint at why U S film makers hardly yielded any space to the depiction of the Vietnamese in the first major portrayals of the Vietnam War The expectation of a failure at the box office was probably even more decisive The Vietnamese point of view was at first almost completely ignored The representation of the Vietnamese was mostly reduced to the fulfilment of merely functional purposes In films like Apocalypse Now and The Deer Hunter they are either victimized or demonized while in Hamburger Hill they may be promoted to the role of formidable enemies but are otherwise left in the dark There is no discernible effort made in these films to take a closer look at either the Vietnamese or at their country This changes with Barry Levinson's Good Morning Vietnam and Oliver Stone's Heaven and Earth While the former is based on the experiences of an American in Vietnam the latter builds upon two autobiographical books by a Vietnamese woman Le Ly Hayslip Thus whereas in Levinson's film Vietnamese people form an integral part for the experiences of the American protagonist Oliver Stone constructs his entire narrative around the life and character of his Vietnamese protagonist Le Ly Hayslip Eventually therefore both films convey representations of a culture that the American target audience is not familiar with This paper strives to explore the strategies and techniques that both films employ to this end What are their respective approaches What assumptions do they seem to hold about Vietnam and its people Which aspects do the films share and where do they differ Apart from the central aspects of the country and the people inhabiting it the topics of tradition dignity subversion as well as the role of atrocities will be discussed The Films of the Eighties William J. Palmer, 1995 In this remarkable sequel to his Films of the Seventies A Social History William J Palmer examines more than three hundred films as texts that represent revise parody comment upon and generate discussion about major events issues and social trends of the eighties Palmer defines the dialectic between film art and social history taking as his theoretical model the holograph of history that originated from the New Historicist theories of Hayden White and Dominick LaCapra Combining the interests and methodologies of social history and film criticism Palmer contends that film is a socially conscious interpreter and commentator upon the issues of contemporary social history In the eighties such issues included the war in Vietnam the preservation of the American farm terrorism nuclear holocaust changes in Soviet American relations neoconservative feminism and yuppies Among the films Palmer examines are Platoon The Killing Fields The River Out of Africa Little Drummer Girl Kiss of the Spiderwoman Silkwood The Day After Red Dawn Moscow on the Hudson Troop Beverly Hills and Fatal Attraction Utilizing the principles of New Historicism Palmer demonstrates that film can analyze and critique history as well as present it Good morning Vietnam ,1997 Guts and Glory Lawrence H. Suid,2015-01-13 Guts and Glory The Making of the American Military Image in Film is the definitive study of the symbiotic relationship between the film industry and the United States armed services Since the first edition was published nearly two decades ago the nation has experienced several wars both on the battlefield and in movie theatres and living rooms at home Now author Lawrence Suid has extensively revised and expanded his classic history of the mutual exploitation of the film industry and the military exploring how Hollywood has reflected and effected changes in America s image of its armed services He offers in depth looks at such classic films as Wings Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo The Longest Day Patton Top Gun An Officer and a Gentleman and Saving Private Ryan as well as the controversial war movies The Green Berets M A S H the Deer Hunter Apocalypse Now Platoon Full Metal Jacket and Born on the Fourth of July Good morning Vietnam Barry Levinson,1987 Press kit includes 1 booklet and 1 2 photograph The Greatest War Films of All Time Andrew J. Rausch,2004 The appeal of war stories is as old as story telling itself The Greatest War Films of All Time features 100 of the most celebrated and classic war films in history from All Quiet on the Western Front to Mindtalkers and the most illustrious film stars from John Wayne to Tom Hanks More than 105 quizzes on individual films cover all aspects of each masterpiece from the plot to the particulars of its production and reception While some of these questions cover details most movie fans will know many of them challenge even the most avid cinema buff Good Morning Vietnam Copy 1 , Good morning Vietnam Roman Pierzgalski,1991
