Goodbye Dearest Holly:

Goodbye, Dearest Holly Kevin Wells, 2005 On August 4 2002 Holly Wells Jessica Chapman went missing in Soham The police searched the girls families searched the local community searched After 13 days the bodies of Holly Jessica were found within 48 hours Ian Huntley was charged with their murder This text provides an account of the ordeal faced by the Wells Effective Investigation of Child Homicide and Suspicious Deaths David Marshall QPM,2012-02-08 Crimes against children are some of the most serious and demanding investigations that a police force can be involved with It is an extremely specialised crime area with its own legislation case law guidance and crucial multi agency working This book offers a practical operational guide to managing the investigation of child death and sets out the protocols and procedures relating to these deaths from sudden and unexpected deaths in infancy SUDI to suspicious cases and homicide Following the death of Baby Peter and the subsequent report by Lord Laming in 2009 Effective Investigation of Child Homicide and Suspicious Deaths outlines the revised statutory guidance on inter agency working By bringing together the key legislation guidance policies and procedures along with operational options and background information the author creates an indispensable resource for those tasked with this challenging but essential work Drawing on his own extensive experiences he outlines the relevant procedures of inquests and the criminal and family courts and summarises the specific offences relating to child deaths such as infanticide familial homicide procuring an abortion and child destruction. The role of expert medical evidence is explained as are the procedures relating to forensic post mortems and forensic samples and tests with contributions from key medical professionals framing the complex and technical within a more practical setting A reminder of the nuances of child death investigations is present in the striking but sensitive inclusion of personal accounts from the families of victims Effective Investigation of Child Homicide and Suspicious Deaths forms part of the Blackstone's Practical Policing Series The series consists of practical guides containing clear and detailed explanations of the relevant legislation police procedure and practice accompanied by case studies illustrative diagrams and useful checklists Effective Investigation of Child Homicide and Suspicious Deaths 2e David Marshall, 2024 Being the Soham Psychic Dennis Mckenzie, 2009-10-01 The remarkable story of one man's paranormal powers I am really sorry but both the girls are dead Dennis McKenzie was brought to the world's attention following his involvement in the tragic Soham murder case Making stunningly accurate predictions about the deaths of Holly Wells and Jessica Chapman he was dubbed the Soham Psychic Since then Dennis's expertise has continually been drawn on to help solve many horrific crimes including the case of the BTK Killer a serial killer who bound tortured and killed women in Wichita Kansas and evaded the police for over 30 years An ordinary boy from a working class background Dennis never imagined his life would follow such an extraordinary path From his first psychic sighting at the age of four to his traumatic prediction of a family friend s death Dennis shares the experiences that have defined his remarkable life in his typically frank and down to earth way This is the fascinating story of how Dennis discovered his gift and how with the help of his spirit guides he has shared his psychic wisdom with the world Murder and Society Peter Morrall, 2006-10-02 Human psychological and physical well being is damaged and destroyed when people are deliberately killed by other people There are millions of primary and secondary victims of murder throughout the world and human society as a whole is a tertiary victim of murder Despite this people are often fascinated and engrossed by stories of homicide and killers This book provides a fascinating exploration of murder providing an insight into what leads people to kill and what effect this has on society as a whole This book is organized into five chapters that each answer a specific question on murder What is Murder Who Commits Murder Why Commit Murder Why is Murder Devastating Why is Murder Fascinating The Book of My Son Reuben David Cohen, 2023-06-23 I wish I had not had to write this book because then my lovely son Reuben would still be alive says David Cohen He was adorable formidably intelligent a loving son a loving brother He died far too young He had the bad luck to have two grandparents who had addictive personalities His efforts to resist the lure of drugs failed And so did I The Book of My Son Reuben is a personal account of how psychologist David Cohen coped and did not cope with the death of his son Reuben Offering a unique perspective on the experience of parental loss it offers a personal and analytical exploration of sorrow and guilt and of what research tells us about trauma and grief Illustrated throughout with David Cohen's personal insight into how he continues to navigate his loss this honest book provides a deeper understanding of loss for parents who have experienced it as well as those who support them The book remembers the many parents who have lost children throughout history and chapters weave personal perspectives with the latest research It examines the experience of sudden deaths the failures of society in preventing children from dying the role of social media how the loss of a child impacts fathers siblings and relationships and the usefulness or otherwise of bereavement therapies A tribute to Reuben's life this sensitive volume is for those who have experienced loss and want to gain better understanding of their experience as well as psychologists psychotherapists and counsellors working with families Affaires de Famille Marie-Claire Barnet, Edward Welch, 2007 What are families like in contemporary France And what begins to emerge when we consider them from the point of view of recent theoretical perspectives faulty cohesion fake coherence carefully planned or subversive deconstruction loss of love confidence or credibility or even utter chaos and alarming confusion Which media revamp old stereotypes generate alternative reinterpretations and imply more ambiguous answers Uneasy contradictions and ambiguities emerge in this bilingual collection of approaches and genre studies The family plot seems to thicken as family ties appear to loosen Has the family been lost from sight or is it being reinvented in our collective imaginary. This book proposes a new series of perspectives and questions on an old and familiar topic exploring the state and status of the family in contemporary literature culture critical and psychoanalytic theory and sociology A Victim Community Nicola O'Leary, 2021-12-13 Although historically ignored crime victims are now very firmly on the map For politicians newspapers the media and the public at large criminal injury and loss are a source of constant concern and anxiety Criminologists and media analysts have studied much of this concern in recent years but what has not been investigated is how communities experience high profile crimes and the media intrusion that inevitably follows This book seeks to address this gap by exploring how the communities of Soham and Dunblane that witnessed high profile crimes lived with the tragic events at the time and the attention of the world's media afterwards Based on a two year qualitative study of these communities this book looks beneath the surface of the relationships dilemmas and unexpected triumphs of communities struggling to come to terms with the most harrowing of events within the glare of the media spotlight Combining empirical observations with media analysis and social theory this book offers something new to the criminological audience the concept of the victim community Good Night Ionathan -Good Morning Laura B. Smith, 2008-04 Description The author tragically lost her young son Jonathan aged 11 in an accident involving unsafe goalposts in January 1991 Since that time she has campaigned fiercely and tirelessly to make football a safe game for other children to play and her campaign has involved her in meetings with Sports Ministers Football Association Managers Members of Parliament and Television Radio and Newspaper interviews Until this tragedy nobody would have believed the strength she has to fight During this campaign her efforts have involved such heartache because each time she thought that legislation on safety was in sight another tragedy involving unsafe goalposts occurred and she addressed the hurt that other parents were feeling when another 10 children in the UK alone died in separate incidents due to unsafe goalposts Each time she again went through the empathetic pain of losing her much loved son Whilst coping with the campaign the author gave birth to Laura a severely disabled little girl who became the Light of her Life Her book charts Laura's progress from her initial diagnosis and the doctor's assessment that Laura would never walk or talk through to her teenage years The author's fighting spirit and that of her family along with Laura's tenacity to prove everybody wrong on so many occasions has won through and the book tells how she has worked so hard to make Laura s life the very best it can be This lovely happy little girl is at the centre of what is a real loving family and the book itself is Laura's story It is a very inspiring read especially to anyone who has received the devastating news that their child is not the perfect little person they expected them to be About the Author Mrs Brenda Smith is 53 and the mother of an autistic child with complex special needs She is a wife mother and grandmother and is employed as a Clerical Assistant with the Civil Service Brenda lost her young son in a tragic accident involving unsafe goalposts and has campaigned for 15 years to try to get legislation in place for all goalposts to be safe in an effort to protect other children She had lost a much loved child and been given a child that needed so much care and attention and she always will Brenda enjoyed writing the book and feels that if she had read a similar book it would have given her the strength and hope that she needed after she heard the news that Laura had such complex special needs Revelation Ruby French, 2014 Revelation is part one of a year long study into UK Child Abduction and highlights the connection between the UK Governments failure to act on what was Government set promises to parents The rapidly changing landscape that is UK Child Abduction whilst topical is not fully understood at a parental level Keeping it clandestine is failure to recognising its omnipresence in our lives Raising questions like How was it possible for paedophiles to secure some of the best Government jobs What will this cost us What will we tell our children and how can we protect them Prepare for a revelation and be prepared to change your opinion Contesting Childhood Kate Douglas, 2010-01-21 The late 1990s and early 2000s witnessed a surge in the publication and popularity of autobiographical writings about childhood Linking literary and cultural studies Contesting Childhood draws on a varied selection of works from a diverse range of authors from first time to experienced writers Kate Douglas explores Australian accounts of the Stolen Generation contemporary American and British narratives of abuse the bestselling memoirs of Andrea Ashworth Augusten Burroughs Robert Drewe Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Pelzer and Lorna Sage among many others Drawing on trauma and memory studies and theories of authorship and readership Contesting Childhood offers commentary on the triumphs trials and tribulations that have shaped this genre Douglas examines the content of the narratives and the limits of their representations as well as some of the ways in which autobiographies of youth have become politically important and influential This study enables readers to discover how stories configure childhood within cultural memory and the public sphere Court Number One Thomas Grant, 2019-05-30 A TELEGRAPH BOOK OF THE YEAR A TIMES BOOK OF THE YEAR A WATERSTONES PAPERBACK OF THE YEAR Superbly told Simon Heffer Daily Telegraph A hamper of treats Sunday Telegraph Grant employs scholarship and depth of evidence London Review of Books These tales of eleven trials are shocking squalid titillating and illuminating each of them says something fascinating about how our society once was The Times Deceptively thrilling Sunday Times Excellent Thomas Grant offers detailed accounts of eleven cases at the Old Bailey's Court Number One with protagonists ranging from the diabolical to the pathetic There is humour but this is ultimately an affecting study of how the law gets it right and wrong Guardian Court Number One of the Old Bailey is the most famous court room in the world and the venue of some of the most sensational human dramas ever to be played out in a criminal trial The principal criminal court of England historically reserved for the more serious and high profile trials Court Number One opened its doors in 1907 after the building of the new Old Bailey In the decades that followed it witnessed the trials of the most famous and infamous defendants of the twentieth century It was here that the likes of Madame Fahmy Lord Haw Haw John Christie Ruth Ellis George Blake and his unlikely jailbreakers Michael Randle and Pat Pottle Jeremy Thorpe and Ian Huntley were defined in history alongside a wide assortment of other traitors lovers politicians psychopaths spies con men and of course the innocent Not only notorious for its murder trials Court Number One recorded the changing face of modern British society bearing witness to alternate attitudes to homosexuality the death penalty freedom of expression insanity and the psychology of violence Telling the stories of twelve of the most scandalous and celebrated cases across a radically shifting century this book traces the evolving attitudes of Britain the decline of a society built on deference and discretion the tensions brought by a more permissive society and the rise of trial by mass media From the Sunday Times bestselling author of Jeremy Hutchinson's Case Histories Court Number One is a mesmerising window onto the thrills fears and foibles of the modern age Goodbye, a New Beginning Jan Traylor, 2012-08 My Book is an inspirational devotional It was written in order to help others going through hardships who just need a little something to encourage them I hope that my trials and challenges in life will show in these devotions and readers will be moved by my words The purpose of my book is to remind readers that God is always there for Proceedings of the Cambridge Antiquarian Society, with Communications Made to the Society Cambridge Antiguarian Society (Cambridge, England), 2006 Goodbye, Carrie, I Must Leave You Jill Duffield, 2015-04-09 A window into love marriage family and war at the start of the twentieth century this book presents original letters from a British Army sergeant to his young wife Some written in Bermuda in 1899 cover the couples courtship engagement marriage and migration to England Others are from South Africa where James Hill served from 1900 to 1902 in the South African War He seeks to reassure his wife Carrie of his safety and expresses his concerns for her Carrie newly arrived in Britain stayed with her paternal grandparents near Chatham where her first child was born in 1900 She treasured the letters for the rest of her life Carries own voice is silent Her feelings preoccupations tasks and entertainments are mediated by Jim as he responds to the contents of her letters in his replies. The silence of her destroyed letters compounds her lifelong verbal silence about her early life in Bermuda The letters and background commentary will explore family relationships and the impact of migration across continents at a time when gendered roles were assumed to be fixed but in reality had to be negotiated Letters of Rowland Gibson Hazard, 1922 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006
