Gospel Of Matthew In Current Study:

The Gospel of Matthew in Current Study David Edward Aune, 2001 First rate scholars here explore the pastoral and academic aspects of the study of Matthew's Gospel Built on the best of current research these chapters cover a diverse range of significant topics in addition to highlighting the points of disagreement that continue to stimulate scholarship in the field Published in memory of William G Thompson S J The Gospel of Matthew in Current Study is not only a fitting tribute to Thompson's lifelong interest in the First Gospel but is also an excellent introduction to contemporary Matthean studies with great potential as a classroom resource Contributors Richard S Ascough David E Aune Wendy Cotter Daniel J Harrington Jack Dean Kingsbury Amy Jill Levine Anthony J Saldarini Donald Senior Graham N Stanton Thomas H Tobin Elaine Wainwright Community, Law and Mission in Matthew's Gospel Paul Foster, 2004 Revision of the author's thesis doctoral University of Oxford 2002 Jesus, Matthew's Gospel and Early Christianity Daniel M. Gurtner, Joel Willits, Richard A. Burridge, 2011-10-27 The passing of Professor Graham Stanton former Lady Margaret chair of divinity at Cambridge University in 2009 marked the passing of an era in Matthean scholarship and studies of early Christianity Stanton's 15 books and dozens of articles span thirty four years and centre largely on questions pertaining to the gospel of Matthew and early Christianity The present volume pays tribute to Stanton by engaging with the principal areas of his research and contributions the Gospel of Matthew and Early Christianity Contributors to the volume each engage a research question which intersects the contribution of Stanton in his various spheres of scholarly influence and enquiry The distinguished contributors include Richard Burridge David Catchpole James D G Dunn Craig A Evans Don Hagner Peter Head Anders Runesson and Christopher Tuckett Handbook on the Gospels (Handbooks on the New Testament) Benjamin L. Gladd, 2021-06-01 A leading New Testament scholar provides an easy to navigate resource for studying and understanding the Gospels Written with classroom utility and pastoral application in mind this accessibly written volume summarizes the content of each major section of the biblical text to help students pastors and laypeople quickly grasp the sense of particular passages The series modeled after Baker Academic's successful Old Testament Handbook series focuses primarily on the content of the biblical books without getting bogged down in historical critical questions or detailed verse by verse exegesis The book covers all four Gospels and explores each major passage showing how Jesus is the central figure of each plot It also unpacks how the Old Testament informs the Gospels The Sermon on the Mount and the Ewes of Ghana Frederick Mawusi Amevenku, 2023-11-07 Using socio rhetorical interpretation to study Matthew's Sermon on the Mount the book explores the contextual interpretation of the sermon among the Ghana Ewe The book argues that the Sermon on the Mount can be viewed as Jesus' new kingdom gospel and a reinterpretation of the Mosaic law teaching not only ethics but also kingdom appropriate righteousness for theological and ethical renewal Kingdom appropriate righteousness is nurtured through daily exchanges with God leading to habitual forgiveness and subsequent divine perfection of love for God and one's enemies In the contemporary context kingdom appropriate righteousness challenges the deficient compulsory wealth prosperity gospel Christianity that is promoted in contemporary Ghana and elsewhere

Matthew's Theological Grammar Joshua E. Leim, 2015-10-19 Are the identity of God and Jesus Christ inseparably related in Matthew's Gospel Joshua E. Leim argues for this relationship in Matthew's narrative by attending to two linguistic patterns woven deeply into the entire narrative's presentation of Jesus Matthew's christological use of worship language and his paternal filial idiom Back cover

Mothers on the Margin? E. Anne Clements, 2014-05-01 The Gospel of Matthew opens with a patrilineal genealogy of Jesus that intriguingly includes five women Tamar Rahab Ruth she of Uriah and Mary In a gospel that has a strongly Jewish and male orientated outlook why are women incorporated In particular why include these four Old Testament women alongside Mary Rejecting traditional as well as feminist views Anne Clements undertakes a close literary reading of the narratives to discern how each woman is characterized and presented All are significant scriptural figures on the margins of Israelite society From this intertextual world established by Matthew Clements explores why Matthew may have named these women in the opening genealogy and what implications their inclusion may have for the ongoing gospel narrative Mothers on the Margin argues that Matthew's Gospel contains a counter narrative focused on women The presence of the five women in the genealogy indicates that the birth of the Messiah will bring about a crisis in Israel's identity in terms of ethnicity marginality and gender The women signal that Matthew's Gospel is concerned with the construal of a new identity for the people of God

Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels (2nd edn) J B GREEN, J BROWN, N PERRIN, 2020-05-21 The Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels is unique among reference books on the Bible the first volume of its kind since James Hastings published his Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels in 1909 In the more than eight decades since Hastings our understanding of Jesus the Evangelists and their world has grown remarkably New interpretive methods illumined the text the ever changing profile of modern culture has put new questions to the Gospels and our understanding of the Judaism of Jesus's day has advanced in ways that could not have been predicted in Hastings's day But for many readers of the Gospels the new outlook on the Gospels remains hidden within technical journals and academic monographs The Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels bridges the gap between scholars and those pastors teachers students and lay people desiring in depth treatment of select topics in an accessible and summary format The topics range from cross sectional themes such as faith law Sabbath to methods of interpretation such as form criticism redaction criticism sociological approaches from key events such as the birth temptation and death of Jesus to each of the four Gospels as a whole Some articles such as the Dead Sea Scrolls rabbinic traditions and revolutionary movements at the time of Jesus provide significant background information to the Gospels Others reflect recent and less familiar issues in Jesus and Gospel studies such as divine man ancient rhetoric and the chreiai Contemporary concerns of general interest are discusses in articles covering such topics as healing the demonic and the historical reliability of the Gospels And for those entrusted with communicating the message of the Gospels there is an extensive article on preaching from the Gospels The Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels presents the fruit of evangelical New Testament scholarship at the end of the twentieth century committed to the authority of Scripture utilising the best of critical methods and maintaining dialog with contemporary scholarship and challenges facing the church The Future Restoration of Israel Stanley E. by the signal contributions that New Testament scholar Richard B Hays has made to Christology and Christian ethics the essays collected here carry forward conversations involving close studies of particular passages in the Gospels and Epistles and wider ranging forays into big questions in those fields Some essays build on Hays s work pushing forward in new directions on questions of scriptural intertextuality Christology and participation in Christ Others challenge his work on questions of method and substance alike But all reflect appreciation for the advances made by this giant of twentieth and twenty first century New Testament scholarship Matthew's New David at the End of Exile Nicholas G.

Piotrowski, 2016-09-07 Matthew crowds more Old Testament quotations and allusions into the prologue than anywhere else in his gospel In this volume Nicholas G Piotrowski demonstrates the narratological and rhetorical effects of such frontloading Particularly seven formula quotations constellate to establish a redemptive historical setting inside of which the rest of the narrative operates This setting is defined by Old Testament expectations for David s great son to end Israel s exile and rule the nations Piotrowski contends that the rhetorical effect of this intertextual storytelling was to provide the Matthean community with an identity in a contentious atmosphere in terms of God s historical design for the ages now fulfilled in Jesus and his followers Like a Hammer Shattering Rock Megan McKenna, 2013-02-05 Renowned Catholic author Megan

McKenna celebrates her 50th book with a controversial interpretation of the Gospels of Mark Matthew Luke and John and what they mean for the Church and society today In many ways modern audiences have become so familiar with the gospels that we ve stopped listening and integrating their wisdom into our everyday lives Acclaimed author Megan McKenna explores the messages of the four gospels in the context of daily life when they were originally written and interprets their meaning for our modern world While some argue for the development of new gospels for the 21st century McKenna argues that we haven t paid due attention to the ones we already have in many cases we ve ignored sections of these teachings entirely and twisted their meaning to suit our own agendas McKenna breaks it down gospel by gospel and shows us how the lessons of Jesus s apostles continue to resonate How to Read the Gospels Yung Suk Kim, 2024-05-29 This accessible introduction to the Gospels examines the distinctive messages offered by the texts giving students a better understanding of methods and interpretations It explores a close reading of each Gospel and encourages students to approach texts from their own perspectives from postcolonialism to environmentalism The discussion questions included will help students focus their reflections on the gospel narrative its theology and methods of reading it How to Read the Gospels is an ideal textbook for undergraduate and seminary classrooms The book aims to reach seminary and graduate students who study the Gospels critically and comprehensively It provides user friendly summaries such as the basics of each Gospel authorship history important parables etc the Jesus of each Gospel and notable interpretation and translation issues Without reading the entire story readers often focus on only specific passages This book aims to foster close reading of each entire text sensitizing students to historical and literary issues that commonly arise and helping them better understand various ways to interpret these formative stories What makes this book unique is that it also engages various readings of the Gospels from traditional to deconstruction approaches including womanist interpretation disability interpretation ecological interpretation and many more For example how can readers understand the story of Jesus surprising conversation with the Samaritan woman in John 4 through the lens of feminism Or postcolonial criticism By providing alternative ways to think about these stories and various methods of approaching texts that may be new to the student the book opens up how such passages can be interpreted and appreciated

The Mary Magdalene Tradition Holly E. Hearon, 2004 In The Mary Magdalene Tradition Holly Hearon offers an understanding of the early Church the role of women in the Church and the power of narrative to shape community understanding and practice By examining the rhetorical function of the post resurrection appearance to Mary Magdalene traditions in early Christian communities Hearon draws connections between these ancient communities and the life of the Church today Beginning with a reconstruction of the practice of storytelling in the world of antiquity Hearon situates the Magdalene narratives in this oral storytelling environment Focusing on the fluid nature of storytelling Hearon explores how the traditions were used to further arguments by storytellers with respect to women s leadership in Christian communities Particular attention is given to the Gospels of Matthew and John highlighting the relationship of the Gospel narratives to specific historical circumstances facing the early Church Chapters are Storytelling in the World of Antiquity Origins of the Post Resurrection Appearance to Mary Magdalene Tradition The Function of the Mary Magdalene Tradition in Oral Storytelling Circles Storytelling Strategies in Matthew The Function of the Mary Magdalene Tradition In Its Literary Context The Mary Magdalene Tradition and Matthean Communities The Function of the Tradition in Response to Historical Circumstances Storytelling Strategies in John The Function of the Mary Magdalene Tradition In Its Literary Context The Mary Magdalene Tradition and Johannine Communities The Function of the Tradition in Response to Historical Circumstances Epilogue A Consideration of Storytelling in Relation To Our Understanding of Communities in the Past and the Shaping of Communities for the Future

Hearing the Word of God John R. Donahue, 2004 Father Donahue s commentaries on the lectionary readings in Hearing the Word of God first appeared as a popular weekly column in American covering Cycle A Since some of the Sundays in the Cycle were displaced by particular feasts reflections on these Sundays have also been added Hearing the Word of God includes Scripture readings for the Sunday followed by a reflection on the reading and concludes with Praying with Scripture a series of questions and meditations to guide readers in making a personal application of the reflection

outstanding textbook sets a new standard for the genre The usual topics of New Testament introduction are integrated with instruction in interpretative strategies and application to ministry formation The attractive layout includes numerous maps photographs and text boxes Soundings in the Religion of Jesus Bruce Chilton,Anthony Le Donne,2012 Jesus was a Jew and not a Christian That affirmation may seem obvious but here an international cast of Jewish and Christian scholars spell out its weighty and often complex consequences for contemporary Jewish Christian dialogue Soundings in the Religion of Jesus contextualizes Jesus and the writings about him that set the stage for Jewish Christian relations for the next two thousand years Of equal importance this book considers the reception celebration and too often the neglect of Jesus Jewishness in modern contexts and the impact such responses have had for Jewish Christian relations Topics explored include the ethics of scriptural translation the ideological motives of Nazi theologians and other quests for the Historical Jesus and the ways in which New Testament portraits of Jesus both help and hurt authentic Jewish Christian dialogue
