The Ministry of Women in the New Testament Dorothy A. Lee,2021-02-16 Respected scholar Dorothy Lee considers evidence from the New Testament and early church to show that women's ministry is confirmed by the biblical witness. Her comprehensive examination explores the roles women played in the Gospels and the Pauline corpus with a particular focus on passages that have been used in the past to limit women's ministry. She argues that women in the New Testament were not only valued as disciples but also given leadership roles which has implications for the contemporary church.

The Gospel of Mark Charles A. Bobertz, 2016-10-18 How Baptism and the Eucharist Shaped Early Christian Understandings of Jesus Long before the Gospel writers put pen to papyrus the earliest Christians participated in the powerful rituals of baptism and the Lord's Supper which fundamentally shaped their understanding of God Christ and the world in which they lived. In this volume a respected biblical scholar and teacher explores how cultural anthropology and ritual studies elucidate ancient texts. Charles Bobertz offers a liturgical reading of the Gospel of Mark arguing that the Gospel is a narrative interpretation of early Christian ritual. This fresh responsible and creative proposal will benefit scholars professors and students. Its ecclesial and pastoral ramifications will also be of interest to church leaders and pastors.
